Mandy Corn

Mandy is a 16 year old junior attending Independence High School. She was born and raised in Independence and would like to pursue a career in the art field. Along with designing the button for this year's Neewollah festival, Mandy has extended the button theme throughout the pages of this booklet.

This is the 6th year for SE Kansas students to participate in the annual logo contest. Reception from entrants has been well received and the winner has been selected from approximately 200 entries.

NEEWOLLAH—AN INDEPENDENCE TRADITION.

Each fall the city of Independence has been transformed from its usual activities to the host of the largest annual celebration in the State of Kansas.

And what a tradition this is! From the opening of the food stands to the Broadway musical. From the Queen Neeliah contest to the professional entertainment. Toss in the grandeur of the Grand Parade and compare it to the pure fun of the Kiddie Parade. How about the International Festival with aspiring professionals from all over the world compared to the "Be a Star" contest where mid-Americans make it big in the world of country music? Put into this mix the professional precision of the Marine Band and the amateur precision of the Marching Band Competition and Neewollah grows even bigger.

However, there are the other traditions enjoyed by the people who participate in Neewollah. Family reunions, friendships reestablished, a particular place to watch the parades, a special dinner when the celebration is over are other types of tradition Neewollah creates.

A celebration this size and magnitude would not be possible without the help of many, many people. This too is part of the Neewollah tradition. The way this community and this area work together to make Neewollah something for people to eagerly await every year is a necessity for this tradition to continue.

On behalf of Neewollah and the Neewollah Board of Directors, I would like to welcome you to Neewollah 1992 and I would like to encourage you to be part of this tradition.

David Torbett

1992 GRAND PARADE MARSHAL

Jerry Webb was instrumental in helping revive Neewollah in 1958 and has served continually on the board and several committees. He was Generalissimo in 1960, 1972, and 1980. He has appeared as the lead in Guys & Dolls, South Pacific, and Music Man. He has also produced two musicals. He has served as board chairman three times and has been in charge of the professional shows with Jim Halsey since 1970.

He is a partner in Webb & Rodrick Funeral Home. He and his wife, Gwen, have been life-long residents of Independence.

"Jerry Webb is an obvious choice for the Grand Marshal of the 1992 Neewollah Parade. I am thrilled that he accepted this honor. Jerry has been most instrumental in building the tradition of Neewollah in Independence. All who have worked on Neewollah or enjoyed Neewollah owe Jerry Webb a tremendous amount of appreciation."—David Torbett, 1992 Generalissimo

NEW ROUTE FOR 1992 GRAND PARADE Saturday, October 31 - 11:00 a.m.

The parade starts at the corner of Penn and Locust. The new parade route proceeds from Memorial Hall at Penn and Locust, south to Main, east to 6th, south to Maple, west to 9th and north to Laurel Street. There are free street acts, a carnival, and food concessions both before and after the Neewollah Parade.

See related information for Grand Parade and Kiddie Parade on page 41.

DEBRA TRAVIS

as Meg

This will be Debbie's fifth appearance in a Neewollah production. She has played Sally Cato in "Mame" and Mama Rose in "Gypsy" as well as appearing in "My Fair Lady" and "Oliver!" She works at Phillips Petroleum Company in Bartlesville as a PC technician. Her husband, Jim, is general supervisor at Emerson Electric. She has two children and five stepchildren.

GARRY BOWERSOCK

as Joe Boyd

He has appeared in several Neewollah productions such as

"Annie," "Carnival," "Lil' Abner," and the first "Oliver!" Bowersock is also active in the Coffeyville Community Theatre appearing in numerous productions. This is his thirty-ninth year of teaching, the last thirty in Montgomery County at Wayside/Caney. Bowersock has one son and 3 grandchildren.

