Generalissimo Mike Flood

Since I first announced the theme for Neewollah '94 back in January, I have had several people ask me, "Why Believe in the Magic?" Although I'm not a native of this community, since October 1979, I have been a part of the happening we know as Neewollah. It has always amazed me how a small town can put on this celebration that is like no other anywhere. For over 50 years, the largest celebration in Kansas has been held in your hometown, a small town of only 10,000 people. Every year for all these years, the celebration has gone on without much of a hitch. I know it has been said before that Independence is special when it comes to Neewollah, but I think this a huge understatement! The amount of teamwork, coordination, and cooperation it takes to pull off an event of this size year after year has to be considered to be wizardry of some sort. This year a board of directors, 35 chairpersons, and over 300 volunteers will be the "magic" that makes up the largest celebration in Kansas.

When I speak of the magic of Neewollah, I am referring to the volunteerism that is an essential part of every aspect of the Neewollah festival. An important part of this magic occurs behind the scenes. It happens when plywood, paint, and artistic talents combine to create the sets, stages, and bandstands for the plays and shows. It happens when people devote numerous hours of time in preparation by attending committee meetings, planning meetings, and rehearsals. It happens in the organization of the fund raising projects that enables us to bring in special entertainment like the Marine Band and professional shows. And when the festivities actually get underway, many forms of the magic are obvious. It can be seen in the eyes of the children in the Kiddie Parade as they walk down Penn Avenue and in those of the queen candidates as they head down the runways. It can be seen in the sky every night during Neewollah week as the spotlight circles the skies of Independence. It can be heard downtown when the street acts are playing and when the aerial bomb goes off, announcing the start of the Grand Parade. It can be heard in the screams of the people enjoying the rides at the carnival. And, finally, it can be felt in the warmth of a handshake between old friends as they reunite, and in the friendly hospitality of the citizens of Independence.

So I guess that this is why the theme "Believe in the Magic" has a special meaning to me, because to me this tradition IS magical. And I would like to say to all our friends, out of town guests, and citizens of Independence... Welcome to Neewollah 1994. Thank you for joining us and participating in the largest celebration in Kansas. You, too, can now "Believe in the Magic!"

Sincerely,

Mike Flood
Generalissimo

The History of Neewollah

In October 1919, the townspeople of Independence decided to do something about the young people raising havoc on Halloween night. They decided to hold a parade with floats in order to get the youth involved in something constructive. Everyone had such a good time it was determined to make it an annual event.

In 1920, it was called the Mardi Gras of the Midwest. In 1921, a contest was held to find a name for the celebration. Mrs. Hart Goodloe, wife of an Independence physician, won the contest with the name Neewollah.

The first queen's contest was held in 1923 and was named Queen Neelah. Neewollah continued until 1931 when due to the depression it was discontinued.

In 1935 it was tried again, but was a financial failure due to the lack of interest.

Neewollah was revived again in 1948 and 1949, but was not financially successful and was thought to be the end of Neewollah.

One day in 1958, Jerry Webb and Jim Halsey, old school friends, were sitting in DeFever-Osborn drug store and they decided to revive Neewollah. Jim Halsey lined up some entertainment and Jerry Webb raised some money.

The Kiddie Parade was started in 1958, the play, "Picnic," by hometown celebrity, William Inge, was performed at Memorial Hall. The celebration lasted three days with Jim Halsey bringing in some free street acts, one being a young unknown named Roy Clark.

Over the years, Neewollah has grown into a week long celebration and the largest celebration in Kansas. The people of Independence and Southeast Kansas are to be thanked for their commitment each year to the success of NEEWOLLAH.

With Neewollah, Independence continues to BELIEVE IN THE MAGIC!

Bye Bye Birdie Story

A joyously exhilarating musical of the 1960's, Bye Bye Birdie poked fun at one of its era's most striking phenomena—the emergence in the mid-'50s of a rock 'n roll star by the name of Elvis Presley, and the near hysteria that swept the nation's youth when it was announced that Presley would be drafted into the U.S. Army in 1958.

To protect the innocent, those persons responsible for the book, music, lyrics and staging, cleverly avoided any direct reference to Elvis himself, and substituted instead another rock 'n roll figure of their own confection whom they named Conrad Birdie.

