Greetings from the Generalissimo

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I welcome you to NEEWOLLAH, 1968.

Since early in the year committees have been at work to bring you, the people of the Independence area, an unparalleled celebration.

This year NEEWOLLAH has been expanded to five full days of fun and excitement. The Board of Directors have selected the enchanting musical, "South Pacific" and is so proud of the production that it will be shown Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. The Queen's Coronation promises to be rich in beauty and grandeur. Also, the stage and street acts have attained new heights of entertainment.

In short, as representative of the Board of Directors, I hope you will share our excitement and enthusiasm over NEEWOLLAH, 1968.

NEEWOLLAH is a success as a result of the fine effort put out by people of the Independence area.

Thank you,
Wayne D. Reed

REHEARSAL SCENES

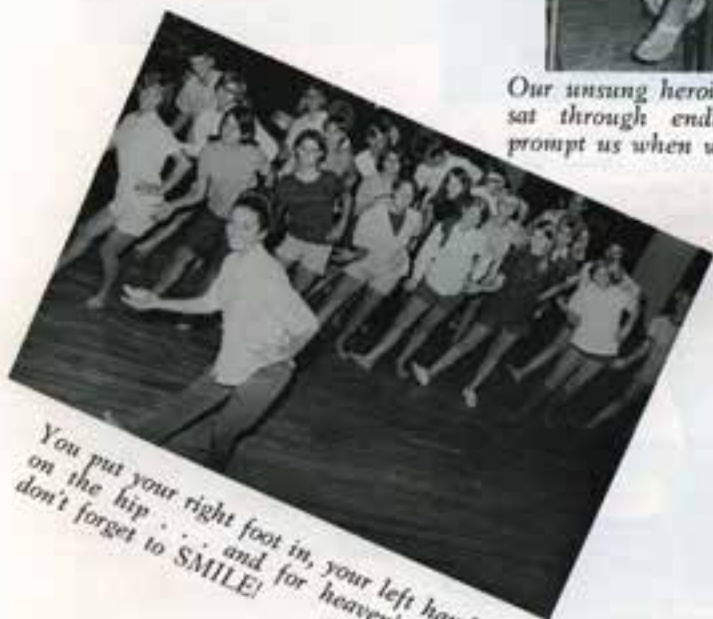

Duty in the South Pacific must have been something, eh, Tom? I mean with all those girls and all. From left, David Mitchell, Tom Stockebrand and Bob Brechbill.

Bill, wouldn't it have been much simpler to use real sand, water and palm trees? From left, Gwen Webb, Doris Woolpert and Carlene Stephenson.

Our unsung heroine, Marinell Boys, who sat through endless rehearsals just to prompt us when we forgot our lines.

You put your right foot in, your left hand on the hip . . . and for heaven's sake don't forget to SMILE!

I know it's for the sake of show business, but this is ridiculous!

Remember now . . . you're Bloody Mary and Luther Billis, NOT Liz Miessler and Jerry Webb. Let's try it again.

REHEARSAL SCENES

Come now, Dave, Dana is always on pitch!

Gee, fellows, look at old Fred. He even landed on his feet!

While the actors were rehearsing, the props committee finally came up with a vase of flowers. From left: B. H. Price, Marsha Osborn, Liz Smith, Dorita Reed and Jim Scott.

NEEWOLLAH — TEN YEARS AGO

1968 is the tenth anniversary of the renewal of Neewollah. The queen candidates were in the second grade — but some were looking into the future. Ken Allison, above, is escorting three of the planners. Seated with Mr. Allison is Miss Nora Vieth. In the back seat, greeting the throngs of the first parade, are Miss Ann Wilkin and Miss Nancie Wohltman.
