CITIZENSHIP FOR DEMOCRACY

PUBLISHED BY THE STUDENTS
OF THE SENIOR CLASS
INDEPENDENCE - KANSAS

Citizenship for Democracy, our theme for 1940---The pride of every citizen of Independence lies in the beauty and progress of our town. This beauty can be seen in Riverside Park with its fresh bright flowers of Spring and rich colorful leaves of fall or around some private home with shady trees and flower gardens.

The progress of Independence is outstanding. It possesses many of the advancements that can be found in a larger metropolis. A public library, beautiful churches, an up-to-date hospital, a magnificent courthouse, a new gymnasium complete in every detail, and new grade school buildings; all of these show progress that has been made.

The school children of our town have the privileges that every American child should have---advantages of a modern school system. Two architectural concrete buildings show that Independence holds a unique place in having the best equipped school facilities in the world. Our "citizens" of the Independence schools have always been a source of pride and satisfaction; and now they can accomplish even greater results.

TO OUR HOME TOWN

Settled down on a sunlit Kansas plain beneath the great sweeping branches of cool shade trees lies "our town" Unostentatious, humble yet proud, Independence is a typical average city; its civic life and government is fair, just, and unexciting. To the 13,000 "average citizens," Independence embodies the attributes and characteristics of a personal friend. Reverence, ambition, appreciation of fine arts, and the readiness to help less fortunate neighbors are characteristics of cultured American people found in our home town.

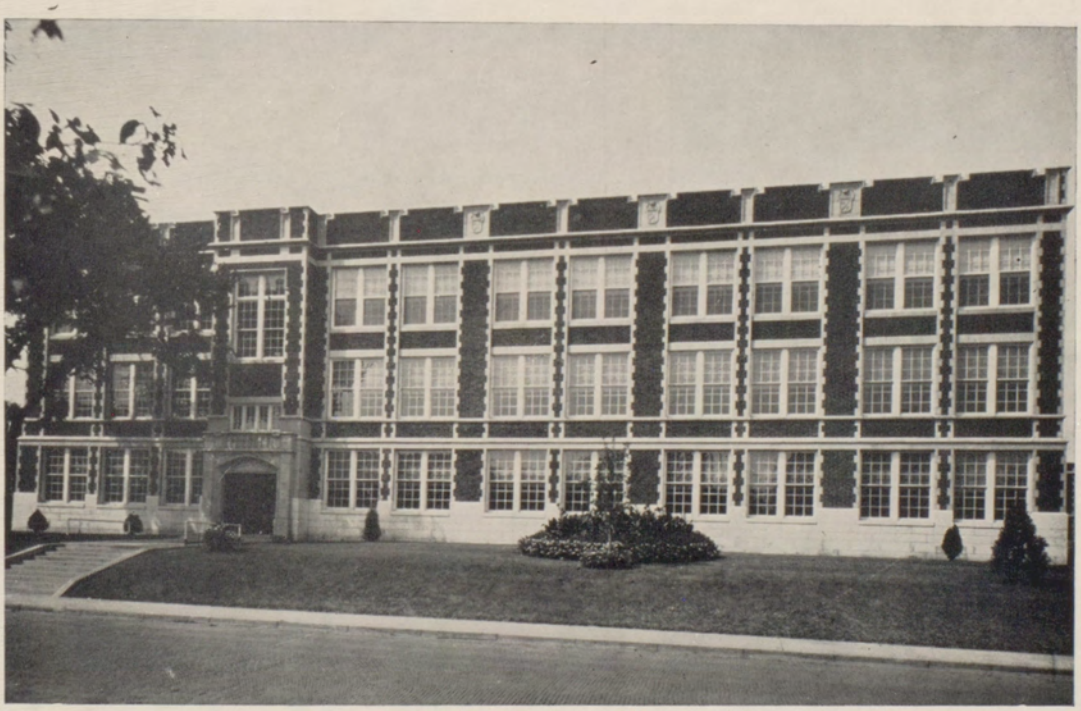

OUR NEW GYM

A vision comes true! A new gymnasium which meets every requirement of beauty and durability is, indeed, a gift to the senior class of 1940. We, the seniors, are more than grateful for the privilege of using such a fine building and are enthusiastic over the fact that future classes will also have the advantages in higher physical education made possible by its erection

The board of education has given us a gymnasium that far surpasses the expectations of the student body and the towns people. The new building is, beyond a doubt, the finest of its kind in this section of the state. It will fill a great need and stand for years as a symbol of this community's faith in the welfare and physical development of its youth.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE INDIVID

The Rotary Club of Independence is a civic club to promote citizenship and develop character. From their slogan "He profits most, who serves best" the members of this club have done much for the students and the people of Independence. The Rotary Club is built on four points: club service, vocational service, community service, and international service. From these points they go forth to serve and to aid.

UAL

SCHOOL BOARD IS ACTIVE GROUP

Top row: Scott, Dennis, Braden, McDaniel. Front row: Fertig, Stewart, Harper, O'Brien, Clement.

Until recent months the building program has been the prime objective of the board of education, resulting in the erection of two new grade schools and a new physical education building for the high school. From now on the work of the board will be concentrated on the cooperation between students and teachers and the proper administration of the educational facilities offered by the new buildings.

The present members of the board include O. L. O'Brien, president; Donald Stewart, R. P. Scott, S. E. McDaniel, Clyde Braden, and C. V. Dennis; ex-officio members are J. H. Clement, superintendent of schools, and Florence Harper, secretary of the board.

Each of these persons was selected for his position by the citizens themselves, who know the value of placing competent and dependable persons for an efficient school board. Each is a citizen giving time and work to establish that essential bond between the community and the student body, and to develop in the students a better ideal of citizenship.

The students greatly appreciate the action of this board which has resulted in the erection of the two new grade schools and the physical education building to Independence.

THE HEAD OF THE SYSTEM

An efficient, progressive, capable leader----J. H. Clement can be called the guiding hand behind a modern and ever-progressing school system.

Mr. Clement has felt many times during the past years the need for a physical education building and new grade school buildings. He has put forth his best effort in helping to give Independence the highest in educational facilities.

Our superintendent possesses all the qualities of an upstanding citizen that should make any community proud. His never ceasing interest in the student body has made him a friend as well as a leader.

THE PRINCIPAL OF I.H.S.

When the success of the Independence High School is being spoken of a great deal of credit should go to Principal E. R. Stevens.

Principal Stevens spends most of his time working to better our school system. He foresees the fact that sometime in the near future the students graduated from I.H.S. will join other young people in becoming the ruling population of the United States. Thus he has always done his best to make us good citizens in the school and in our town.

For his great interest and inspiring influence, we give praise.

LIFE BEGINS AT '40 FOR GRADUATING SENIORS

Completing successfully four years of study in Independence High School marks the turning point in the lives of the 170 members of the senior class. The class of '40 stands on the threshold of Tomorrow. Graduation from high school will place some of us in a college or university, eager for more knowledge before we go out to "lick" the world; to others it will mean the end of the school of Study and the beginning of the school of Life and Experience.

As freshmen in 1937 we were considered a large class and even with the dropping out of those who could not "take it" we have remained a large class.

Sophomores we became in 1938, and the true significance of the reason for a high school education gave us a nudge. Geometry confronted us with all its evil angles, and Latin became more complicated.

1939, we were juniors. Faced with the nearing threat of graduation from this sheltered, carefree life, we were saddened by the thought of being seniors.

All through our full, senior year we constantly realized the "why" of going to high school. Now as we approach the commencement, we are no longer saddened at leaving, or afraid of that outer world. We are prepared to take our places as citizens of these United States of America.

WITH FORTY GONE, LIFE BEGINS FOR FORTY-ONE

The members of the senior class of 1941 see before them the last stretch of the road before the goal they have struggled so long to attain. This road has not been an easy one to travel because it is rough in many places and sometimes it seems almost impossible to make the grade. This road has been traveled by many people and the class of '41 has not been one to let many of its members stray from the well-beaten path, although a few have been lost.