Bye Bye Birdie was not so much a depiction of its title hero's trials and tribulations prior to his becoming a guest of Uncle Sam as it was an apt portrayal of the gap that has always existed between the generations. On it the creators had grafted a conventional love story involving one Albert Peterson, Conrad Birdie's manager, and Albert's long-time secretary and girl-friend, Rose Alvarez.

Conrad's induction means a serious crisis for Albert, suddenly faced with the loss of an important source of revenue, Rose, who only has two things in mind, marry Albert and become a partner in his business, comes up with the idea that she hopes will help them both: she suggests that Albert write a farewell song for Birdie, "One Last Kiss," which Conrad will perform on the Ed Sullivan Show to millions of television fans, thereby guaranteeing that it will become an instant hit. Rose also suggests that the song be performed to a young girl who will represent all of Conrad's adoring fans.

From the many members of the Conrad Birdie fan clubs around the country, Rose selected the lucky girl, fifteen-year-old Kim MacAfee, who lives in Sweet Apple, Ohio. In short order, Albert, Rose, Conrad and a slew of reporters and television technicians invade the small community in preparation for the telecast. Needless to say, Conrad's arrival sets off a great stir of excitement, and rapidly creates havoc in the usually peaceful little town: As soon as he starts singing in the public square upon his arrival, twanging his guitar and swinging his hips, most of the citizens, including the Mayor's wife, wind up in a collective swoon at his feet.

One who is left apparently unmoved is Hugo Peabody, Kim's boyfriend who does not approve of Conrad in the first place, or of Kim getting kissed during the television show, even if it does make her the most envied girl in America, as Kim is prone to remind him.

Meanwhile life in the MacAfee household, where Conrad, Albert and Rose are staying is totally disrupted by teenagers outside the home. Harry MacAfee, Kim's father, threatens to strangle the kids outside. To calm him, Albert promises the whole family they will appear on the television program with Conrad and Kim.

On the night of the telecast, the show is running behind schedule, and Conrad's time on the air is considerably shortened, which adds to the general confusion. When the cameras finally focus on him, Conrad is literally upstaged by Kim's father who can't resist mugging outrageously the moment he is on the air, and before he has a chance to kiss Kim he is knocked down by Hugo, more jealous than ever.

In the end Conrad goes off to the Army, and Albert and Rose, in a quiet finale that happily contrasts with all the frenzy that has preceded it, make plans to marry and retire out west where Albert promises to find a job as an English teacher.

The program is hosted by news anchor Toby Cook and weathercaster Andy Carson.

Carson, 26, originally from Fort Scott, Kansas, has been in the station's weather center since November 1991. They're both graduates of Pittsburg State University.

Cook has also worked at K6KZ-TV, Junction City, Kansas, as a sportscaster; at KRPS-TV, Pittsburg, as a reporter, and began his career in high school as a staff announcer for KIND radio in Independence.

Carson has also worked in radio and served an internship at NBC's "Late Night with David Letterman" in the fall of 1990.

CORONATION EMCEE John Surber

John has served as master of ceremonies for the Miss Southeast Kansas Pageant for three years, the Neewollah talent show in 1989, 1990, 1991, and 1992, as well as the Neewollah Coronation emcee in 1990, 1991, and 1992. He has also served as judge for the Miss New Beginnings Festival in Coffeyville.

John has appeared in many Neewollah musicals including "Annie," "No, No, Nanette," "The Unsinkable Molly Brown," and "My Fair Lady."

Marine Band Returns

United States Marine Corps Band in Concert

Thursday, October 27 — 8:00 p.m.      Sunday, October 30 — 2:00 p.m.

The Fourth Marine Aircraft Wing Band from New Orleans, Louisiana will appear for Neewollah for the seventh consecutive year. The appearance of the U.S. Marine Corps Band has become a very popular attraction for the Neewollah celebration. The officer in charge of the band is Major Duane C. DeVoe. The band maintains a Concert Band, Big Band, Rock Band, Jazz Combo, Brass Quintet, and Dixie Land Band, and performs everything from classical to contemporary music.

This year the band will feature the appearance of PFC Gayla M. Heathman, a 1993 graduate of Independence High School and former member of the IHS Band. PFC Heathman joined the Marine Corps in July, 1993 and went to recruit training at Parris Island, South Carolina in May of 1994. After graduation she was assigned to the Fourth Marine Aircraft Wing Band in New Orleans, Louisiana, where she plays clarinet for the band.

