Neewollah History

The Neewollah festival began in 1919 in an effort to provide positive activities for kids of all ages in place of typical Halloween pranks. Initially the event centered around parades held morning, afternoon and night on October 31st. The parades were made up primarily of decorated cars and carriages. Queens and princesses from area festivals rode in the parades, along with our own Queen Neelah, who was selected based on votes bought at a penny a piece. The Great Depression and World War II interrupted the Neewollah celebration from 1931 to 1947. Local businessmen Jim Halsey, Jerry Webb and Don Dancer revived and elaborated on the Neewollah theme, bringing it back as a three day festival in 1948. In the ensuing years, a queen's pageant, several presentations of a Broadway play, a carnival and street acts were added to the Kiddie Parade and Grand Parade. Today Neewollah is the oldest and largest annual festival in Kansas. Independence blossoms from 10,000-12,000 residents to up to 75,000 people in the final days of the now 10 day festival.

Welcome to Neewollah 2009: Thoroughly Fun!

I would like to invite one and all to
"Neewollah 2009: Thoroughly Fun".
This year's Neewollah Celebration will be

The Neewollah Board of Directors is made up of fifteen members who are elected for three-year terms and can serve up to three terms. New board members are often selected based on their active involvement in the festival and the expertise they bring to the board table. These individuals often assume positions of leadership in the overall running of the festival. The Generalissimo is most likely to be a Board member. He or she has a year as Generalissimo-Elect to become more fully acquainted with all facets of the 10-day celebration before moving into command.

Thoroughly Modern Millie

Director's Notes/Synopsis

An early TV memory for me was a great movie, Thoroughly Modern Millie, starring Julie Andrews and Mary Tyler Moore. I remember watching it on a Saturday evening and occasionally catching it in the afternoon on the classic movie channel. I fondly remember the squeaky cart and the tapping elevator. I was thrilled when a production based on the 1967 film opened on Broadway in 2002. Though it is a "heavy dance" show, I knew it would be a great show for the Neewollah stage.

The stage version of Thoroughly Modern Millie with music by Jeanine Tesori, lyrics by Dick Scanlan, and a book by Richard Morris and Scanlan, won several Tony Awards, including Best Musical. Thoroughly Modern Millie tells the story of a small-town girl, Millie Dillmount, who comes to New York City from Salina, Kansas, to marry for money instead of love a thoroughly modern aim in 1922, when women were just entering the workforce. Millie soon begins to take to delight in the flapper lifestyle, but problems arise when she checks into a hotel owned by the leader of a white slavery ring in China.

Millie's adventure includes a friendship with Miss Dorothy Brown, a gentle aspiring actress who never seems to have spare change; a job at the Sincere Trust Insurance Company where husband candidate Trevor Graydon III is her boss; an involvement with Jimmy Smith, a poor but fun-loving paper-clip salesman and Muzzy Van Hossmere, a madcap Manhattan cabaret singer and heiress with a zest for the high life and a glamorous penthouse.

A production like this takes a great deal of effort from many people. A special thanks goes to the hard working people behind the scenes that don't get a "bow". We couldn't do a show without them.

This show provides great music, wonderful dance, memorable characters and great laughs. May you enjoy Thoroughly Modern Millie and leave the theatre with a toe-tapping melody in your head. We hope you have an evening that is Thoroughly Fun!

Neewollah Logo Winner

Logo Winner
Leon Stout

The Neewollah Logo Committee is excited to announce that this year's winner of the 2009 Neewollah Logo Contest is Leon Stout, of Neodesha, Kansas. Stout's original design features the theme, "Neewollah 2009: Thoroughly Fun!" Stout's stylish use of modern fonts combined with the traditional Neewollah colors sets the stage for the largest annual celebration in the state of Kansas. The art will be prominently displayed on advertisements, banners, t-shirts, programs and official Neewollah merchandise. As the winner of the 2009 Neewollah Logo contest, Leon will receive a $100.00 cash prize.

A long-time resident of Neodesha, Stout and his wife, Patti, enjoy attending the Neewollah celebration each year and particularly enjoy the local talent that is featured on the bandstand. Leon and his wife, Patti, have four grown children and four grandchildren.

A graduate of Erie High School, he attended Parsons Junior College, now Labette Community College, and Pittsburg State University. "Drawing has been a life-long hobby," commented Stout. "This was the first time that I have entered one of my designs in a contest. I was extremely flattered and honored to have my logo design chosen."

The Neewollah Logo Contest is held each spring after the Generalissimo has announced the theme for the upcoming festival. Entries are sought through the local newspaper. After judges select the winner, the overall composition of the entry may be fine tuned to fit on the Neewollah button and to fit all other Neewollah needs.

