GOING DOG WILD

Throughout the years, Independence High School has had many changes. One of the most obvious to the 1993 yearbook staff is that IHS is "Going Dog Wild."

There is more school spirit than ever before. When talking about spirit, games and class participation is what is being referred to.

According to Mr. Karleskant, at games, there is more "creative dress." From freshmen to seniors, everyone backs the teams.

Game and contest attendance was on a rise in 1993. Spirit weeks weren't particularly enthusiastic to the classes, but when game day arrived, IHS was up and at 'em, roaring to go.

Mrs. Brookshire said, "Never until this year have I felt football fever so strongly." Home games were always packed with students cheering and supporting the teams.

There has been more of an interest in girls going out for things in the past few years. This has proved to be a great step for IHS. Support for them was great, also.

Only one time this year did things get out of hand at a game. Does everyone remember this? Students supporting our team members booed the other team and yelled at the reffs. After that, though, the energy was turned to the positive side with spirit for IHS rising and good sportsmanship.

In the school scene, the spirit has grown, also, according to Mrs. Brookshire. Club involvement is 50 to 60 percent, which is great. The student body has a caring attitude towards others. Spirit week died, but spirit is still up.

In the next few years, let spirit escalate even more. Keep up the good work!

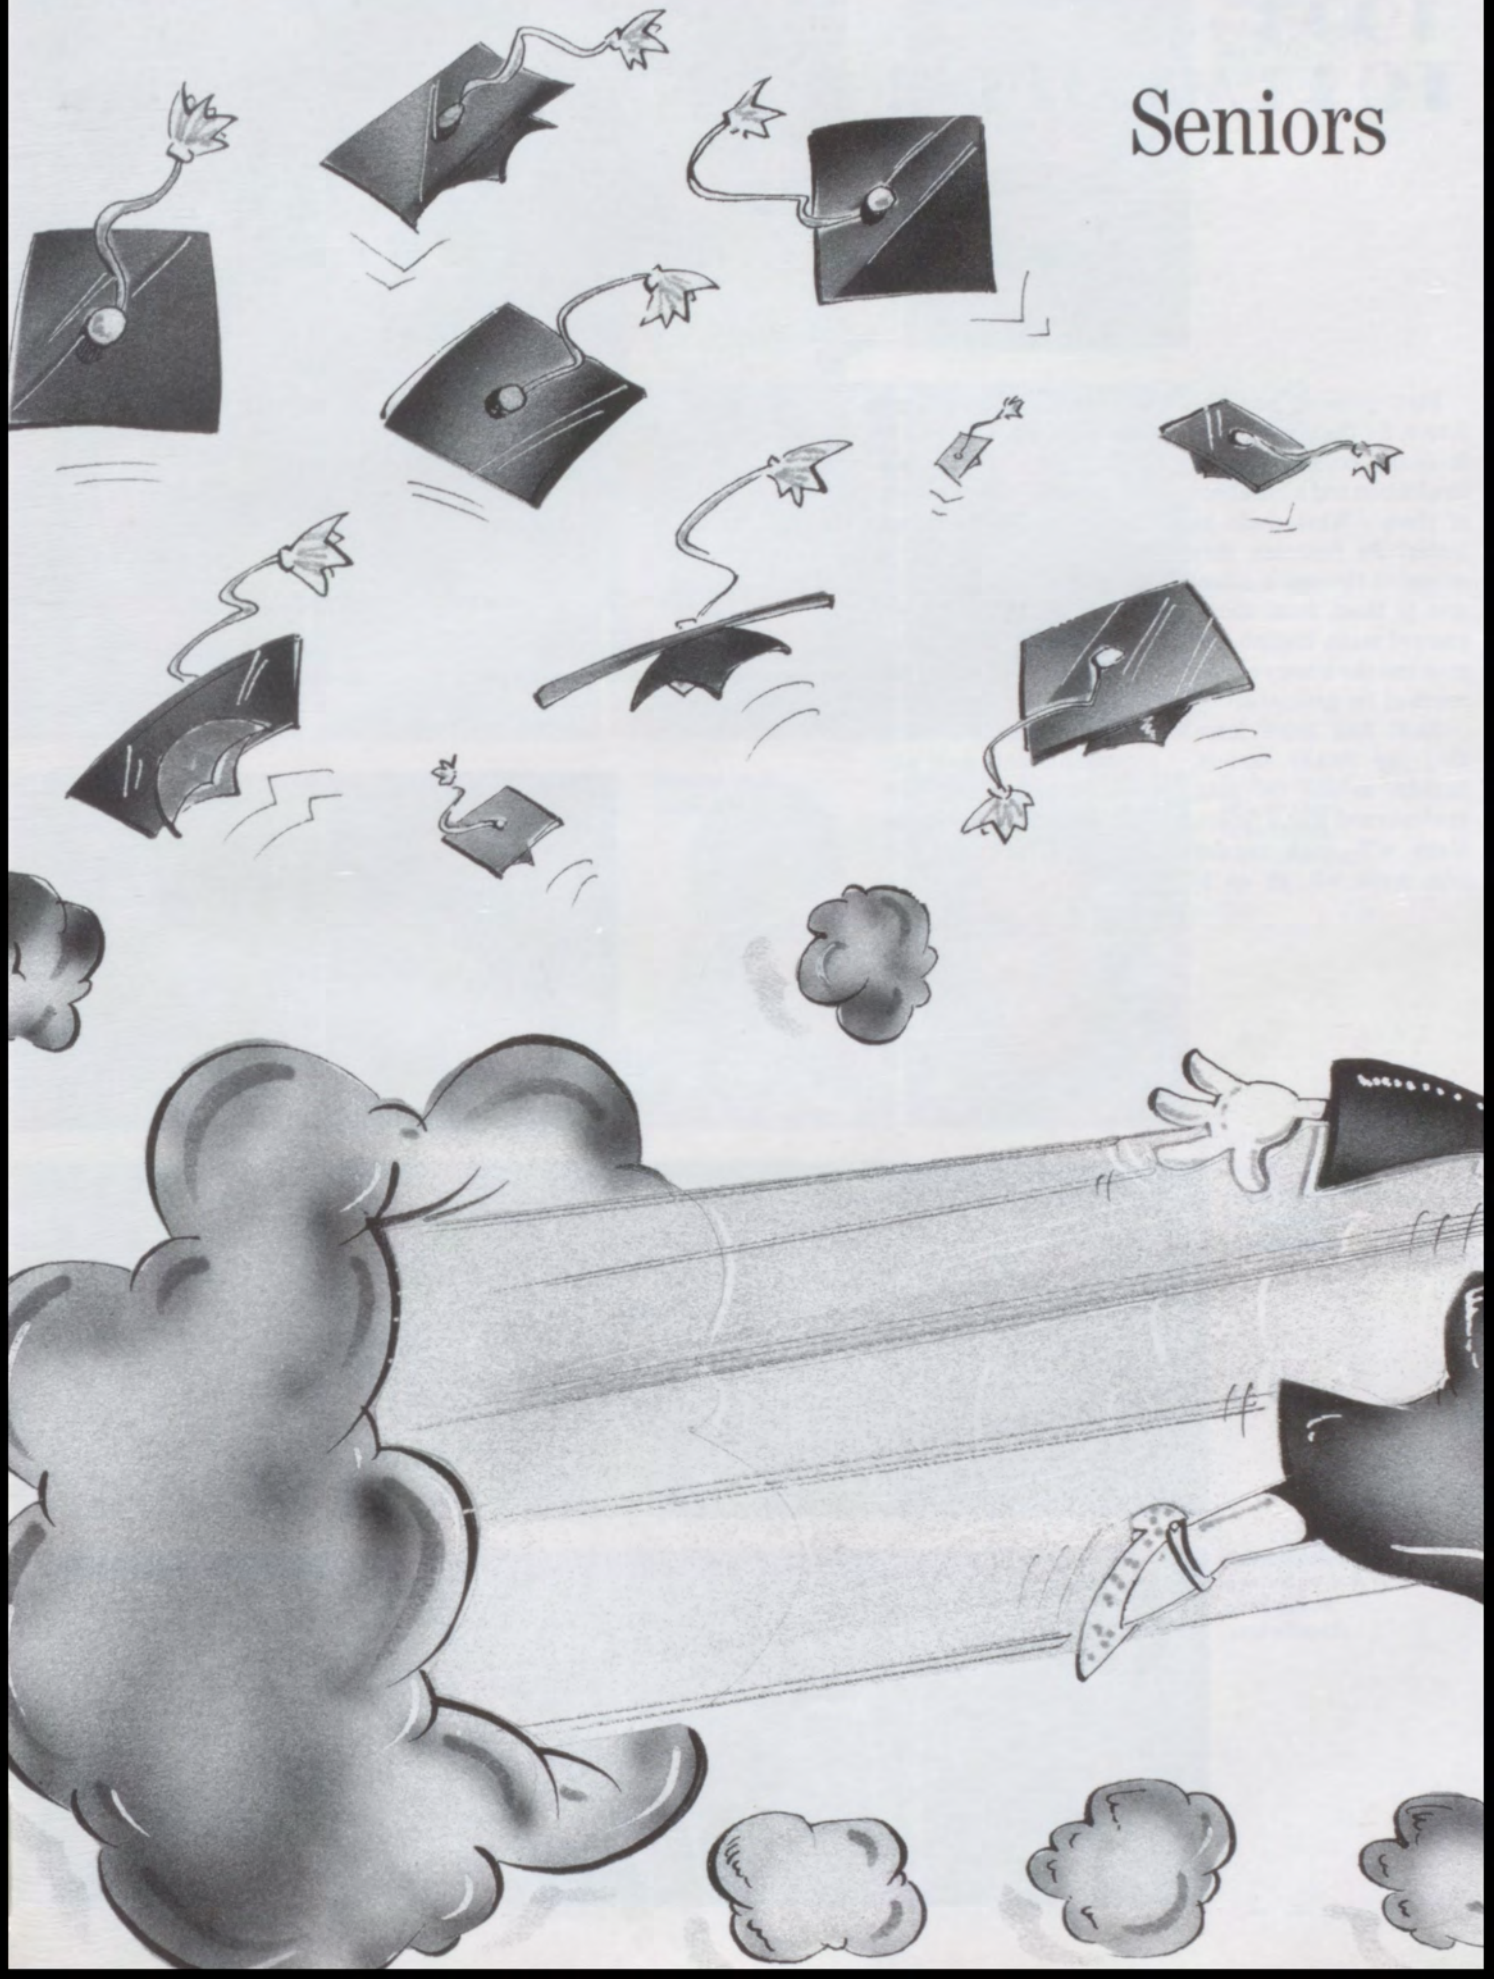
Seniors



1993 • A YEAR TO REMEMBER!

Past, present, and the future, for the class of 1993 it finally comes together. Graduation and a life ahead of them - What could be better? As freshman they struggled through a school new to them. Soon ahead, years of math, English, science and the history classes required for graduation.

Now, four years later, they are finally seniors, anxious to end the year, graduate and plan a future. Many will work regular jobs, some will go on to college, others the military after graduation.

They have already accomplished many events before time, like the recent change in the location of graduation, supplies gathered for Hurricane Andrew victims and the first Senior Portfolio to be placed in the foyer for the future. From the years of hard work, accomplishments good and bad, remember the past and we will always be "Class of 1993."

Senior class officers, Kathy Osborn, president; Heather Scott, treasurer; Josh Clemmor, vice president; and Paula Reynolds, secretary show their spirit for the senior class.

The freshmen handled the age old quote 'Did you find the stairs with gritted teeth and false smiles.'
Tabitha Ransbottom said that she likes the privileges and the open lunch hour. .
Bruce Shields said he likes the different school and the different people he gets to meet. Jessica Vineyard said, "I like being at a new school that I know nothing about."
Kelly Bloomfield said, "I hate the upper classmen always saying stuff."
Jay Alexander said that his class has strengthened by doing things and sticking together. Ransbottom thinks that the high school has improved her more.
Ransbottom, Shields, Bloomfield, and Alexander all say that the school's food is all right, but some others don't agree.
Alexander, Kibby, and Shields gossip about girls and last night's game while the girls gossip about boys and new clothes.
Alexander says that he stands in the middle of the hall because his friends are down at the other end and he doesn't want to walk the extra mile down there.

