Greetings from the Generalissimo

Each year since the very beginning, countless persons have contributed much to this very special celebration in Independence. Once again the active participation of many Independence area individuals has helped to create another effective Neewollah presentation.

The committee this year is confident it has attained the ultimate in Neewollah entertainment when it proudly presents the hilarious musical "Li'l Abner!" The old favorites will be on stage once again, along with welcome new faces. Your committee hopes you will be pleased with our selection of all 4 days of entertainment and personalities and will enthusiastically join in the spirit of fun that is NEEWOLLAH.

Thank you for your participation in NEEWOLLAH 1967!

Welcome

MEET THE CAST

LIL ABNER opened in New York at the St. James Theatre on November 15, 1956, and rollicked through 693 performances, thus joining the company of smash Broadway hits.

These extraordinary citizens of Dogpatch inhabit not only a town but a world of their own. They were first created by Al Capp in 1935, along with a riotous profusion of incidents that have made Dogpatch internationally famous; and provided the world with Sadie Hawkins Day, the Two Dollar Wedding and the Double Whammy.

The plot concocted by Norman Panama and Melvin Frank meanders merrily, and offers plenty of scope for naive Lil Abner, beautiful Daisy Mae, General Bullmoose, Earthquake McGoon, Appassionata Von Climax, Stupefvin' Jones, the verminous Scragg family; and naturally, Mammy and Pappy Yokum, social leaders of Dogpatch.

Along the way there are much melodious lilt as "Namely You," Daisy Mae's lament, "I'm Past My Prime," and those roistering rowdy hoe-downs, "Jubilant T. Cornpone" and "The Matrimonial Stomp." Several years later all these hijinks were presented in a movie by Paramount, using almost the entire Broadway cast.

This tuneful, highspirited musical where virtue triumphs and "the code of the hills" prevails, is now brought to Independence for your enjoyment by your Neewollah Board.