Judging Queen Neelah LXVIII

Queen Neelah candidates are evaluated by a panel of judges over a period of three days. As a means of introduction, each candidate presents an individual biography which gives personal background, interests, and her reason for entering the pageant. Miss Originality is chosen in part from the most original and imaginative biography. Candidates are also required to submit a portrait from which Miss Photogenic is selected.

The first opportunity for the judges to meet the candidates is the Queen's Tea held Sunday, October 25. The judges hold a private interview with each candidate on Monday, October 26. That same evening, each candidate presents a three-minute talent presentation. Miss Talent is chosen from the most polished and entertaining of the talent numbers. On Tuesday, October 27, a brunch is held where the candidates have a final opportunity to meet with the judges in an informal setting prior to the coronation.

Over the course of time spent with the candidates, the judges also evaluate each young woman's poise, personality, personal fashion sense, and beauty. The candidates themselves select Miss Congeniality.

John Hamlin – Coronation Music

Neewollah is privileged to welcome back John Hamlin to perform as background artist for this years' Queen's Coronation. John's wide range of playing styles and compositions include Blues/Alternative Bluegrass and Classical/Spanish and Jazz. Today John performs, arranges, publishes, distributes and markets his music full time through out the world, including time spent entertaining in his home State of Kansas. John lives here in his hometown of Independence with his wife and son. Currently John serves on the Music Faculty at Independence Community College teaching Classical and Spanish guitar since August 2000. In 2007, John became a new member of the Kansas Arts Commission and The Tulsa Guitar Society. John also operates his own guitar studio and has studied under the direction of Maestro David Smart and Mentor Edgar Cruz, also having the pleasure to study with Maestro Hector Garcia and Mike Millard where John acquired his Classical Guitar skills at Oklahoma City University.

David Torbett – Talent Emcee

David Torbett is a native of Pittsburg, Kansas, and received his BA, BS, and MS from Pittsburg State University. He taught at Independence High School for 39 years.

David has been involved in many facets of Neewollah over the years. He was Generalissimo in 1992 and served as Chairman of the Neewollah Board from 1993-1995. He was Producer of several Neewollah Productions: 1973 Hello Dolly!, 1975 The King & I, 1984 Annie, 2004 Meet Me in St. Louis. He has served as program chair four times, co-chaired the Queen's Committee two times, co-chaired the Queen's Coronation Committee four times. David has also been Grand Marshal of The Grand Parade, and his favorite, many time announcer of the Doo Dah Parade with Judy Carroll for Cable One.

David is President of the USD 446 Education Foundation, a member of Pittsburg State University Alumni Association Board of Directors, was task force chairman of renovation of Independence Memorial Hall, was task force chairman for the design and construction of Riverside Park Family Aquatic Center, a former member of Independence Recreation Commission (eight year chairperson), Independence Chamber of Commerce, and Dry Holes Investment Club—two time president.

David and his wife Rachel reside in Independence and have a daughter Amanda who is a teacher at Derby High School. He is also a member of the First United Methodist Church.

Toby Cook – Coronation Emcee

Toby Cook, a native of Independence, is a veteran broadcaster who now serves as vice president of community affairs and publicity for his boyhood-favorite Kansas City Royals. He is the son of Dolly King and the late Thurman Cook, a former principal in the Independence School District. Toby graduated from Independence High School in 1986, Independence Community College in 1988, and Pittsburg State University in 1990 with a degree in communications.

Toby is no stranger to Neewollah or the Memorial Hall stage. In 1980, just as the Royals were playing in their first World Series, he portrayed Winthrop Paroo in the production of "The Music Man" and forever lost any stage fright. By the time the Royals won their only World Series title in 1985, he had appeared in more than a dozen Neewollah, high school, and community college productions -- acting, singing and pretending to tap dance once. He got his broadcast start as a 16-year old at KIND Radio and wrote for the Independence Daily Reporter throughout college.

In 1992, Toby helped start the area's first morning show on KOAM-TV in Pittsburg and hosted number-one morning shows in Lynchburg, Virginia, and at WDAF-TV in Kansas City. Inspired to go into broadcasting from a desire to be a play-by-play announcer for the Royals since age 9, Toby's career came full circle in 2006 when he joined the Royals front office and now oversees the team's community, charitable and publicity efforts. He and his wife, Barbara, have four children: Adam, 11, Molly, 10, Annabelle, 7, and Andrew, 19 months. He's happy to return to participate in the Queen Neelah pageant after serving as an escort his senior year at IHS, pageant emcee in 1993, and Queen Neelah Talent Night emcee in 2001.