Friday Night Show

Nitty Gritty Dirt Band

Friday, October 28 — 8:00 p.m.

Neewollah 1994 welcomes Jeff Hanna-vocals, guitar; Jimmie Fadden-vocals, drums, harmonica; Jimmy Ibbotson-vocals, bass, mandolin, guitar; and Bobby Carpenter-vocals, keyboard, accordion — The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band.

Their legacy based on the spirit of adventure which characterizes American music is evident — "Mr. Bojangles," "I Fought The Law," "Mama Tried," "Hold On," "Baby's Got A Hold On Me," "Not Fade Away," and more.

The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band's love of traditional American music is as legendary as their two "Will The Circle Be Unbroken" collections, and as natural as the mix in their own songs, full of modern concerns but grounded in tradition.

Like a good friend, the Dirt Band has always been there for their fans, making solid music that would always bring a smile.

Williams & Ree

"The Indian and the White Guy"

Saturday, October 29 — 6:30 & 9:00 p.m.

The Indian and the White Guy, better known as Williams & Ree, share a unique ability to make people laugh, even if it comes from laughing at themselves.

Bruce Williams and Terry Ree met at Black Hills State College in Spearfish, South Dakota. The two have been coupled since those college days and have been compared to the likes of "cotton and polyester," "bourbon and water," "peas and carrots," "Sears and Roebuck," and "Williams and Ree."

In addition to performing some 200 live concert dates a year, television has played a major role in the Williams & Ree saga.

The majority of people who follow the career of Williams & Ree realize that even though they aren't serious much, they are serious about music. In fact, they have had nominations from the Music City News Awards and not only for Comedians of the Year but also Best Vocal Duo. Williams & Ree express their musical talents as well as their comedic ability on each of their six album projects.

1994 Neewollah Logo Winner

Ryan M. Butler, a 1994 graduate of Labette County High School, was selected as the winner of the Neewollah Logo Contest.

Cheryl Arnwine, contest coordinator, said that more than 200 entries were submitted this year by students representing local and area high schools.

Butler is the 18-year-old son of Ron and Debbie Butler of rural Altamont and an honor graduate of Labette County High School. A Kansas Board of Regents' Scholar, he plans to attend Missouri Southern State College where he will be involved in the honor's program. He plans to major in pre-medicine.

Although he won a variety of art awards during his high school career, winning the Neewollah logo contest was the first time Butler's work earned recognition for commercial use.

Neewollah officials noted that Steve McBride, an Independence artist and cartoonist, prepared the logo for reproduction and commercial application.

1994 Grand Parade Marshall

ROBERT W. (BOB) HILLE

Robert W. (Bob) Hille is the Grand Marshall for the 1994 Neewollah Grand Parade. His contributions to the city of Independence and to Neewollah make him uniquely qualified for this honor.

His involvement with Neewollah started when his Washington School 1st grade rhythm band marched in the children's parade. He went on "booster trips" with his father, Earl Hille, a Knight of Neewollah, and played in the Mid-Continent clown band in the '48 and '49 parades.

He attended the first public meeting to revive Neewollah in 1958, and invited the bands for the Grand Parade for 33 years. Usually over 40 bands and drum corps came, with 52 the most. 1994 will be his 37th year of getting bands for the Kiddie Parade.

Hille has been in the pit orchestra for all 28 Neewollah Broadway musicals, was personnel manager for the pit orchestras until 1986 and has assisted with personnel since then. His wife, Regina, has played piano for most of the musicals, and has been rehearsal pianist several times.

He was managing partner of the Hille Music Company, said to be an Independence institution, for 39 years, which was ticket headquarters for Neewollah for many years. Sound equipment for the band stand was furnished by Hille's for many years as a contribution.

He has been president of the Mid-Continent Band and the Independence Community Concert Association and director of the First Presbyterian Church Chancel Choir for many years.

In 1989 he was honored as "Mr. Music Man" by Neewollah and his Hille Band Wagon has ended the Neewollah Grand Parade for many years.

The Kansas Federation of Music Clubs honored him with a "Certificate of Appreciation" for his many years of dedication to music. He and his wife, Regina, and daughter, Bridget, were chosen by the KPMC as the "Kansas Musical Family of the Year" in 1991.
