Neewollah History

The Neewollah festival began in 1919 in an effort to provide positive activities for kids of all ages in place of typical Halloween pranks. Initially the event centered around parades, morning, afternoon and night on October 31. The parades were made up primarily of decorated cars and carriages. Queens and princesses from area festivals rode in the parades, along with our own Queen Neelah who was selected based on votes bought at a penny each. The Great Depression and World War II interrupted the Neewollah celebration from 1931 to 1947. Local businessmen Jim Halsey, Jerry Webb and Don Dancer revived and elaborated on the Neewollah theme bringing it back as a three day festival in 1948. In the ensuing years, a queen's pageant, several presentations of a Broadway play, a carnival and street acts were added to the Kiddie Parade and Grand Parade. Today Neewollah is the oldest and largest annual festival in Kansas. Independence blossoms from 10,000-12,000 inhabitants up to 75,000 in the final days of the now 10- day festival.

"Keep the Alive"

Generalissimo Ann Crow

Welcome to Neewollah 2005! You will see many changes in the Neewollah celebration this year due to the lack of facilities at Memorial Hall. These changes have given Neewollah the chance to give back to the community and provide "free" entertainment on the bandstand for all ages. The challenges have been exciting and given everyone the opportunity to continue to provide the public with the Neewollah quality that has been a part of the memories in the past.

From the Medallion Hunt to the Neewollah Follies 2005 to the final note of Heather Shelley on the Bandstand Saturday night, we hope that you find something to make this year's Neewollah a memorable event.

On behalf of the Neewollah Board of Directors, I would like to thank the outstanding volunteers of our community and the surrounding area that have given of their time and talent to once again put together another great Neewollah celebration.

Logo Winner & Logo Committee

Neewollah Logo Winner

Anne Moore

A drawing by artist Anne Moore of Independence was selected as the winner of the 2005 Neewollah logo contest. The winning logo expressed very nicely the feelings of this year's theme "Neewollah 2005 - Keeping the Memories Alive" said 2005 Generalissimo Ann Crow. Moore is a freelance professional artist and educator. She moved to Independence with her husband, Mike, last July. Mrs. Moore works in calligraphy, illustration, collage, graphic design and sculpture. She instructs both children and adults in group workshops and private art lessons.

The Neewollah Logo Contest is held each spring after the Generalissimo has announced the theme for the upcoming festival. Entries are sought thru the local newspaper. After judges select the winner, the overall composition of the entry may be fine tuned to fit on the Neewollah button and fit other Neewollah needs.

Judging Queen Neelah LXIV

Queen Neelah candidates are evaluated by a panel of judges over a period of three days. As a means of introduction, each candidate presents an individual biography which gives personal background, interests and her reason for entering the pageant. Miss Originality is chosen in part from the most original and imaginative biography. Candidates are also required to submit a portrait from which Miss Photogenic is selected.

The first opportunity for the judges to meet the candidates is the Queen's Tea held Sunday, October 23. The judges hold a private interview with each candidate on Monday, October 24. That same evening, each candidate presents a three-minute talent presentation. Miss Talent is chosen from the most polished and entertaining of the talent numbers. On Tuesday, October 25, a brunch is held and the candidates have a final opportunity to meet with the judges in an informal setting prior to the coronation.

Over the course of time spent with the candidates, the judges also evaluate each young woman's poise, personality, personal fashion sense and beauty. The candidates themselves select Miss Congeniality.

She went on to earn valedictorian honors at Independence Community College where again she was on the cheerleading squad.

Yvette received her Broadcast Journalism degree from the University of Kansas. She began her career in television news at KJRH-TV in Tulsa, Oklahoma behind the scenes as a production assistant and news writer. She worked as a news reporter/photographer at KOAM-TV in Pittsburg, Kansas, and then as a news reporter at KOLR-TV in Springfield, Missouri. While in Springfield, Yvette earned an Associated Press Award for reporting and an honor from the International Firefighters Association for her news reporting. Yvette returned to KOAM-TV as the nightly news co-anchor.