BULLDOG FOOTBALL TACKLES WINNING SEASON

The first winning season since 1985, that is what the varsity football team accomplished. The Bulldogs didn't start off with a great season, but once they got a taste of winning, they liked it. At the beginning of the season it seemed as if it would be the typical year in Bulldog football. The first three home games were losses for the Bulldogs. The Bulldogs finally went on the road to Mulvane and shut out the Wildcats, 21-0. Still on the road, the team was able to overcome the Vikings from Parsons in an intense overtime game. The next two games were also on the road where the Dogs were able to knock off Neosho 35-7. At Pittsburgh the Bulldogs came close but fell short in the end 27-33. The last home game was played against the Ft. Scott Tigers. The Dogs easily beat them with a score of 40-20. For the very last game of the season, the Dogs travelled to Coffeyville. The game was won by the Bulldogs with a score of 14-7. Independence regained the travelling trophy from the 'Nado which they had had for the past ten years. To sum up the season Coach Simmons said, "I was very proud of the way the boys plauyed togther and how they hung in there." Junior Bryan Ysusi said, "The season was very successful and we couldn't have done it without the help of our great linemen."

The Best Year Ever

IHS volleyball went to the top, best yet in IHS history. Their record was 35-3. Accomplishments include second place at the Ark City tournament, and first place at the Neodesha tournament. The girls had a tie for first place in the SEK league and the team was Sub-State champions. The biggest accomplishment for the girls was receiving second place at the state tournament.

Coach Christy Speicher said, "This year's season was the kind of season every coach dreams of having. It was definitely one of the most talented and dedicated teams I've ever coached. I hated to see it end. I really love those girls."

Boys and girls Cross Country had their most successful season ever. The girls had a full team of seven runners for the first time in the school's history. They finished third at the Altamont and Indy Invitational for their highest finish of the year and placed fourth in the SEK.

The boys had an outstanding season winning the SEK for the second year in a row and first at Altamont and winning the Indy Invitational. They finished third in the Regional and sixth place at the state meet.

Runner Jeff King said,"It was definitely the best year and I'm really going to miss running with the guys next year."

COURTS TO REMEMBER

Brooke Thompson and Sam Wood

Michelle Hiser and Jed Fitzpatrick

Kathy Osburn and Lee Horning

The tension was mounting as half-time of the boys basketball got closer. then it was half-time and they were announcing the candidates and their escorts. Suddenly it was over and we had a new reigning winter sports king and queen. Who was the lucky couple? Well, one of the most deserving, Julie Cunningham and Troy Burkey. The remaining candidates were Michelle Hiser and Jed Fitzpatrick, Brooke Thompson and Sam Wood, Kathy Osburn and Lee Horning and Amber Sanborn and Chris Thompson.

Fall sports Homecoming was on September 18,1992 and the week previous was full of activities. First, the students chose a homecoming queen. Nominations were taken from the fall sports teams. Then, the teams narrowed it to the Fall Sports Queens court consisting of five girls. The girls were then notified and filled out a questionnaire on themselves and chose an escourt. The five queen candidates and their escourts were senior, Amber Sanborn (senior escort Jason Dickerson); senior, Brooke Thompson (junior escort Lee Horning); senior, Jill Muller (senior escort Aric Journot); senior, Paula Reynolds (senior escort Bobby Courtney) and junior, Carla Saichompoo (senior escort Terry Carroll). Then, the entire student body had the final vote on the queen.

While all of the queen candidate activites were taking place, each grade level, club, and sport was busy making it's float for the parade, which was held in honor of homecoming, Friday after school. It began at Potts Funeral Home and ended at Memorial Hall where the pep rally was held.

"The parade went great and was a lot of fun for everyone," said Aric Journot. The football game played that evening was against the Chanute Comets where the Bulldogs lost 35-7. That evening junior, Carla Saichompoo was crowned the 1992 Fall Sports Homecoming Queen.

First take brute strength, second take dominating determination, third take IHS spirit and what do you have? The perfect makeup for a super wrestler. IHS has an overabundance of these particular characteristics.

Six of our finest made it to state. From 103 lbs. up, we dominated. The wrestlers that made it to state were Tim Veith at 103 lbs., Sam Wood at 135 lbs., Troy Burkey at 140 lbs., Kevin Neises at 145 lbs., Jed Fitzpatrick at 160 lbs., and Lee Horning was a heavyweight. Troy Burkey and Tim Veith made it to the second day of tournaments. But, Sam Wood dominated everyone from IHS by placing second at state.