All along this road to graduation there are extra paths one may follow to goals of special recognition. Many members of the junior class have chosen to follow some of these extra paths. In the scholastic field, many members of the class have made records that bring glory to the class as a whole. In debate their showing has been better than most schools can boast of because most of the I.H.S. debators have come from the junior class. In dramatics and music they have also held prominent places.

When the sport record is brought to our attention, we can see members of the class of '41 standing out in every field. Several of them have already made records in football and basketball and are now entering into the spring sports.

This junior class will some day be a part of the large population governing our United States and if they continue on the path they have chosen so far to follow, it is easy to see that their part will be well done.

Organized in 1920 the Kiwanis Club pledged itself to give service to the human rather than the material values of life. This classification club works for the students in their under-priviledged child work. From eye correction to dental work the members strive to raise the standards of health in this school. Some of their aims are to develop a most serviceable citizenship and to build better communities.

SCHOOL PAPER IS FOR STUDENTS

Under the able leadership of the new journalism adviser, Miss Lora Todd, and the printing instructor, Mr. Marlin Reppert, the school paper, "The Student", is edited, printed, and published weekly entirely in the school.

It is through "The Student" that the people of Independence are informed of the activities of the student body. The merchants of the town help in no small way in keeping the paper going by advertising and by supporting school projects.

In order to give each student experience in different phases of newspaper work, the staff of "The Student" is changed every nine weeks. In this way the student has a chance to be on the editorial, advertising, and business staffs at least once during the year. Editors of the paper this year were Marjorie Scott, Betty Jo Wilson, Warren Gaughan, Elizabeth Heckman, and Richard Dent.

"The Student", as in former years, has a wide variety of stories and columns. The "Spectator", the high school gossip column, ranks as the most popular among the students. One of the aims of the journalism class was to include in the paper at least once during the year the name of every junior and senior high school student. Due to their efforts many more names have appeared in the paper than formerly.

A successful change was made in the paper this year by the journalism and printing departments working together. The small, eight page paper was replaced by a large, four page publication. The total copy and advertising of the larger paper is equal to nine pages of the smaller one.

Last fall the Kansas Interscholastic Press Association at K.U. which is held annually was attended by Miss Todd and eight of the journalism students. The conference proved very interesting to the Independence delegation which was a larger group than usual. Those who made the trip were Betty Jo Wilson, Jean Brann, Marjorie Scott, Richard Dent, Curtis Crum, Bob Hille, Jack Bates, and Jimmie Martin.

"The Student" offers valuable training for any student who wishes to gain experience as a journalist. It has become an important part of our school in giving an accurate account of all school activities and student opinions.

ANNUAL USES CIVIC THEME

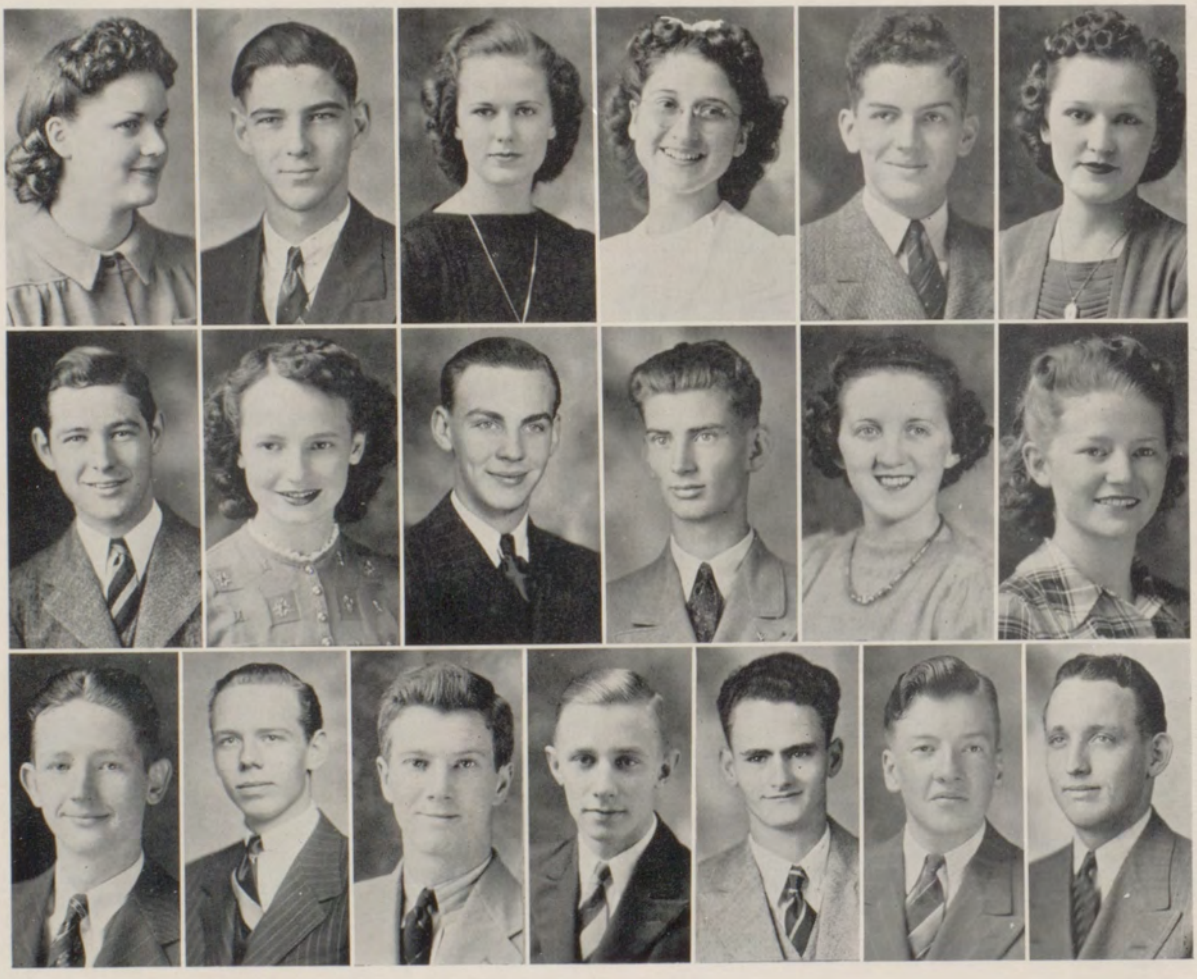

The Orange and Black again as in the past has been created through the efforts of the senior students working on the staff.

We have reason to be justly proud of our 1940 yearbook. Many precious hours have been devoted to making this annual a success.

Marlin Reppert, who for many years has sponsored the Orange and Black, has given freely of his time and the staff wishes to express their appreciation in having had the privilege of working with him in his last year as sponsor.

This year the theme of the annual is "Citizenship for Democracy". Due credit is being given to the various organizations of the town. The members of these organizations have dedicated much of their time to the progress of our city and the bettering of our school system. To these organizations, who have always been interested in the activities of our school and who have done much to influence our students, we wish to express our gratitude.

This years Orange and Black staff, the members of which were chosen from the journalism and printing departments, consists of the editor-in-chief, Betty Jo Wilson; assistant editors, Margaret Ann McConnell, Elizabeth Heckman, and Berta Jean Buckles; joke editors, Janet Davis and Irene McBride; kodak editors, Walter McVey, Richard Dent, and Bob Hille; business staff, George Meade, John Wyckoff, Wayne Benjamin, and Clifford Krone; Warren Gaughan, sports editor; and the printing staff, Jack Norris, Joe Allen, and Arnold Pohl.

Our capable editor deserves credit for the efficient way in which she has done her share in making the Orange and Black a success. Credit is also due to her assistant editors for the way in which they put forth their best efforts to further his success.

This, the thirteenth issue of the Orange and Black, is, indeed a book to be proud of. It is an annual which the students will treasure and forever keep as a pleasant reminder of their happy school days.

The debate season started with the entire squad attending the debate institute at Arkansas City. Some noted speakers were heard and two rounds of non-decision practice debates were held. At the tournament at Coffeyville three four member teams were entered. The team of Persky, Shanahan, Krone, and Rains survived the preliminaries but were eliminated in the first round of the eliminations by Classen High of Oklahoma City

Two two member teams were entered in the tournament at Fort Scott next. Independence placed fifth in the tournament with Topeka taking first place. Eloise Humphrey entered the after dinner speaking contest and took third place.