Neewollah has always centered around a variety of free activities on the downtown streets of Independence. The Bandstand features hometown and area talent as well as entertainers with a global origin. The bandstand will have evening shows Wednesday through Friday, then all day Saturday during Neewollah week. The stage is constructed several days before it comes to life with street acts. Bales of hay are pulled out each evening for the audience to sit on although they may bring their own folding chairs. Wednesday night this year will be devoted to Christian music, while Thursday will feature local talent. Friday and Saturday bands will offer music to satisfy all melodic tastes.

Food Vendors

Each year the Food Vendors committee starts early contacting interested parties to insure Neewollah goes find a great mix of good food as they enjoy downtown Independence. Concession Stands are open Wednesday through Saturday and most concessions are open late morning and stay open as late as 10 p.m. or until they run out of food supplies each night. The cinnamon roll stand has been coming to Neewollah for over 30 years. It opens early Wednesday morning and stays open 24 hours a day throughout the festival. A wide variety of food offerings include Indian tacos, Philly steak sandwiches, funnel cakes, Polish sausages, fresh lemonade, shrimp creole, fried pickles and much, much more. In other words there is something for everyone.

Arts & Crafts Fair

Saturday, October 31

8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

100 Block East Myrtle

The Arts & Crafts show has been a mainstay of the Neewollah festival. Over the years, bringing in high quality hand crafted items has been a priority. This is a great time to shop for Christmas. Unusual and distinctive crafts, framed artwork and photos abound with 30-35 booths. This year they can be found in front of the VFW in the 100 block on East Myrtle.

Doo Dah Parade

"Thoroughly Bonkers"

Thursday, October 29 • 6 p.m.

The Doo Dah Parade is the adult only event of Neewollah. This parade offers the chance for those who are too old to participate in the Kiddie Parade to go "Thoroughly Bonkers". The Mardi Gras type parade down Penn Avenue will start in front of Memorial Hall and has no particular organization. Opportunities abound for lawn chair, bedpan, and bicycle drill teams. Groups can demonstrate their precision drills skills. An abundance of giant flamingos, sailboards and bearded beauties is also likely.

King & Queen Doo Dah – Grant & Cyndy Sherwood

Grant's first Neewollah experience was at the age of 15 as a dancer in the musical Carnival and it was also his last role in front of the curtain for a musical. He has worked behind stage on many musicals including stage manager. He's chaired the Grand Parade, served on the Neewollah Board and was Generalissimo in 2001. Cyndy's role in Neewollah has included serving on many committees for the musicals and queens including serving as co-chair for Queens and co-producing The Wizard of Oz. Her most distinctive honor has been wardrobe mistress for several members of the Neewollah Board's participants in each year's Doo Dah Parade. Grant and Cyndy are the parents of three daughters, Ashley, Laurel and Hilliary and have two grandsons, Grant and Burks.

Kiddie Parade

Friday, October 30
4 p.m.

The Kiddie Parade participants gather in front of Memorial Hall and join their category. Parents often walk with their younger children. This is an opportunity for parents and their children to see and be seen. Many come home for the week end festivities and connect with friends after the Kiddie Parade. Over 900 children, area bands and numerous kiddie floats participate in this parade. The staff of USD 446 donate time and energy to make the parade run smoothly.

Neewollah Grand Parade

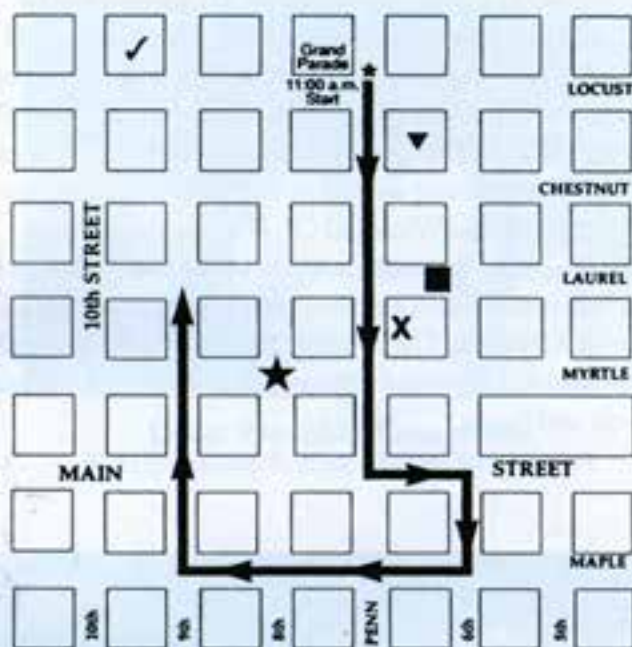

Saturday, October 31
11 a.m.