The Indy Baseball team had a rough season at the beginning. Several storms delayed playing on the field. Their first eight games Indy was 6-2.As the season went on, the bulldogs won some more games to end the season 12-9. Best record ever! It gave the boys a chance at state. It was their first appearance ever. At McDonald Stadium the boys got defeated by St. Thomas-Aquians Saints 6-2 during opening round. They also received first at Indy Invitational and Regional Tournament and second place at S.E.K. League

IHS softball finished 11-11 on the season, 8-4 in SEK (second place). Rainy weather played havoc with the season, from postponents to countless changes in the practice locations and schedule. The Lady Bulldogs did not have the kind of season they were hopng for, but did well late in the year, winning 6 of their 8 games. IHS peaked at regionals, beating Winfield 17-1 before losing a hard-fought 4-0 game to undefeated Ark City in the finals.

IHS Cheerleaders do more than just cheer during the fall and winter. They sponsor an afterschool academy class for grades one through five. Two cheerleaders teach one grade for eight weeks for an hour every Wednesday. The children are taught different cheers and chants.

"It was a lot of fun and I enjoyed doing it." said Michelle Hiser, senior cheerleader. The cheerleaders attended a camp at Pittsburg and received the Grand Champs spirit awards. They also participated in the Suzanne Softball Tournament.

During the summer the cheerleaders worked hard. They practiced and conditioned everyday from seven o'clock to nine o'clock. "I really like being a cheerleader even though its a lot of hard work." said Dawn Yan, freshman cheerleader.

Cheerleaders not only cheer for football and basketball but for volleyball and wrestling. They also decorate players lockers before games.

Stuco has done a lot of activities this year. Starting off was the pop game, for which you had to have a can of pop for admission. During the Neewollah festival, Stuco sponsored the homecoming game and parade, which the sophomore float won. Stuco had the Miss Muscle contest that Ashley Sherwood won. The money was used to send Carla Saichompoo to State Homecoming. During the Christmas season they had a Mr. Legg's contest and adopt-a-family. Stuco also sponsors Morp and Ecology/Spirit Week. Something new for this year was Bicycle Day in which a lot of the student body participated. Every year Stuco does bloodmobile and this year they had 103 pints donated. Something new for Stuco this year was the seniors pictures held in a multi-plex display case in the foyer. Kathy Osburn was named stuco member-of-the-year. The officers were Jeff King, president; Kathy Denny, vice-president; Angie Bannworth, secretary; Angie Price, Treasurer.

Future Educators of America is a state-wide organization sponsored by Mrs. Cox. It was just reorganized three years ago. Future Educators of America takes place of student NEA. Independence Chapter was on the ground floor in reorganizing FEA. The club attends conferences every year at Pittsburgh and Emporia. The organization is for students who would like to have teaching as a career. There are 12 to 13 members, most of the members have to maintain a high GPA (Grade Point Average). FEA helps with the Parents Night and with teacher inservice. They worked with local NEA Chapter selling tee-shirts to the teachers. FEA won the national logo contest this year and the year before last national competent. FEA is always looking for new members. In Pittsburgh, FEA learned about student loans, degrees they want to pursue and also took campus tours.

KAYS TEACH I.H.S. GOOD CITIZENSHIP

The KAY club does many activities for the community as well as the school. Each month the KAY's visit a nursing home of their choice to play bingo with the residents of that facility. The club also helps with highway clean up on the stretch of highway the school is responsible for keeping it looking neat and tidy.

The KAY club also does school service projects. They fold newsletter for the office, dust the trophy cases in the foyer, and the club is always picking up trash in the parking lots for the beautification of the school. One new project the KAY club took on was planting flowers in front of the school for another homelike feeling for the students and the faculty.

Another thing the KAY club does is put on parties for the mentally handicapped kids at the Tri-County Preschool. They have thrown Halloween, Valentine, and Christmas parties.

"The kids really love to have those parties," said Beverly Willis, KAY sponsor. One last thing the club does is recognize the faculty's birthdays once a month.

The club is divided into seven groups each given a responsibility to take care of for that month. One group might have to give a reach pre-school party and another group might have to make cakes for the faculty.