Yvette returned to college in 2000 to study teaching. Since that time she has worked as a substitute teacher, first in Benicia, California, and now in Southlake, Texas, where she lives. Yvette and husband, Gregg, have three children; twelve year-old twins, Alex and Bailey and Cameron age nine.

Special Events

Special events vary from year to year, but always offer fun outside the carnival ride options. In past years they have included the Budweiser Clydesdale horses, Riverside Fun Cycles, the Budweiser NASCAR car, climbing walls, and fun houses.

Street Acts 2005 will have something to please every eye and ear, from the professional to the hometown favorites. The stage at Penn and Laurel will be the place to meet friends old and new, starting Wednesday evening and continuing right on thru till Saturday night. Many of the events regularly held at Memorial will be on the bandstand as free entertainment since the hall is being renovated this year. Local talent will include local garage bands like Twelve Ton and the drum line from Independence High School. More local flavor will be enjoyed with the Independence Middle School 8th grade choir and the Independence Summer Theater Group, the IHS jazz band and the Independence Area Children's Choir. And that's just the local talent! Professional shows include The Knight Caps, the choral ensemble from West Point on Thursday, Kevin Wade, the magician, after the Kiddie Parade on Friday and Kansas grown singing sensation Heather Shelley on Saturday evening. The West Point Knight Caps

Sponsored by

Thursday, October 27

7:00 p.m. - Bandstand

Cessna
A Textron Company

The Knight Caps are an all-male a cappella specialty group comprised of select members of the Cadet Glee Club of the United States Military Academy at West Point. Initially organized in 2003, the Knight Caps continue a long tradition of Glee Club specialty groups which, over the years, has included barbershop quartets, folk-singing groups, and chamber ensembles. The Knight Caps perform a varied repertoire of doo-wop, ballads, and pop songs of recent decades, in addition to patriotic selections and traditional West Point songs.

The cadet-run ensemble selects its members by audition and rehearses during cadet free time, a precious commodity at USMA. Under the auspices of the Cadet Glee Club it performs a dozen or more times each year as a highlight of the Cadet Showcase portion of Glee Club concerts, and as representatives of the Glee Club at significant occasions in venues across the United States.

The Cadet Glee Club and the Knight Caps ensemble have provided entertainment for Americans in nearly every state of the Union for more than eighty-five years. The Cadet Glee Club has its roots firmly embedded in the time-honored traditions of the United States Corps of Cadets. Secular singing in one form or another has been in evidence at West Point since the Academy's founding in 1802. Many warm, boisterous songfests were held at Benny Havens' Tavern, a popular (though off-limits) gathering spot of cadets in the early 1800s.

First organized in 1903, an official Cadet Glee Club became a permanent extracurricular cadet activity in 1933 with twenty-five singers. The club travels extensively and has been honored to perform in some of the most famous concert venues in the country. Highlights of recent concert seasons include performing in Carnegie, Ozawa, and Avery Fisher Halls, appearances with the Boston Pops Orchestra and the Syracuse Symphony Orchestra, and National Anthem performances at Yankee Stadium, Madison Square Garden, the Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, AZ, and at Super Bowl XXXIX in Jacksonville, FL.

Despite its rapid pace and demanding concert schedule, the best description of the Cadet Glee Club is easily obtained from its motto: No fun without music, no music without fun!

The Knight Caps include two young men who hail from the state of Kansas. David Canaday, West Point Class of 2006, is a 2001 graduate of Cherryvale High School and the son of Russell and Beverly Canaday, rural Independence. Todd Bryant, Class of 2006, is a graduate of Concordia High School, and the son of Dr. Steven and Krista Bryant, Concordia.

Since its founding over two centuries ago, the West Point Military Academy, located 50 miles north of New York City on the Hudson River, has accomplished its mission by developing cadets in four critical areas: intellectual, physical, military, and moral-ethical - a four-year process called the "West Point Experience." Specific developmental goals are addressed through several fully coordinated and integrated programs. A challenging Academic Program that offers 42 majors provides a balanced education in the arts and sciences. All cadets receive a Bachelor of Science degree, which is designed specifically to meet the intellectual requirements of a commissioned officer in today's Army.

Doo Dah Parade

Thursday, October 27, 6:00 p.m.