The College of Emporia next sponsored a tournament and two two member and two four member teams were entered. The team of Krone and Rains survived the preliminaries but were eliminated in the first round of the elimination by Hutchinson who also won the tournament.

On January 26 and 27 Mr. Goering took the squad to Wellington. Only one four member team could be entered by each school and Persky, Shanahan, Krone, and Rains tied with five other schools for second place.

In the S.E.K. and district tournament at Parsons, Independence went through the preliminaries but lost to Pittsburg in a dual debate in the semi-finals. Pittsburg won first place in the tournament and Fort Scott won second.

This year letters were awarded to Alex Haas, Jack Bushnell, Phillip Persky, Jack Shanahan, Retha Krone, Ruth Rains, Marilyn Houx, Clara Jane Hendrickson, Emma Louise Sappington, Eloise Humphrey, Buddy Sands, and Russell Hyde.

DRAMATICS CLUB OFFICERS

THESPIANS DO WELL IN WORK

In 1922, Miss Anna Ingleman's English classes organized the Dee Dee club. From this has developed the Dramatics club which presents on the average of three long plays a year.

Anyone may join the Dramatics club but in order to be initiated into the club he must pass several requirements. They include various public appearances, a menial task, and an original play or stage version of some famous short story. To become an officer of the club one must be an official member.

As one of the long plays this year the club chose "Young May Moon." The setting of this play was on the campus of an ideal American school. The plot dealt with the discovery of a "red" and the disclosing of a secret organization, the Champ club, of which the dean's son was president. It was presented two evenings and was well received by the audiences. In May the graduating class gave its senior play.

The contest play, "Pink and Patches", which was presented at Chanute, dealt with a typical mountaineer's family. The small daughter, Texie, was played by Eloise Humphrey; the boy, Hank, by R. J. Osborn; and the mother by Marjorie Scott.

The officers for the club were president, Warren Gaughan; vice-president, Mary Dennis; secretary, Betty Goodwin; and treasurer, Jimmy Martin.

To Miss Anna Ingleman goes the credit for the success of any production, which is due primarily to her efficient direction and sacrifice of almost all of her time.

Gaughan, president; Dennis, vice-president; Goodwin, secretary; Martin, treasurer.

Jones, Brooks, Wagner, Woodman, Elliott, Gardner, Hughes, St. Helens, Helman, Wilkin, Faulk, Cherrie.

"TISH"

On February 8 and 9 "Tish" was presented by the college dramatics department. The play was directed by Miss Anna Ingleman and proved a big success. The college plays are always well attended by the high school students and all the stage work and ushering is done by the high school dramatics classes. The characters are, however, all college students.

"YOUNG MAY MOON"

"Young May Moon," which was presented April 11 and 12, took place on the campus of an American school.

Wendy, the dean's daughter, wished to get into a secret organization, the Champ club, of which her brother, Teddy, was president.

The Champ club, which as a secret organization was forbidden on the campus, was accused of being a communistic group. In the end, Wendy, after being kidnapped by Stephen Adair, was taken into the club, and the communist, supposed to be Mason Wells, was disclosed.

Teddy's romance with Cynthia was ended when he discovered her fickleness and her engagement to a West Point cadet.

DRUM CORPS STEPS HIGH

The Senior Girls' Drum Corps was organized in 1937, and made it's first appearance at the Spring Opening. At present there are thirty-five members.

At every college and high school football game the corps gave a demonstration at the half. They marched for various civic clubs and accepted a number of out-of-town engagements for the year.

New uniforms adorn the members of the corps this year and are quite classy. They earned the money for the uniforms by selling candy, having a chili supper, and marching for civic clubs.

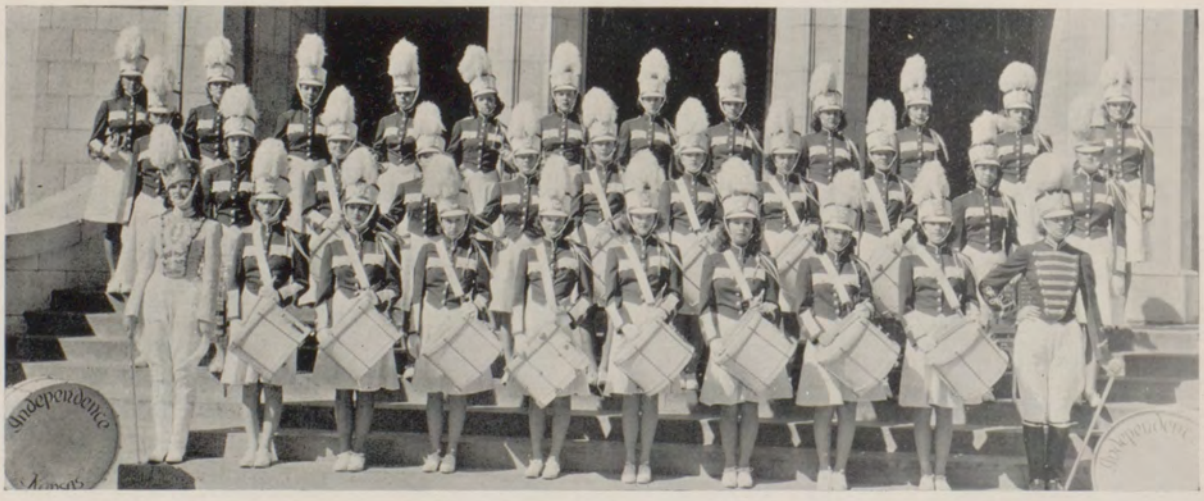

The Girls' Drum Corps gave two mass demonstrations at Coffeyville in November, marched Armistice Day in Caney, and went to Bartlesville on November 28, to march at Phillips 66 birthday for "Uncle Frank". They also made a trip to Parsons to march at a football game. At the annual concert and also the Dr. Simon concert, the drum corps played.

The annual birthday party was held March 28, at the Booth Hotel. The officers for this year are Janet Davis, commander; Jacqueline Baldridge, vice-commander; and Vivian Emery, secretary-treasurer.

Much of the success of the drum corps should go to their sponsor, Miss Self, and director, Mr. Callahan.

The girls of the drum corps have worked hard and have made I.H.S. quite proud of them.

On February 15, the Girls' Glee club appeared on the program of the annual P.T.A. meeting which was held at the Presbyterian church.

The Glee club went to Chanute on April 12 to attend the Chanute Music Festival. The solos were sung by Fern Faulk and Lila Jean Murphy at the Festival and Evelyn Treger entered with a piano solo.

The Boys' Glee club is composed of twenty-one members. They have appeared in assembly three times, and also at a P.T.A. meeting at the Washington school.

SENIOR G.R. SERVES SCHOOL

The blue triangle is the symbol for the Girl Reserves, representing the body, mind, and spirit. In the regular meetings held every two weeks, great stress is placed upon these three things. There are 150 members in the Girl Reserves this year.

The club is very active this year and sold G. R. pins to raise money. They also sold candy, waited tables for banquets, and sold poppies. From these proceeds they sent eleven girls to camp at Joplin last summer. Ten girls from here attended the conference at Sedan. The organization also adopted a family and provided food and clothing for them at different times throughout the year.

Several baskets were given at Thanksgiving time and at Christmas. Also a party for the Mexican children was given.

The annual Mother-Daughter banquet was an outstanding event of the Girl Reserves this year. "Youth Joins Hands in World Fellowship" was the theme, and the guest speaker was Miss Evelyn Hunter of Wichita.

The successful club year has been under the guidance and help of Miss Morrison and Miss Coldwell. The cabinet is composed of Maxine Willoughby, president; Julia Wright, vice-president; Virginia Thompson, secretary; and Martha Todd, treasurer; Martha Lamar, program; Maxine Overfield, finance; Katherine Russell, service; Beryl Adams, conference; Martha Brown, publicity; Christine Callahan, music; Lois Parker and Dorothy Lang, devotions; Julia Wright, membership; and Dixie Lee McDonald, social.