SADD has done many fund raisers throughout the year, such as raffling a dream date for a dollar. The winner was Brian Smith who's dream date was with Mandy Corn. On May 22, SADD along with a few other clubs, went to Worlds of Fun as their final trip. During their meetings they plan fund raisers and once in a while have a guest speaker. When interviewed collectively, some SADD members said that "they like to help people understand driving drunk is wrong and it sounded like a fun club." They also felt that drunk driving was a big problem that needs a lot of attention.

NATIONAL FORENSICS LEAGUE

Dogs with Awesome Acting Abilities

According to two experienced members, this year NFL is going great. It has been better than other years because they had two major fundraisers. Towards the end of the year, they had a car wash at the Commercial Bank where many people got wet and they had a garage sale at Trisha Hogan's house while some people worked, others played pool. Along with having a blast, the club made over 100 dollars at each!

With the money they made from the fundraisers, the club went to a dinner theatre. This was extremely pleasant.

A major excitement feature this year had to do with the impeachment of the president. This was the first year in many this has happened.

Overall, 1993 was a very interesting and funfilled year for the forensicators of IHS.

Community Volunteer is a class where the student has choice of a site around Independence where the student will spend one or two hours daily. Several places around town offer internship which include retail businesses, childrens daycare, and nursing homes. Shirlene Turner directs the program.

Students who are tutors can go to any of the elementary schools including the Catholic and Lutheran schools. They may also tutor at the middle school.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION!

Media was a new class, taught by Leah Shepard, Media was a radio and production class. The students learned how to run television equipment and inventions in front of the cameras. Several basketball games were taped with the help of Cable Vision. Many field trips were taken. A tour of KUSN and Pittsburg TV station were examples of trips taken.

In forensics students learn how to use their acting and speaking abilities. Students act out parts of plays or recite poetry. They also may participate in tournaments. Iola, Chanute, and Fort Scott were a few places where tournaments were held. Students are judged on body language, the act, and the way they speak. First they are judged individually and then as a group. If their squad has the best scores, they receive a trophy.

A TREMENDOUS WAY TO ENCOURAGE ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Renaissance was an incentive program rewarding students for an improvement in grades. If students earned good grades they received incentive packets that included food coupons, Kmart coupons, free t-shirts, and more.

Rallies were held where the students received the packets, free pizza and drawings for discounted meals, free portraits and more.

Responsible for Renaissance were Mr. Collins,Mrs. Spencer, Mr. Shelton and representatives from the business communities, partners in Renaissance.

Renaissance also made a difference in most students grades. 24 students increased their grade point average +.5 or better the first period, 93 students from second quarter to third quarter.

FUTURE BETTY CROCKERS

Sewing is a big part of Home Economics. Shirlene Turner is the instructor of the sewing department. Sewing 1-3 are the classes offered. In Sewing 1 students begin to learn the basics of the trade. There is a requirement of 2 to 3 projects depending on how fast the sewer is. Students were able to show their handiwork off at EXPO '93.

Cooking is the other half of Home Economics and equally important. Sherry Staton is the instructor. Several different classes are available. Discovering Foods, Food for Modern Living, Creative Cookery, and Gourmet Cooking are the offered courses. When beginning cooking in Discovering Foods you learn how to identify and operate cooking equipment. Students also learn how to prepare a basic meal.

ART HELPS STUDENTS TO COPE WITH LIFE

Virginia Hawk works in ceramics.

Art classes consist of Ceramics I and II, Jewelry I and II, Drawing I and II, Design, and Painting I and II. The two teachers who teach these classes are William Trouskie and Rachel Worthington. William Trouskie; the teacher of Jewelry I and II, and Ceramics I and II, is said to be one of the funniest teacher to work with. His classes have an average of 15-20 students so you get plenty individual help. Rachel Worthington; the teacher of Drawing I and II, Design, and Painting I and II, is said to be nice teacher who explains things well. She helps students both inside and outside of class with their projects.

WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS . . .

Not since 1988 has Independence High School had such a great girl's basketball team. It's not surprising though with Coach of the Year Ron Schwatkin. But the coach is only part of it. The other ingredients for such a great team are the "twin towers" Julie Cunnigham and Amber Sanborn. Add an excellent point guard like Kathy Osburn. Two speed demons like Jamie Osborn and Delania Renfro. Pour in some Nancy Mitchell, Donna Harris, Kelly Springer, Carrie Agosto, Valerie Olson, and Andrea Ysusi and you have the 1992-93 Girls State Basketball Champions

The champions destroyed three teams faster than a tornado destroys a town. The teams they defeated were Shawnee Heights 63-41, Sumner Academy 57-36, and McPherson 54-32. The overall record was 24 wins and (teams) 1 loss. Now the team can really sing "We are the Champions."