GARY MITCHELL

as Applegate

He has been in numerous Neewollah productions including the part of Fagin in last year's "Oliver!"; Herbie in "Gypsy"; Dwight Babcock in "Mame"; and Col. Pickering in "My Fair Lady." Mitchell has had acting roles in the Independence Community Theatre, Kansas University Theatre, Creede Repertory Theatre in Colorado, Neodesha Community Theatre, and Independence Community College Theatre. He is an English and theatre instructor at ICC.

Damn Yankees starring ...

Jill Warford

as Sister Miller

She is Director of Development and Public Relations at Independence Community College. Although Jill is a newcomer to the Neewollah stage, she has worked backstage on the props and makeup committees. A seasoned director, she was previously a theatre and speech instructor at ICC. Also at ICC, she is the Director of the William Inge Theatre Festival, now in its twelfth year.

Leseley Simpson

as Doris

Simpson will return to the Neewollah stage as Doris. She has been in six other productions in such roles as Winnie in "No, No, Nanette," Frau Smidt in "The Sound of Music," and Cousin Fann in "Mame." Leseley is an elementary teacher in Independence where she resides with her husband, Gary.

Larry Annable

as Joe Hardy

Lending his musical talents to the Neewollah stage for the first time, Larry Annable has been in many musicals including "Guys and Dolls," "Hello, Dolly!" "Lil' Abner," "Fiddler on the Roof," and "Once Upon a Mattress." He is in his second year as music instructor at the middle school, assistant football coach at the high school, and head track coach at the high school. He has one daughter, Stephanie.

Jack Dempsey

as Van Buren

Dempsey is no stranger to the Neewollah plays as he has appeared in many. He played Ike Skidmore in Neewollah's production of "Oklahoma!" and appeared in "Camelot" and "The Unsinkable Molly Brown." He also appeared in "Come Back Little Sheba" during the Inge Festival at Independence Community College. Dempsey lives in Coffeyville and is retired from Emerson Electric.

Damn Yankees starring ...

Bryson Read

as Welsh

Read has been in several Neewollah productions. Read graduated from the University of Texas Dental Branch at Houston and has a dental practice in Independence. He is very active in civic affairs having served as president of the Independence Rotary Club and president of Southeast Kansas Dental Association. He and his wife, Laney, are the parents of two sons, Timothy and Robert.

Vanessa Dennis

as Lola

Dennis, who is no stranger to the Neewollah stage, has been in ten former Neewollah productions. Theatre goers will remember her as Vera in "Mame," and Mazeppa in "Gypsy." Mrs. Dennis works at ARCO Pipeline. She and her husband, Bo, have two children, Erin, 13 and Brian, 10.

Lisa Canady

as Gloria Thorpe

This will be Lisa's third Neewollah play. She has appeared as Grace Ferrell in "Annie," Dianah Murphy in "South Pacific," Luisa in "Fantasticks," Michaela in "Carmen," Antonia in "Tales of Hoffman," Musetta in "La Boheme." Lisa is a kindergarten teacher at Eisenhower Elementary School and she and her husband, Tim, are members of the First Presbyterian Church.

TNN

THE NASHVILLE NETWORK®

DOWNTOWN INDEPENDENCE

Wednesday, October 28th 8:00 p.m.

If you think you may be the next Randy Travis or Reba McEntire, then "Be A Star" on TNN: The Nashville Network's new half-hour series featuring aspiring artists. For the second year, BE A STAR is coming to Independence's Neewollah Festival as part of a national search for county music's next superstar. The local Be A Star competition is sponsored by Cablevision of Independence, Neewollah, Inc., Hall of Fame Studios, and 96.9 Hot Country.

James Wesley Prosser

Winner of Cablevision's 1st Annual Neewollah BE A STAR contest qualified last October to perform on TNN!

HOST LISA FOSTER

TNN's Lisa Foster understands the pressures of competing for the professional spotlight. She has worked extensively in television, film, and music, and she knows that breaking into show business isn't easy. That's why she enjoys co-hosting Be A Star, TNN's half-hour weekday series that features aspiring artists competing for 50,000 in cash.