SENIOR GIRL RESERVES

SR. HI-Y HAS ACTIVE YEAR

The members of the Senior Hi-Y have the purpose of the Hi-Y clubs well in mind by the constant repeating of it in meetings. This helps to make the club of more good to the school and the community. This year service projects were undertaken in the form of maintaining a concession stand at each football game, selling pencils which had the football schedule on them, and running the book exchange at the beinning of each semester.

With the money from these projects, the club did many things. First of all the cabinet members attended the fall district conference at Chanute, and again in the spring they attended the district conference at Iola along with the new officers.

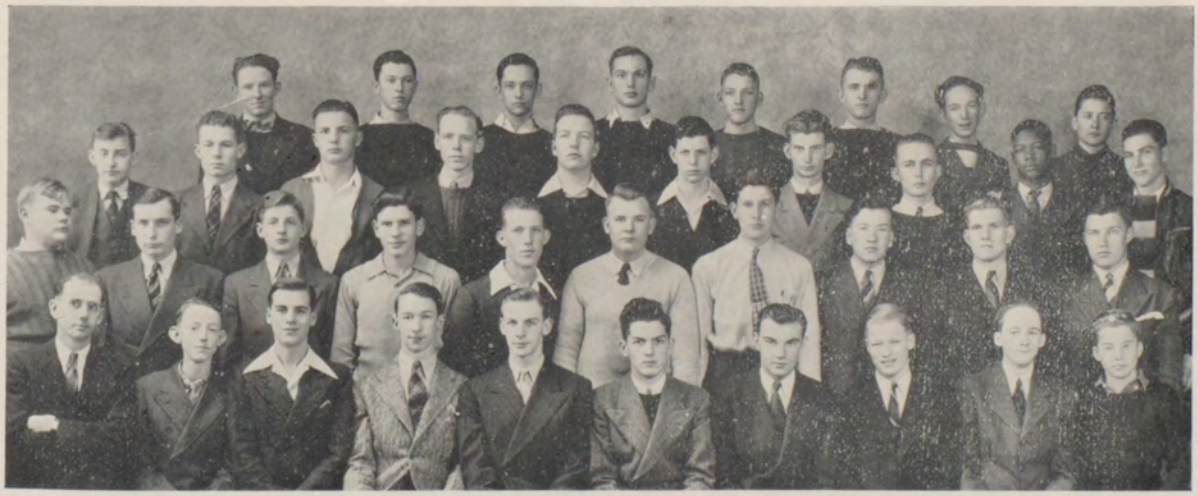

On the social side, the club had a picnic at the park at which time the new members were initiated into the club. The annual line party to the show for the members and their dates was also held. The annual mixer was held in the gym and was judged a huge success.

This year a new sponsor, Mr. Babcock, was obtained. Mr. Babcock, although new at Hi-Y work, has shown by his willingness to work and cooperate with the boys that he is a very capable leader. Along with the cabinet he has helped work out different problems and has helped to build programs which are instructive as well as entertaining and which help to make better citizens of the members.

The officers for the year just concluded are Bob Hille, president; Richard Dent, secretary; Glen Hackmaster, treasurer; Harold Houx, program chairman; Bob Meanor, service chairman; Roland Wass, world brotherhood chairman; and Chester Funston, publicity chairman.

SENIOR HI-Y

SCIENCE CLUB INTEREST HIGH

First organized in 1934 as the "Medical Interest Club," the Science Club has grown to be one of the most interesting and educational of the Independence high school clubs. Under the leadership of Mr. Parley W. Dennis, the sponsor, and the club's officers, the organization has had a profitable year.

Weekly meetings were held this year on Wednesday during counsellor period at which time talks were given by various members of the club and also by guest speakers. The guest speakers this year were Mr. Earl Bevan, principal of the junior high school, Mr. Parley Dennis, sponsor of the club, Dr. Harold Choguill, chemistry instructor, Dr. E. E. Brann, oculist, and Mr. McLaughlin, Doctor of Geology, who is connected with the national Department of Geological Survey.

Several additions were made to the museum this year which include a bobcat, a bat, an eagle, a hawk, a rat, a starling, and a blue heron. One of the most interesting additions to the museum is the collection of shells given to the club by Mr. J. Bertenshaw of which the members are very proud.

The Kansas Junior Academy of Science, which was held at Wichita this year on March 29-30, was attended by nine members of the club and Mr. Dennis. The only Independence delegate presenting a demonstration was John Reddy, who placed third with his "Sound Amplifier."

The officers for this year were Paul Wilhelm, president; John Reddy, vice-president; Patricia Dunn, secretary; Alex Haas, treasurer; and Retha Krone and Juanita Freels, program chairmen.

BOYS RECEIVE TRADE ADVICE

The Vocational club, founded in 1936, has become one of the leading organizations of the school. Its origin was suggested by the founding of the college Engineering club, and its purpose was to provide an Engineering club for the high school. Mr. Friley and Mr. Bowen were chosen as sponsors and Mr. Bowen has been with the club since its beginning. Under his guidance programs of various vocations have been arranged. The club's purpose is to learn from talks by men in the vocations and professions what the various occupations have to offer in service compensation, permanence, etc. Also by visiting industries they can learn first hand something of the working conditions.

Officers for this year are as follows: Clyde McGuire, president; Ralph Sicks, vice-president; Donald Lolley, secretary-treasurer.

The club visited the Atlas cement plant, making a thorough tour and inspection of the plant. One of the high spots of the year was the trip to the Grand River Dam, at Disney, Oklahoma. The club held its annual picnic and initiation at the beginning of the year.

Some of the speakers at the club this year were Mr. Stockebrand, Tom Glasscock, of the Highway Patrol, and various clothing and professional men of the city.

The club meets once each week.

THE WILL TO WIN IN COMPETI

"Liberty, intelligence—our nation's safety", this indeed is the watchword of the Independence Lions Club. The Lions are always ready to help the school in any possible way. This year they gave $1000 toward the new band uniforms by having the Marine Band concert. The Lions club is sponsor of a saftey system for the protection of grade school children. Last summer the Boys' City, which over fifty high school boys attended, proved a successful aid to the citizens of tomorrow.

TION

BULLDOGS A LIGHT TEAM

Although the 1939 football team was not as powerful as the 1938 squad, it was a fighting group of Bulldogs that opened the season against Fredonia. Sixty boys reported for practice a few days before school started and Coach Allen molded his team around the nucleus of nine returning lettermen. Injuries hampered the playing ability much during the season, the team being the lightest in the history of the school. Even though the team did not start with a winning streak, they received the support of the town and school throughout the year.

The Lions club sold tickets and the townspeople responded with a record sale. One factor present all year was the gift of working together. The Bulldogs played with a real spirit and it was through no fault of the team as a whole that Independence did not rank higher.

The Bulldogs were defeated all year until they encountered the Blue Comets. Here the players seemed to find themselves and ran over the Comets 13-0. The following week again the Allen crew was in the winning mood and defeated the Iola Mustangs 12-0. After these two games, Neodesha and Coffeyville turned the tables and the Canines finished the season in the lower division of the S.E.K. league standings. Dale Fowler, senior end, was the only Bulldog to receive a berth on the all-star S.E.K. team. Meade, Sutton, Kendrick, and Carpenter received honorable mention.

Football is one sport which teaches the players the necessity of working together and the importance of fairness. It does much to train boys to be better citizens.

HOOPSTERS DO BEST AT LAST

Back row: Coach Barngrover, McKay, Chappuie, McGee, Stiffler, Barnham, Sicks. Front row: Boyle, Tull, Meade, Todman, Greer, Sims, Peebles, Martin.

Coach Floyd Barngrover, who came here from Mound Ridge, Kansas, to take the place of Earl Bevan as basketball and track coach, started the season with six returning lettermen. The league schedule was made into a double round robin this year with each team playing each other twice.

The team started rather slowly, breaking even in two practice games before opening the season at Columbus. Their first conference win came about half way through the schedule when they defeated Iola. Several close games were lost, including two with the champion Pittsburg Dragons.

Even though the team finished low in the S.E.K. standings, it didn't seem to dampen their spirits for the regional. In the regional they finally started going and were not stopped until they met Chanute in the finals of the tournament. They played four games in the regional winning three of them.