The parade goers will all wait in anticipation of the Big Boom! that lets everyone know the Neewollah 2009 Grand Parade is about to begin. All eyes, young and old, will be scanning the busy street before them trying to take it all in.

The two hour long Grand Parade will start at the corner of Penn and Chestnut. It proceeds from Memorial Hall south on Main St. east to Sixth St., south one block to Maple where it turns west to Ninth St.. The final leg travels north on Ninth St. ending just short of the Independence Middle School. The Grand Parade is exceedingly well attended. Parade goers set up chairs on the front row in the wee hours of the morning on parade day. They wait with great anticipation for the canon to go off with a loud boom at 11 a.m. The crowd will be five deep in many places along the route. There are free street acts, the carnival and food concessions along Penn Ave. both before and after the Neewollah Grand Parade.

Grand Parade Marshal – Judy Carroll

Judy Carroll is honored to serve as this year's Grand Parade Marshal. Raised in southeast Kansas, some of Judy's first Neewollah experiences include trips to the Neewollah Grand Parade. Judy and her husband, Dan, moved to Independence in 1970 and continue the annual tradition of watching the parade each year with their children and extended family. Judy's favorite parades are the ones in which her kids participated, either dressed as a crayon in a Crayola box, or on a float as a Neela Deb, Queen's candidate or escort.

Over the years, Judy's involvement has expanded to cover nearly all areas of Neewollah, from working the information booth to serving 8 years on the Neewollah Board of Directors to co-producing The Pajama Game and Meet Me in St. Louis. She was a chorus member in the musicals Cinderella, The King and I, Bye, Bye, Birdie, and the Neewollah Follies, and a member of the President's Cabinet in Annie.

Judy is a member of St. Andrew Catholic Church and the William Inge Theatre Festival Foundation Board. She is a former member of the Leadership Independence Board, First Leadership Board and the Kansas Humanities Council Board. Judy is a legal assistant to Tim Emert of Scovel, Emert, Heasty, Chubb and Gettler.

Judy and Dan are the parents of Kathy (who is married to this year's Generalissimo, Sean Clapp); Barbara of Warrensburg, Missouri; Greg and daughter-in-law, Katie, of Bettendorf, Iowa; and Joe, of Independence. They have five grandchildren, Alexis, Elizabeth, Owen, Maddie, and Emily.

Marching Band Competition

Saturday, October 31

1:30 p.m.

Shulthis Stadium – Kayo Emmot Field

Once again this year, Shulthis Stadium will be crowded to overflowing and alive with the sound of marching music. Field competition for the marching festival will begin at 1:30 p.m. Saturday afternoon at Shulthis Stadium for approximately 20-25 marching bands from Kansas and Missouri.

The competition was started in 1978 by band director, Don Farthing, along with I.H.S. Band Boosters. Since the event was first begun, the festival has quadrupled in size. Many of the bands march in the Grand Parade so they will be eligible to participate in the Marching Band Competition.

The Independence High School Band Boosters will operate a concession stand throughout the afternoon. The public is invited to attend the festival, free of admission charge.

An Evening With... Smash Mouth

Saturday, October 31
8 p.m.
Memorial Hall

Sean Clapp, Neewollah Generalissimo 2009, is pleased to announce the band Smash Mouth as the Neewollah headliner at the Saturday night October 31 show. The show will be back at Memorial Hall.

Smash Mouth has been together as a band for 12 years. The three co-founding members, Steve Harwell, Greg Camp and Paul DeLisle, are joined by Michael Klooster and Mark Cervantes and are as tight today as they were the day they first jammed together in their hometown of San Jose.

Collectively the band has sold more than 10 million albums worldwide. Along with their number one hits — Walkin' on the Sun and All Star — they have consistently impacted radio with other recognizable hits like Then the Morning Comes, Can't Get Enough Of You Baby, and the cover of the Monkees classic I'm a Believer, which was prominently featured on the Shrek soundtrack (#4, Billboard Adult Top 40).

A quick listen to their music and you realize the multi-platinum Smash Mouth is a 60's influenced garage band with a keen pop sensibility that maintains a timeless quality...a style they have created and that is all their own.

Having long since established itself as the ultimate true-to-life California party-band, the vibe surrounding Smash Mouth is indeed about having fun.

The band has grown over the years and has reached a level of maturity. Fans will no doubt have a chance to share the good times with the band as they share their latest album Summer Girl.

"You can't miss the live show," states DeLisle, who later declares, "The live show completes the entire package. Recordings are only one part of the whole. This band must be seen to be believed. It's we're coming to your town it's a party you won't want to miss. It's unique, it's ours, we created it and there's no one else like us."