King and Queen Doo Dah

Bo & Vanessa Dennis

Bo and Vanessa Dennis were both born in Independence and have participated in Neewollah most of their lives. When Bo was a senior at Independence High School he was chosen to be a stage escort for the Queen's Pageant. Vanessa participated as a Neelah Deb as a sophomore and as a Queen candidate her senior year. She has appeared in 15 Neewollah musicals in addition to co-producing three musicals. A past member, secretary and Chairman of the Neewollah Board of Directors, Vanessa served as Generalissimo in 2000. Bo has served on various Neewollah committees including assisting on the Professional Shows and as a stage hand for musicals. Bo is a partner in Newkirk, Dennis & Buckles, Inc. They are parents of two children, Erin of Chicago, IL, and Brian of Lawrence, KS.

Doo Dah Parade Committee

Kathy Newkirk/Chairman, Janet Demo, Jalayna Hurley, Mike Houck, Laura Keller

The Doo-Dah parade is the adult only event of Neewollah. It's a time for the wackiness to come out in all of us. The parade royalty, along with the current generalissimo and board of directors, lead the Mardi Gras type parade down Penn Ave. You can always count on at least one drill team strutting their stuff whether it's lawn chairs, yardsticks or bedpans. And the Sweet Potato Queens and Ticket Queens will be somewhere in the mix.

Kiddie Parade

Friday, October 28, 4:00 p.m.

The Neewollah Kiddie Parade is one of the most endearing and enduring parts of our annual festival. Over 900 children, area school bands and numerous "kiddie floats" participate in this parade. The staff from USD 446 donates time and energy to make it all happen.

Friday Night's Bandstand will feature the fetes of Magician Kevin Wade. Mr. Wade has been performing magic professionally for more than 15 years. His unique approach, incorporating comedy and audience participation into much of his work makes him a perfect choice for Neewollah. As a master at making people laugh out loud while shaking their heads in amazement, Kevin is able to add the magic touch to Neewollah 2005. He has studied the art of magic since the age of twelve and is continuously attending training programs and conventions to hone his skills. Kevin spends his day as a public school administrator in Miami, Oklahoma. Young and old alike will enjoy his free performance on the bandstand immediately following the Kiddie Parade. Saturday, October 29, 11:00 a.m. 2005 Grand Parade Route

The approximately 2 hour long parade starts at the corner of Penn and Chestnut. It proceeds from Memorial Hall at Penn and Chestnut, south to Main, east to Sixth, south to Maple, west to Ninth, and north to Laurel Street. Many people set up their chairs early Saturday morning to be sure and have a front row seat at this well attended event. The parade crowd is often five deep. There are free street acts, a carnival and food concessions both before and after the Neewollah Grand Parade.

2005 Grand Parade Marshal

Grand Parade Marshal David Torbett

David Torbett was heard saying "When I think of Neewollah families, the Wilkin/Crow family immediately comes to mind for involvement and dedication to the celebration. In my first year of teaching, Fred Wilkin was instrumental in my becoming involved in Neewollah. So when Ann Wilkin Crow asked me to be Grand Marshal, I accepted with humility and pride. I want to thank you Generalissimo Ann and all of the Independence area citizens who have supported this wonderful fall festival for these many years."

David Torbett was an excellent choice of Grand Marshal considering his many years of commitment to the celebration. In addition to riding at the head of this year's Grand Parade, Torbett will also be the gentleman announcing the 31 queen candidates as they arrive at IHS for the Queen's Coronation. Over the thirty-nine years he has called Independence home, David has produced four musicals; Meet Me in St. Louis; Annie; Hello, Dolly!; and The King & I. He has served as co-chairman of the Queen's Pageant, Co-chaired the coronation committee eight times, and been program chairman too many times to count. The fact that he was asked to serve on the Neewollah Board of Directors should come as no surprise. While on the board he served as chairman two times and was Generalissimo in 1992.

Mr. Torbett retired recently from his teaching position after 39 years at Independence High School, but not before he demonstrated similar leadership in his professional life. As an educator he chaired the English department at IHS for sixteen years, was president of the Independence Teachers Association two times and was head negotiator for six years. At the state level he has served six years on the Kansas Professional Practices Commission, eight years on the Kansas Taskforce for the Study of Quality Performance Accreditation, and was a member of the state committee to design the Kansas Report Card. His dedication and skill in the classroom earned him the Claradine Johnson Outstanding Educator award and the title Master Teacher from INEA.