"The competition on Be A Star is serious and, of course, the contestants take it very seriously," says Foster. "I've been on shows like this one, so I know what the contestants are going through. I try to encourage them and tell them, 'You have a shot at this. So give it your best.'"

An accomplished singer, Foster has performed as an opening act for such superstars as Kenny Rogers, Loretta Lynn, The Statler Brothers, and Merle Haggard. She has also released an album titled "New Moon Rising" on Monument Records. Her television and film credits include "Love Leads the Way" for Disney Productions and "Summer's End" for PBS.

THANKS, HACKNEY!

Visitors and local residents will find a very helpful INFORMATION BOOTH at the corner of Penn & Myrtle. Along with ticket information and city directions, one will find t-shirts, buttons, programs, maps, and even lost kids at this special booth donated by Hackney & employees in 1990.

Knock it off, Herb!
You're over reacting.
It's only MOTHER!

WHAT IS NEEWOLLAH?

October 1919 — The townspeople of Independence decided to do something about the young people raising havoc on Halloween night. They decided to hold a parade with floats in order to get the youth involved in something constructive. Everyone had such a good time it was determined to make it an annual event.

1921 — a contest was held to find a name for the celebration. Mrs. Hart Goodloe, wife of an Independence physician, won the contest with the name "Neewollah."

1923 — the first Queen's contest was held and the winner was named Queen Neelah.

1931-1934 — Neewollah was not celebrated during these years, due to the Depression.

1936-1947 — No Neewollah during these years because of World War II.

1950-1957 — Due to a lack of financial support, Neewollah was not held during these years.

1958 — Jerry Webb and Jim Halsey, were sitting in DeFever-Osborn Drug Store and decided to revive Neewollah. Halsey lined up some entertainment and Webb raised some money. Little did people know in 1958 that Jim Halsey would become the most successful country and western manager in the United States.

A kiddie parade was started and the play "Picnic," written by hometown celebrity playwright, William Inge, along with free street acts including a young unknown named Roy Clark. These were the highlights of the three day celebration that year.

Over the past 33 years, 1958 to 1992, Neewollah has grown into a week long celebration and the largest celebration in Kansas. The people of Independence and Southeast Kansas are to be thanked for their commitment each year to the success of Neewollah.

The Marine Reserve Forces Band was established on October 2, 1978 composed of active duty Marines stationed at the Naval Support Activity in New Orleans, Louisiana.

The Officer In Charge of the Band is Major Duane c. DeVoe. With an authorized strength of one officer and 50 enlisted Marines, the Band performs for well over five million people and travels more than 60,000 miles annually. By maintaining a concert band, marching band, big band, rock band, jazz combo, brass quintet, and Dixieland band, the talented musicians perform everything from classical to contemporary music.

BANK IV

The new International Festival is designed to provide cross-cultural experiences for the mid-westerner and international guests from around the world. With this festival it is hoped that through sharing our homes and daily activities we have given something of value that these international performers may take home. They in turn will provide an evening of musical entertainment; music from around the world, promoting international peace and cultural understanding.

Producers: Jim Halsey: FIDOF President of Honor; Armando Moreno: FIDOF Secretary General; Associate Producer: John Ettinger.

The Oak Ridge Boys

THE OAK RIDGE BOYS

The Oak Ridge Boys are the ultimate in entertainers. They are one of the best bands in country music today. Their four part harmony delivers a delicious gospel sound. Their rhythms are basic and persistent, gospel and country and '50's rock rolled into one. This is as good as country music gets.

Some of their best loved songs are "Elvira", "Beautiful You", and "Bobby Sue." They have won many awards for their music including twelve Dove awards and several Grammys.

The Grand Parade draws thousands of people to Independence every year—young and young at heart. A favorite event on the final day of Neewollah, the Grand Parade, is made up of approximately 60 floats, 30 bands from all over including the U.S. Marine Corp., and with a variety of entrants that bring about 120 units of fun and activity to faithful parade watchers. This is what Neewollah tradition is all about — the hundreds of people who bring all this together.