Morp, prom spelled backwards, is a night to dress down, act crazy, and just have fun. This year's morp king was senior, Bob Courtney. In the air-band competition, seniors, Mike Jones, Bob Courtney, Josh Clemmer, Jason Dickerson, Andy Frame, Terry Carroll, and Jeff Simmons, junior, took home the prize with their rendition of "Girls" by the Beastie Boys. The obstacle course winning team consisted of Lisa Hiser, Jed Fitzpatrick, Lee Horning, juniors, Grant Miller, senior, and Mr. Hayward. (Layout by Erin Chapman.)

PREPARING FOR THE FUTURE

The class of 1993 gathered together on Sunday, May 30, at two o'clock p.m. to celebrate their graduation. After many changes, graduation was finally held at Memorial Hall. The seniors voted to hold graduation at Shulthis Stadium. Due to the track not being finished, graduation was moved. Each senior was given 12 tickets. The remaining tickets were given to the public. On graduation day, television sets chairs were set up in the civic center for those who wished to watch but didn't have tickets.

Ryan Lindsey, senior, has been working a Homeland for a year and a half and is currently a checker.

This survey was done towards the end of the 1992-1993 school year. It was done to show where students worked, how many hours they got, what type of job they hold, why they got a job, and how they spend their money. There was also other questions that were asked in the survey to show things about the average working student at IHS. There were 100 surveys turned back in and this is the composite scores of them.

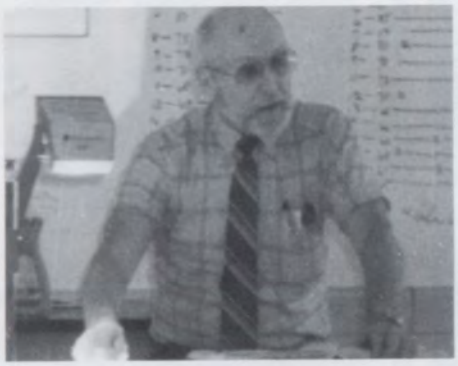
TEACHERS RETIRE

IHS says goodbye to several well-known teachers this year. Lloyd Harding, Connie Harding, Larry Mascus, and Bill Singleton leave us to retire in the 1992-1993 school year. Lloyd Harding has taught twenty-nine years in Moscow, Kansas and here at Independence, Kansas. Throughout his years he has encountered a few difficulties through teaching good and bad. The best was students and faculty while the worst seemed to be encountering students who don't use what they have in learning. He has also noticed quite a change in the students motivation to learn because now there are not as much. Lloyd Harding is qualified to teach many classes. These classes include: General Math, Algebra, Geometry, Physics, Psychology, and many others. His favorites are Chemistry, physics, and Pre-Calc. While all of this has happened the greatest thing he has accomplished has been having students from his classes become professionals in math, science and engineering.



Larry Maskus has been teaching for thirty-two years. While teaching here the best that happened was a number of former students becoming accountants while nothing seemed to come to the worst. Larry has taught at Moline, Kindsley, and of course Independence High School. He can teach Social Science, Typing, Accounting, and Office Practice. His favorite class being, accounting. He appreciates the fact that he has had the chance to work with a number of outstanding students and teachers here at IHS. Accomplishing the most has been having students become CPA's and evern more.

Finishing off thirty-three years of teaching all levels of high school English, speech, and twenty-eight years of the Orange and Black, Constance Harding (better known on campus as Connie) closed out her teaching career this July, directed Junior and Senior class plays and sponsored Junior-Senior Prom six times. Paola, Kansas was her first teaching assignment for four and a half years at Pampa, Texas. She returned to her home,Independence, in December of 1965 and has taught here since. She raised one daughter here and married Lloyd Harding in June 1983, linking the Language and Literature forever with the Science and Math department. She received her bachelor and masters degrees from Pittsburg, but has attended summer school in numerous colleges and universities, her favorite being Western State College in Gunnison, Colorado, where her allergies all but disappeared. "I've seen tremendous changes in teaching techniques and students but through it all the associates I have worked with have been wonderful," commented Mrs. Harding.