One of the high spots of the regional was the game in the semi-finals with Coffeyville. Coffeyville had defeated the Bulldogs in both league games and they were all set to win the tournament until the underdog Bulldogs upset their cart.

Nine men were presented the coveted "I" at the end of the season, these being Ralph Sicks, Guy Tull, Kenneth Boyle, George Meade, Jimmie Martin, and Duane McKay, seniors; Dotson Sims, Francis Greer, and Claude Peebles, juniors. Dotson Sims was given honorable mention for the all S.E.K. team. Ralph Sicks was chosen honorary captain of the team by the members at the end of the season.

TRACK MEMBERS STAR AT RELAYS

Starting off the season with the annual inter-class meet, Coach Barngrover launched his first track team in Independence. Mr. Barngrover came from Mound Ridge this year to coach basketball and track and he teaches four classes a day. He has behind him a successful coaching record and his results this year prove his ability.

In the inter-class meet the seniors won with a score of 90 points. The juniors had 29 points, the sophomores had 24 1-2, and the freshman 6 1-2. This got the boys in the spirit for competition but all the boys took it rather easy and it was so early in the season and sprains are so easily contracted.

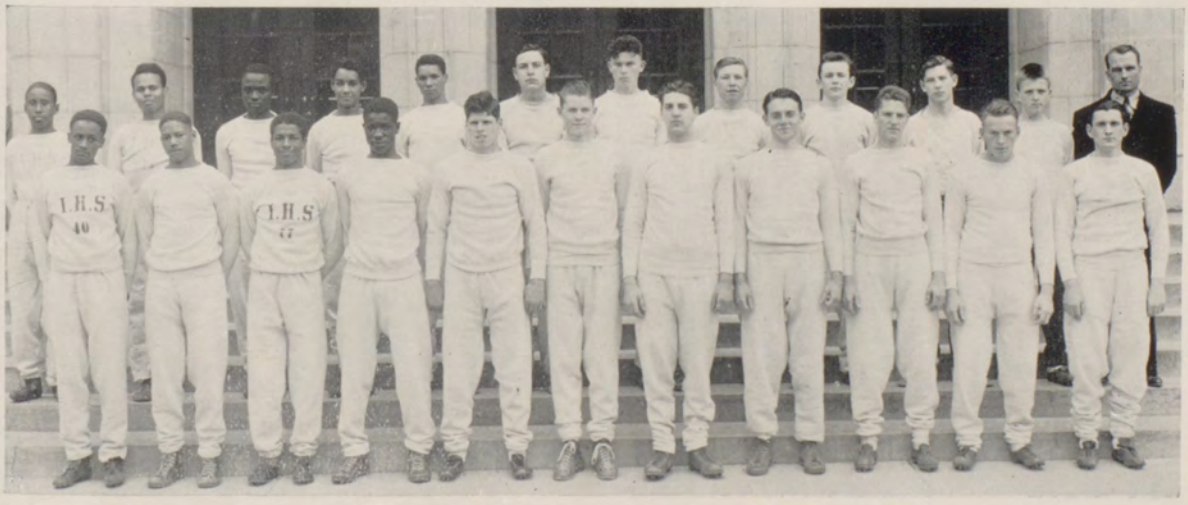

The first inter-school meet for I.H.S. was at Pittsburg where the Bulldogs took fourth. Here Harry Pruitt, outstanding track star, took first in the 220 yard low hurdles breaking the record set by him in 1939. Dale Fowler took first in the 220 yard dash. The Bulldogs gathered 35 points in this meet.

With a skeleton crew of only three men Coach Barngrover journeyed to Lawrence to take second in the Annual K. U. Relays Pruitt took first in the high and low hurdles, Fowler took second in the 220 and 440 yard dashes and Dotson Sims tied for first in the pole vault. Wichita took first with fourteen entries.

In the annual Coffeyville Invitational the locals took third with 41 1-6 points. Pruitt equalled the state record in the 120 high hurdles with the time, 14.9. Shortly after this the Canines dropped a dual meet to Coffeyville to the score of 75-57.

TRACK TEAM

GOLFERS TAKE S. E. K. TITLE

Coach Forrest Smith started the 1940 season without any of the lettermen from the state championship team of '39. The 1939 team was composed of Ralph Sicks, who was runner-up in the state championship match; Lewis Dreisbach, Bob Wortman, and Lewis Warnock. These four teamed together to win the state four man team championship, while Sicks and Dreisback won the two man championship. In addition to these four boys, letters were awarded to Charles Moss, a freshman, and Bob Tomlinson, a junior.

This year the team was made up of new men for the most part. Rob Robley, Gib Layton, and Charles Moss, who teamed with George Meade to win the S. E. K. four man team title are only sophomores. Meade is a senior. Robley won low medal honors in the S. E. K. and teamed with Moss to take second in the two man team event.

The Bulldogs lost only one meet this year, that being to Coffeyville by a score of 26½ to 25½. Many of their dual meets were won by overwhelming scores. The Bulldog golfers can not be expected to match the marks set by the team last year in the state tournament; however with three of the first four men only sophomores, much can be expected of them in the next year or so.

Mr. Smith has worked hard with the team this year and much credit should go to him for the fine way in which he has helped the members.

GOLF TEAM

TENNIS TEAM IS STRONG

Always in the past I. H. S. has produced good tennis teams, and this year was not an exception to that rule. Led by Edison Shive, a sophomore, and Donald Treger, a senior, the team, up to the time of the SEK, had lost only two matches, to Coffeyville and Winfield. They were favored to capture the SEK title; avenge their defeat at the hands of Coffeyville; win the regional title; and participate in the state meet at Emporia.

The season opened with the annual invitational tournament at Riverside park, in which the Bulldogs captured all the titles. Next a match with Pittsburg on the home courts was won by the Canines.

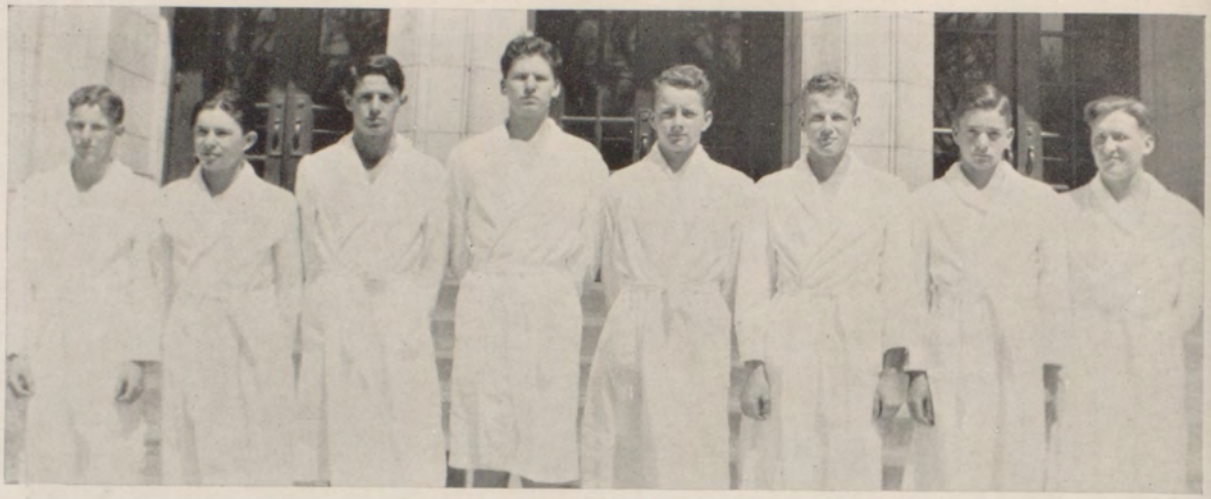

The Bulldogs then engaged the Coffeyville team on the courts at Riverside park, and dropped the meet, winning only 4 of the matches. A week later after suffering this defeat the team made a trip to Winfield and lost its second meet of the season. However, the Winfield boys were to engage the Bulldogs in a return match on the home courts. The last match before the SEK meet was with Fredonia, and I. H. S. whitewashed the Fredonia team, allowing them to win only three games.

