Neewollah Celebration

Welcome To Neewollah

1985 — A DEDICATION TO THE PEOPLE OF INDEPENDENCE AND AREA

WHAT MAKES NEEWOLLAH?

The many people who rope off streets, line up floats, provide security, type a letter, or usher a guest.

WHAT MAKES NEEWOLLAH?

The many people who donate a dollar toward a child's good time, the many who volunteer time from business or family to drive a nail, paint a set, or practice a dance.

WHAT MAKES NEEWOLLAH?

The many people who share a smile, give a wave, welcome a guest, love a laugh, treasure a moment or appreciate a tradition.

WHAT MAKES NEEWOLLAH?

All the special people. . . all of you.

The Neewollah Board of Directors, committees, and I sincerely welcome you to another exciting Neewollah Festival, Kansas' largest annual celebration. Neewollah leaves a lasting impression on all because of the fine effort put forth by the people of Independence and surrounding area.

Sincerely,

No, No, Nanette

and its stars

DANA AITKEN as sue

We are happy to bring back Dana Aitken to the Neewollah stage in the role of Sue Smith. Dana is a well-known persona of the musicals of past years, having played the lead female roles in "The Sound of Music," "The Music Man," "Oklahoma," "South Pacific," and "The King and I." Dana is the adult choir director in her church.

GARY MITCHELL as jimmy

Gary will play the role of Sue's husband, Jimmy Smith, a prosperous Bible publisher. Gary is a seasoned actor and veteran of the Neewollah stage. He graduated with honors from the University of Kansas, where he earned a Masters degree in theatre. He teaches English and drama at ICC. He last appeared here in "Camelot" as King Pellinore.

LIZ MIESSLER as pauline

Liz is delightful as the Smith's maid, Pauline. Liz had the lead roles in "Hello, Dolly," and "Fiddler On the Roof," past Neewollah productions.

Liz is a graduate of Pittsburg State University where she received a degree in psychology. Liz has been in many stage productions, including "South Pacific," and "Oliver."

CHRIS BAUMAN as billy

Chris is fast becoming a well-known and well-liked performer in Independence. Chris is from Neodesha, and we welcome him back in the roll of Billy Early. He played the role of Rooster Hannigan in last year's production, "Annie." Chris acted in "Gaslight" and "The Dark at the Top of the Stairs" while attending ICC. He received an Anna Award for producing the best play in 1974. Chris holds a degree in accounting from Pittsburg State University.

SHIRLEY ROOD as lucille

Shirley is a newcomer to Independence and also to the Neewollah stage. She will play Billy's wife, Lucille Early. Shirley appeared in Little Theatre in California and has sung with opera companies in Washington, California and Kentucky. She received her music degree in voice from the University of Indiana.

JODIE RUSSELL as nanette

Jodie makes her debut on the Neewollah stage this season as Nanette. However, she is no newcomer to the musical productions. She played in the orchestra for three different musicals produced here, and was Choral Director for "Camelot," "Oklahoma," "Carousel," and last year's "Annie." Jodie is the vocal music teacher at IHS and received her Master's degree in music arts from the University of Kansas.

JOHN SURBER

as tom

John returns to the stage this year as Tom Trainor, Nanette's perplexed boyfriend. He portrayed the radio announcer in Neewollah's "Annie" production. John holds a Bachelor's degree in speech communications from Wichita State University and is a funeral director with Potts Chapel-Schmidt Funeral Service. He has been active in many local stage productions.

(l) LESELEY SIMPSON as winnie

This is Leseley's first appearance in a Neewollah musical. She was previously a member of the San Bernardino Civic Light Opera while residing in California. Leseley holds a degree in education from Pittsburg State University, and is a third grade teacher at Lincoln Elementary School. Leseley will play Winnie Winthrop, 'a happy' con artist.

(m) LOIS LESSMAN JACKSON as betty

Who could forget Lois as the terrible Miss Hannigan in "Annie," last year's musical! She returns this year as Betty Brown, one of the three small-time con artists. Lois has a degree in theatre and has been in other stage productions including "The Sound of Music" and "The King and I." Lois is the family living editor with the Independence Daily Reporter.

(r) KATHY LAPEN as flora

Kathy plays Flora Latham, one of the three 'happy' con artists. Kathy appeared in last year's production of "Annie." She was active in New Jersey Little Theatre before moving to Independence. Kathy is a teacher at the Presbyterian preschool.

Jerry Reed is a welcome addition to the 1985 Neewollah entertainment line-up. A most versatile and prolific entertainer, Reed has written over 400 songs and recorded 33 albums. In addition to this he has written 5 movie theme songs. Reed's appearances in movies have made his face as famous as his voice. His own honest and infectious sense of humor has endeared him to audiences of all ages.

The Roy Clark Show

The Whites

The Whites are making their first appearance at Neewollah. Buck White and his two daughters, Sharon and Cheryl, have received numerous nominations for music awards. Music insiders predict that the group will earn a place at the top of their profession.

Jimmy Henley

Jimmy Henley is a solo artist. He appears on Hee Haw, tours with Roy Clark, performs as a solo artist, and plans on recording as a vocalist. The best thing about Jimmy Henley is that he has done all of this and he is only fifteen years old. Jimmy has performed on the Memorial Hall stage before where he proved to be a real crowd pleaser.

Rodney Lay

Rodney Lay and the Wild West should feel right at home at Neewollah. A native of Coffeyville, Rodney has appeared in more Neewollahs than he probably cares to remember. Recently however, Rodney Lay and the Wild West has made it big in the music world as Roy Clark's back-up and road band. Now, the group is also releasing its own records and is in the process of creating its own substantial following. Welcome back Rodney!

Roy Clark is practically synonymous with Neewollah. Twenty-five years ago Roy Clark performed on the streets of Independence as part of the Neewollah free street acts.

Roy Clark

This is a far cry from the White House, foreign tours, and command performances for royalty. But Roy Clark is back in Independence, and Neewollah is proud!