Bill Singleton has been teaching for thirty-seven years. Since the best thing that has happened to him has been the students being more aware of their surroundings, the worst being the students not taking their subjects seriously. Bill (Boomer) has taught in Burlington, Erie, and Independence, Kansas. He appreciates everything at IHS. While he has accomplished the most in making the kids aware that they live in the best country in the world and are able to learn more about it. Bill is qualified to teach American History, Physical Education, and Civics; but, his favorite class is American History. Noticing a change in his class throughout the years has made him realize the students want to talk more than ever. All of these teachers have shown great pride in IHS and will always be remembered in the years to come.

Mark,
We're proud of you. We knew you would make it. Now make your mark in the world.
Love ya!
Mom, Dad, and Bridget

Angie,
Congratulations! We have been blessed to have a daughter like you. We hope all dreams come true and your life is blessed and full. Good luck with all your plans.

Angi,
You've come along way baby!
Love, Mom and Dad

My Chuckadel,
You are the love of my life. I am proud of you. We made it through some tough times,but we had a lot more good times. Believe in the Lord and keep smiling.
Love Mom

Lori,
Congratulations! You never gave up on your dreams, and just look how far you've come! All of your hard work is finally paying off. We are very proud of you and wish you the best always.
Love,
Mom, Dad, Donald, and Diana

Troy,
You have always made our lines more interesting and enjoyable with your quips and humor. Making it to Gate Wrestling Competition this year was a super accomplishment. We are very proud of you. Our best wishes and prayers are with you for your future.
Love Ya!
Mom and Shawna

Dianna:
What a joy you are! Congratulations on all your achievements. We are very proud of you. Always remember to give God's Word first place in your life and you will always deal wisely in the affairs of this life. you truly are a "Phenomenal Woman" and we love you!
Mom, Lydia And Mike

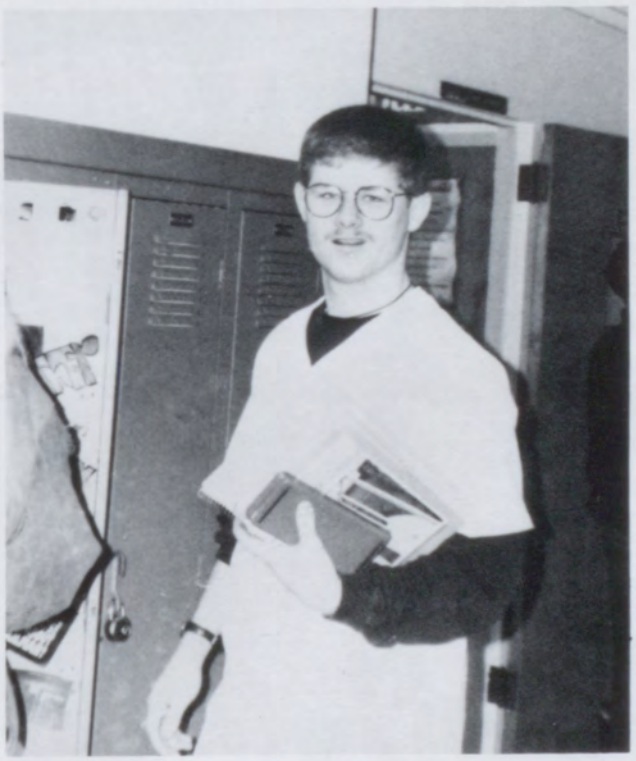
J is for the Journey you made the last 12 years
A is for the Answers you found along the way
N is for each New day God blessed you with my dear
E is for Each smile and for Every tear
T is for the Trials that may come your way
T is for the Truth that lights your pathway bright
God Bless and Keep You Always as you go along your way

Congratulations April. Your sense of Humor and Personality have been a Joy. We know this will take you far in your Journey into the future.
Mom and Dad

Stan
Always continue to do your best. We are as proud of you as you were with this catch. Always keep your smile and good humor and you will continue to have good catches in life.
With all our love your family

FLASH BACK

Senior, Nathan Castorena gives a boring expression of his opinion to the camera after a long day, weeks before graduation.



Senior, Jason Curtis stops for a moment to notice the photographer as he moves on to his locker before his next hour class.