At the time of this writing, which was just before the SEK, Shive was favored to win the singles and a team composed of either Martin and Gordon or Peebles and Chappuie was favored to cop the doubles title.

However it went, Independence students may be sure they had a good team in 1940. Six letters were given, and of them four will be back next year. The team was composed of Shive, Treger, Peebles, Gordon, Martin, Crane, and Chappuie.

SWIMMING TEAM

TANK TEAM TAKES TRIPS

Chilcote, Brown, Plummer, Baldridge, Elliott, Case, Potter, Elswick.

Coach Forrest Smith organized the first swimming team in 1934 after he had endeavored to do so for several years. Mr. Smith has held the position of coach since the team first was organized and has proved to be an exceptionally good coach. While his teams have not been especially high in standings he has turned out many fine swimmers. The main reason Independence is not able to win more meets is that it has to compete almost entirely against much larger schools.

Wichita East journeyed to Independence for the season's first meet and defeated the Bulldogs, 50 to 16.

At the next meet at Wyandotte in Kansas City the Independence team was sunk to the tune of 54 to 12. After suffering this defeat at Kansas City, Coach Smith took his boys to Tulsa where they met the Will Rogers High. The team did its best work of the season at this meet but was defeated, 30 to 22. The next trip was a two day journey to Tulsa and Tulsa Central won from the Bulldogs, 58 to 8. The next day Will Rogers again defeated the Independence team, 42 to 24.

The Canine strokesters next went to Coffeyville where they were defeated 46 to 20. Wichita North came to the local tank and took their toll with the edge of 49 to 17. Tulsa Central then did the same with a score of 57 to 9. At the state meet Independence did some good swimming but failed to get a high score. The season's last meet was held against Coffeyville and the Coffeyville team defeated the Bulldogs, 45 to 21.

Bill Baldridge was chosen honorary captain and letters were awarded to Bill Baldridge, Robert Plummer, and Wendell Elliott.

BOYS' PEP CLUB GIVES SERVICE

After being without a boys' pep club for a great number of years I.H.S. now has an up-and-coming organization of which the school should be proud.

The idea for a boys' pep club started at the first of the year in Mr. Choguill's counsellor group. Only those juniors and seniors who are active in more than one sport during the year are eligible for membership. The boys were selected for their personality and dependability.

The sponsor of the Boys' Pep club is Miss Georgia Brown, instructor of English and Latin. The officers for the current year are as follows: John Wyckoff, president; Dale DeVore, vice-president; Walter McVey, secretary-treasurer. The officers have also been elected from the junior boys to carry on the activities of the club for the following year. Bob Gibson was chosen as president; Alex Haas, vice-president; and Paul Wilhelm, secretary-treasurer.

The boys selected as their uniforms black sweaters with orange bulldogs. The sweaters were bought by each boy individually. No definite time was set for club meetings but whenever important business arose a meeting was called.

Pep demonstrations were held by the pep club for many of the football games. A large bonfire and snake dance was planned for the students the night before the Thanksgiving game. This year the club was invited to attend the annual lettermen banquet held by the Girls' Pep club.

This spring the club took upon itself the problem of keeping careless students from walking on the lawn of the campus. The boys patroled the walks between classes and each morning, noon, and evening until it became a habit for the students to stay on the sidewalks.

GIRLS' PEP CLUB INSTILLS FIGHT

There is one organization in the school which has always been known for its pep and support of the various athletic teams. This organization is the Girls' Pep club.

This year for the first time the club has had a name. This name, "Canine Coeds," was chosen at the beginning of the year from a group of names submitted in a school-wide contest.

Throughout the year, the club has joined in many activities. It is the duty of each member of the organization to do her part in the planning of special assemblies, in the supporting of the teams, in the money making activities, and in keeping up the character and scholastic standing of the club.

Much credit and appreciation goes to Miss Lora Todd, sponsor of the club, who has spent much of her time working toward the success of the club.

During football season Miss Jean Brann was elected football queen by the football team. At that time the club presented a very effective assembly program, during which "Queen Jean" was crowned. During basketball season, the club was entertained by the Coffeyville pep club, the Tornado Tillies, at a supper party before the Independence-Coffeyville game.

The pep club year was ended triumphantly by a lettermen's banquet held March 26, for the members of the football, basketball, and swimming teams who won letters. The banquet, held at the Presbyterian church, was presided over by Mary Blanche Todd as toastmaster.

The officers for the year were Mary Blanche Todd, president; Elizabeth Heckman, vice-president; Berta Buckles, secretary; and Joan Noel, treasurer. The cheerleaders were Mary Blanche Todd and Wilma Lou Jardine.

PEP CLUB

SENIOR G.A.A. BOOSTS SPORTS

"To encourage physical education and outdoor and indoor athletic activities for all senior high school girls" is the purpose of the Senior Girls' Athletic Association, which was organized in Independence high school in 1926. The local organization joined the Kansas State High School Athletic Association in 1932. Through this association the girls may participate in athletic activities and earn letters and local state awards.

The activities for which points are granted are placed in three groups: (1) organized activities; (2) unorganized activities; and (3) achievement tests and health and hygiene.

For every hour of organized activities a member receives seven points, and for an hour of unorganized activities, three and one-half points. To earn the necessary points the girl must spend at least eight weeks in some sport. The first award given is a school letter which requires six hundred points. The second award, a state letter, is given to each girl who has earned five hundred additional points. The final award is a gold pin with the letter "K" for which it is necessary to have a total of fourteen hundred points.

The officers elected by the club to serve for this year were Ruth Rains, president; Shirley Rhodes, vice-president; Maxine Overfield, secretary; and Kathryn Ewing, treasurer.

Due to the efforts of the club and Miss Elva Hughes, their sponsor, a great number of high school girls are participating in sports for health and recreation. Tennis is one of the more recent sports being enjoyed by the girls.

Rhodes, Raines, Miss Hughes (sponsor), Ewing, Overfield.

METRO

The youngest of the service clubs is the Metro. This by no means makes them inactive because they are among the busiest young men of the town. This year the Metro Club dressed up the park by painting all the equipment with the members themselves doing the painting. Most of the young men in the Metro Club have not been out of high school long themselves. This makes them very understanding of the feelings of young people.

PROGRESS BY JUNIOR G. R.

Top row: Baker, Hibbens, Coldwell, R. Callahan, A. Callahan, Whitehead, Cornett. Second row: Jardine, Whistler, Lane, Wahl, McNiel, Crocker, Post, Trumbly. Front row: Stewart, Hatfield, Debo, Belcher, Braden, Tole, Grant.

One of the few religious groups in our school, the Junior Girl Reserves, was organized in 1923 by Miss Gray and Miss Crocker and was, after the first few years of its existence, divided into two groups--the Blue Triangle and Blue Star Girl Reserves.

One of the big events of the year to all Girl Reserves is the Mother-Daughter Banquet, which was held this year April 8, at the Presbyterian church.

Every year around Christmas and Thanksgiving time, the girls collect food and prepare baskets for the less fortunate.

Each program during the year is carefully planned so that it will be worth while to all the girls. They have special music and guest speakers, who talk on both educational and enteraining subjects.

Much credit is due to the sponsors of the groups---Miss McNiel, Miss Wahl, Miss Crocker, and Miss Lane---for the success of the organizations.

The officers of the Blue Star Girl Reserves are Barbara Belcher, president; Billie Trumbly, vice-president; Lois Jardine, secretary; Betty Braden, treasurer; and Mary Ann Post, song leader.

For the Blue Triangle Girl Reserves the officers are Rosemary Callahan, president; Jacqueline Tole, vice-president; Diane Stewart, secretary; Alice Ann Callahan, treasurer; and LaRue Hatfield, song leader.

In this religious organization the girls learn many things which are of use to them now and will be in the future. They learn the need for friendship and how much more can be accomplished by working together.

CHARACTER IS OBJECTIVE

The Junior Hi-Y, under the leadership of Harold Campbell, has just completed its thirteenth year as a leading junior exponent of Christian ideas.

The entire theme of the club is expressed in its purpose: "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." The principles of the club can be expressed in four short phrases: "Clean speech, clean sport, clean scholarship, and clean living."