Those who have been privileged to work with David Torbett in the classroom, on professional committees locally and around the state or on Neewollah committees are glad he chose to make Independence his home.

Honorary Grand Parade Marshal Fred Wilkin

Fred Wilkin serves as our honorary Grand Parade Marshal. Wilkin was an active participant in many of the Neewollah activities since its revival in 1958. He appeared on the Neewollah stage in My Fair Lady, Guys and Dolls and South Pacific. Wilkin served as Neewollah Generalissimo in 1966. He also produced the musical production of Oliver in 1969.

Fred Wilkin was a third generation abstracter, working in the family business, The Security Abstract Company, which he joined in 1947. He graduated from IHS in 1939 and served in the United States Navy during World War II leaving the Navy with the commission of Lieutenant Commander in 1945. He graduated from Washburn Law School in 1947 and was admitted to the Kansas Bar that same year.

Wilkin was a past president of the Kansas Land Title Association, the Independence Chamber of Commerce and was a former senior warden in the Epiphany Episcopal Church.

Fred Wilkin died February 12, 2005 at the age of 83. He was preceded in death by his wife, Barbara. He leaves three children, Steve Wilkin, Barbara Shepard and Ann Crow, this year's generalissimo.

His contributions and good natured enthusiasm for Neewollah are cherished by all that knew him.

Marching Band Competition

Saturday, October 29, 1:30 p.m.

Shulthis Stadium - Kayo Emmot Field

If you love march music you'll love the Neewollah Marching Band Competition. Once again this year, Shulthis Stadium will be crowded to overflowing and alive with the sound of wonderful band music. Field competition for the marching festival will begin at 1:30 p.m. Saturday afternoon at Shulthis Stadium for approximately 30 marching bands from Kansas, Oklahoma, and Missouri. This is all in a weeks work for most of the bands, but very special for festival goers. Once you've attended this event, you'll come back every year. Since the event was first begun, the festival has quadrupled in size. Bands march in the Grand Parade so they will be eligible to participate in the Marching Band Competition.

Thanks to Don Farthing, last year's Generalissimo, for developing this competition 25 years ago, along with I.H.S. Band Boosters, while he was the Independence High School band teacher. The Independence High School Band Boosters will operate a concession stand throughout the afternoon. The public is invited to attend the festival, free of charge.

Saturday Night Show

Heather Shelley Show

Saturday, October 29

7:30 p.m. - Bandstand

Sponsored by

Heather Shelley is an 18 year old senior at Scott Community High School in Scott City, Kansas. She has been singing as a special guest of the Country Fever Band for the past two years. She has performed in clubs from Topeka to Elkhart, Kansas, and has recently had the honor of performing at the Wilmore Opry in Wilmore, Kansas.

On July 23, 2004, Heather won the Waters True Value Colgate Country Showdown in Dodge City. On September 19, 2004, she won the Colgate Country show down state title at the Kansas State Fair. On October 23, 2004, she won the Midwest Regional Colgate Country Showdown at the Royal River Casino in Flandreau, South Dakota. Heather went on to represent Waters True Value an DKKJQ radio station (Dodge City, KS) in the Colgate Country Showdown at the national level in Orlando, Florida. She was definitely on a roll, bringing home the national championship, $100,000 in prize money and the title "The Best New Act in Country Music"!

At age fourteen Heather truly began pursuing her dream of moving to Nashville to become a country entertainer. One of the first songs she sang was "Unchained Melody". If anyone told her a song was too difficult for her, she would master it within a week. She has been influenced by major singers such as Martina McBride, LeAnn Rimes, Faith Hill, Christina Aguilera and Whitney Houston. Her vocal range is tremendous as is her desire. Shelley has the talent, focus and drive to accomplish her goal of making it big in the entertainment industry. She is off to a great start. Neewollah is glad to welcome her to our celebration. We hope Neewollah history repeats itself and we are part of launching another big star.