The club was founded in the fall of 1927 by Mr. L. O. Heckethorn. In 1937 Mr. Campbell succeeded Mr. Heckethorn as sponsor of the group. Each new member is elected on his personal merits by the old members in the club. For this reason the membership is usually limited to from 30 to 35 members.

Each year the members hold a weiner roast at which the newly elected members are initiated into the club. Also it is an annual custom of the club to prepare Christmas baskets. The Junior Hi-Y has an important part in the shaping of Christian ideas for the boys and preparing them for active service in the senior club, the Senior Hi-Y.

The officers this year were Clyde Osborn, president; Harry Lee, vice-president; Donald Black, secretary; Bill Webb, treasurer.

JUNIOR HI-Y

STRESS SPORTS IN JR. G. A. A.

For the eighth consecutive year, the Junior Girls' Athletic Association has been offered as an activity to junior high school girls. The purpose of the organization is to encourage and promote physical education and athletic activities among the junior high girls.

Awards are given which are based on a certain number of points which are given for organized activities which include basketball, volley ball, and swimming. The unorganized activities are skating, tennis, walking, horseback riding, and dancing.

A golden felt shield with the letters G.A.A. printed on it is awarded when a member has a total of four hundred points. A school letter of orange and black is given for an additional five hundred points. The third and final award is awarded when the member has acquired a total of fifteen hundred points.

Both a volley ball tournament and a basketball tournament were held this year for the members of the organization. The volley ball tournament was won by Louise Shadley's ninth grade team. The basketball tournament was not completed but Jacque Whistler's "Whizzes", also a ninth grade team, were ahead when the tournament ended. The team was composed of Jacque Whistler, captain; Alta Mae Baker, Bonnie Michael, Helen Walters, Barbara Belcher, Wynona Doss, Mary Dulohery, Diana Dunn, Jane Ellen Parshall, and Jerry Springer.

Officers of the organization for this year, 1939-40, were Barbara Belcher, president; Betty Braden, vice-president; Jean Hibbens, secretary; Billie Trumbly, treasurer; Mary Ann Post, song leader; Gwen Grant, pianist; and Mary Lou Whitehead and Jacque Whistler, cheerleaders.

JR. DRUM CORPS BIG SUCCESS

Attractive additions to their uniforms and appearance at all the home football games opened the second year of parading for the Junior high school Girls' Drum and Bugle Corps. Their debut was made in the fall of '38 at the last home football game of the season; this year in addition to the football games, the corps has marched in the Marine Band parade, Arbor Day parade, Boy Scout parade, and the fall and spring openings.

With their new white flannel jackets, blue pleated skirts, blue scarfs, blue caps, hose, and black shoes, the organization presents a striking picture in marching array.

The corps' commander-in-chief is Mary Ann Post; vice-commander, Barbara Belcher; secretary, Diane Stewart; and treasurer, Isobel Faurot.

The corps of 43 members from the seventh, eighth, ninth, and tenth grades is lead by two "twin" drum majors, Diane Stewart and Barbara Belcher; the twirling major is Phyllis Carroll. Dues are small and each girl bought her own instrument with the exception of a few buglers.

Wayne Adams and Leo Pitts assisted much in the training of the girls of the organization, while the activities of Miss Helen Lane as sponsor and Mr. Maurice Callahan as director have made the corps the success that it is today.

Instrumentation includes 23 snare drums, 13 bugles, 3 drum majors, 2 bass drums, and 2 cymbals.

Top row: Gross, Perry, Melton, Greer, Coldwell, Shadley, Etter, Post, Lightner, Willoughby, Morrison, Mason, Callahan, Donaldson.

Zero

Miss Cates: Working out this much of the problem shows you that X equals zero.

Bobby Parkins: Whew! All that work for nothing.

Confidence

Florine: Does Sue get her own way?

Isobel: Does she! She writes her own diary a week ahead of time.

New Approach

Bobby Lee (short of money): I say, Dad, have you any work you'd like me to do?

Father (taken by surprise): Why, no—but —er—.

Bobby: Then would you like to put me on the dole?

James Willoughby: Goodness, did you hatch all these chickens yourself?

John Fritz: Nope, I used an incubator.

Bill Todd: Gee, Peck, are you a baseball player?

Carl Peck: No, Bill, I'm not. In fact I know very little about the game.

Bill: That's funny. I heard Sis tell Ma that you were such a good catch.

Miss Todd: Your reports like this one of the accident should be written so that even the most ignorant person can understand them.

Student: Yes, mam. What part is it that you don't understand?

Miss Underhill: How would you define a picnic?

Sid Cox: A picnic is a day set apart to get better acquainted with ants, worms, mosquitos, chiggers, and poison ivy.

Smiles

Tourist: I'd hate to live in a town like this.

Denzell Jones: So would I, mister.

Tourist: Oh, then you're not a native?

Denzell: Not so's you can notice it. I live two miles west of here.

Even More Annoying

Mr. Friley: We have an office boy who whistles while he works.

Mr. Losey: You're fortunate. Our office boy just whistles.

Mr. Bevan: Can you describe your assailant?

John McGrath: Of course I can; that's what he hit me for—describing him.

Miss Burns: Johnny, what are the middle ages?

Jack Barnes: They used to be 35 to 50; now they're 50 to 70.

Karl E. (to prospective tenant): You know we keep it very quiet and orderly here. Do you have any children?

Harold Davis: No.

Karl: A piano, radio, or victrola?

Harold: No.

Karl: Do you play any musical instrument? Do you have a dog, cat, or parrot?

Harold: No, but my fountain pen scratches a little sometimes.

Earl Chaney: So you were graduated from a barber college. What was your college yell?

Junior Duncan: Cut his lip, cut his jaw, leave his face raw, raw, raw!

Manford Mitchell (poetically inclined): The night has a thousand eyes...

Mary Sue Hughes: Gracious, let me see if my nose is powdered.

SNAPS AND LAUGHS FOR RELAXAT

Pratically every town has one—A Chamber of Commerce. This organization is one to which belongs nearly every progressive business in our city. This club is made up of merchants and professional men who work together to keep Independence on the map. The Chamber of Commerce works for an ever increasing expansion of the trade territory of Independence.

Mrs. Anderson: "What part of speech is "I love mathematics?"
Irene McBride: "Sarcasm."

Visitor: "How many students do you have in this college?"
Mr. Stevens: "About one out of every 20."

Up-to-date: "Are my lips on nice and straight?"

Bill Lies: "I could die dancing with you."
Jeanne Sellers: "It's about killing me, too."

Miss Lewis: "In what battle did General Wolf, on hearing of their victory, cried, "I die happy"?
Bob Hille: "I think it was his last battle, mam."

Mr. Bevan is ready to give up after reading a Physiology quize paper turned in by one of his students, namely Dotson Sims:
"The human body is divided into three parts —the head, the chest, and the stummick. The head contains the eyes and brains-if any. The chest contains the lungs and a piece of liver. The stommick is devoted to the bowels, of which there is five—a,e,i,o, u, and sometimes w and y."

A man with six kids bought a dachshund so they could all pet it at once.

Evelyn Phyllis: "Let's dance, I cant stand sitting."
Oren Asmussen: "Well who can?"

The minister and his wife were being entertained at dinner. The voice of Donald could be heard from upstairs calling, "Mother!"
Mrs. Lolly: "What is it, Donald?"
Don: "There's nothing but clean towels in the bath room. Shall I start one?"

St. Peter: "Who's there?"
Voice: "It is I."
St. Peter: "Get out of here. We don't want any more school teachers."

Bald-headed prof standing in the sun: "Now let us cast no reflections."

Football is known familiarly as the pigskin game. Peggy McConnell thinks that this must be because it has so many rooters.

Two little urchins were watching a barber singe his customer's hair. "Gee," said one, "he's hunting 'em with a light."

A. Ingleman (the night of a play): "Bob, you can't go on like this! Never in my life have I seen anyone as drunk as you are."

Bob Gibson: "Have'n'y--hic! Just wait 'lly see my understudy!"

"Why, Bridget, how did you make such beautiful scollops in the edge of that mince pie?"

" 'Twas aisy to do mum. I just run me false uppers around it."

Scandal Exposed!

The ankle of a young lady was seen between the calf and the corn.

Early to Bed

Manager: "And now let me warn you that early hours are the rule in this store."

Kathyrn Ewing: "That's good, you can't close any too early for me."

Jack Norris: "My dear, I've just finished reading a book on 'The Wonders of Nature!' It's a remarkable work; it makes me think how insignificant man is."

Hope Judy: "Huh! A woman doesn't have to wade through 500 pages to discover that."

Peggy McGraw: "What does 'davenport' suggest to you?"

Van Peterson: "A city in Iowa."

Charge It

Agnes Regan: "I would like to open an account at this bank, please."

Clerk: "We shall be very glad to accommodate you. What amount do you wish to deposit?"

Agnes: "Oh, I mean a regular charge account such as I have at the department stores."

"Rollie" Wass is so dumb he thinks stagnation is a country for men only.

Cow (looking into silo): "I wonder if my Fodder is in there."

Pointer: If a fellow tries to kiss a girl and gets away with it, he is a man; if he tries and doesn't get away with it he's a brute; if he doesn't try but would get away with it if he tried, he is a coward; but if he doesn't try and wouldn't get away with it if he did, he is wise.

Harold Houx: "Didn't you say there was something you liked about me?"

Willie Carson: "Yes, but you spent it all."

Mr. Babcock: "Were you copying his paper?"

Walter McVey: "No sir. I was just looking to see if he had mine right."

Maxine Overfield: "I just heard a mouse squeak!"

Johnny Vermillion: "What do you want me to do, get up and oil it?"

Bridget had been discharged. Extracting a five dollar bill from her wage roll, she threw it to Fido. Then the shocked mistress heard her explain: "Sure, I never forgets a friend. Thanks for helping me wash the dishes.

Hille: "Do you ever allow a man to kiss you when you're out riding with him?"

Noel: "Never! If a man can drive safely while kissing me, he's not giving the kiss the attention it deserves."

Ace: "What's the best hand you ever held?"

Spade: "It belonged to a blonde in Hollywood."

Clifford Krone: "It says here, dad, that in olden days folks were pounced upon by outlaws."

Mr. Krone: "Yes, and in these days, folks are pounced upon by in-laws."

Man: "There is an office boy called Bill Baldridge working here. May I see him? I'm his grandfather."

Boss: "You've just missed him. He's gone to your funeral."

Charles Crane(at a riding academy): "I want to rent a horse."

Groom: "How long?"

Charles: "The longest you have. There are four of us going."

Of Course

Lady: "Don't you find that young folks brighten up the home?"

Friend: "Yes, our electric bills are enormous."

Clayton Goll: "Whenever I stand up to make a speech, I don't know what to do with my hands."

Mrs. Anderson: "Are you making a speech now?"

Mary B. Todd: "May I use your telephone?"

Neighbor: "Certainly. Is yours out of order?"

Mary B.: "Well, not exactly, but sister is using it to hold up a window, Ma's cutting biscuits with the mouthpiece, and baby is teething on the cord."

Slop Reesman: "It took me 12 lessons to teach her how to swim."

Bob Plummer: "Why, the little flirt; I taught her in six."

Vivan Emery: "How many beats are there to the bar in this piece of music, dad?"

Mrs. Emery: "Fancy asking a policeman a question like that. If you asked your daddy how many bars there were to the beat, he might be able to tell you."

Mrs. Calkins: "Well, son, what have you been doing this afternoon?"

Little Don: "Shooting craps."

Mrs. Calkins: "That must stop, those little things have as much right to live as we do."

A cute little lass approached the floor walker and asked, "Do you have notions on this floor?"

The floor walker looked her over and then remarked, "Yes, madam, but we suppress them during business hours."

Mr. Devore: "I've worked hard these fifty years, Dale, and I feel that it's time for me to turn the business over to you and retire."

Dale: "Ah, shucks, pop, why don't you work a little longer, and the both of us can retire?"

Ralph Sicks: "What's your man like Mossy?"

Charles Moss: "Left-handed, and keeps his change in his right-hand pocket."

Poor Business Deal

Judge: "Your first wife informs me you are three months behind with your alimony."

Man: "You're right, judge, this second wife of mine hasn't turned out to be any where near the worker I expected her to be."

GOING TO COLLEGE?

IF we all knew now what we will know in 1960 there would be NO reason or circumstance great enough to keep A SINGLE MEMBER of the CLASS of '40 from completing at least the 2 years offered by Independence Junior College.

Ask advice both from college graduates and those who did not go to COLLEGE and think it through. Your decision will be a source of either REGRET or SATISFACTION for the rest of your life.

Richard Dent went to the barber shop to get a haircut.

Barber: "How do you want your hair cut, little boy?"

Richard: "I want it cut just like daddy's, with a hole on top."

Mildred Sharp: "Whenever I get down in the dumps I buy myself a new hat."

Virginia Renner: "So that's where you get them."

Mrs. Banks: "After all, Buster is only a boy, and boys will sow their wild oats."

Mr. Banks: "I wouldn't mind if he didn't mix in so much rye."

Senior Toast

Here's to the faculty,
Long may they live;
Even as long,
As the lessons they give.

When a co-ed is asked for a kiss she often refuses out of sheer surprise.

Eloise Humphrey: "I thought you'd show me a good time at this dance."

Alex Haas: "Well, didn't you see that couple necking out on the front porch?"

John Reddy: "You've got a good pair of feet for dancing, haven't you?"

Agnes Regan: "You ought to know. You've danced all over them."

Her soft eyes gazed at the moon;
In the air she breathed a low tune;
He searched far and wide,
Then arrived at her side——
Bossy cow, in the warm month of June.

"Well, I've just lost another pupil, said the professor as his glass eye fell on the floor.

Dr. Choguill has put a sign on the chemistry lab door; "Your clothes eaten while you wait."

Coed: "Now that you've kissed me professor, what do you think?"

Prof.: "You'll fail. I'll need you in class next year."

Bill Simmons: "What are your views on kissing?"

Orma Lou: "I haven't any. I always shut my eyes."

Jog Allen (in class): "The next assignment will be pages 2, 5, 7, 9, and 11."

George Fowler (just waking up): "Block that punt!"

Gene Noble: "Did the honor system work well in your algebra class?"

Harold Houx: "Yes, until some darn sneak went out and squealed on us."

Chet and Billie had been sitting in the parlor for some time. The light was low. A voice came from the second story, saying:

"Young man, you may leave the house."

"Yes, sir," answered Chet, "I didn't mean to take it with me."

Warren Gaughan: "What is an echo?"
Jim Martin: "The only thing that can gyp a woman out of the last word."

Maxine Willoughby: "Something is preying on Jack's mind."
Oliver Slusher: "Don't worry, it will soon die of starvation."

"Mummie, I want to go to the zoo to see the monkeys."
"What an idea, Bobby! Fancy wanting to go and see the monkeys when your aunt Jane is here."

Porky Elliott: "Why are your clothes so dirty?"
Amos Asmussen: "Well on my way to school I tried to save a man from getting a licking."
Porky: "Who was the man?"
Amos: "Me."

It's a great wife if you don't awaken!

When a girl starts calling a boy "lamb," it means she is getting ready to pull the wool over his eyes.

Mr. Reppert: "When were the so-called dark ages?"
Betty Jo:"During the days of the knights."

"Confound you," roared the Colonel, "why don't you be more careful?"
"What do you mean sir?" faltered the army clerk.
"Why instead of addressing this letter to the Intelligence Office, you have addressed it to the Intelligent Officer. You ought to know there is no such person in the army."

Suspicious husband: "Who called this afternoon?"
His better half: "Only Aunt Sophie."
S. H.: "Well, she left her pipe."

When a fellow breaks a date he usually has to.
When a girl breaks a date she usually has two.

He was teaching her arithmetic
He said it was his mission
He kissed her once; he kissed her twice,
And said,"This is addition."

Ruth Baker: "Daddy, why do the old maids take the front seats in church?"

To Be Continued

"Is this, then, to be the end of our romance?" asked Harold Dodds.
"Oh, no," Virginia Bryan answered, "my lawyer will call on you in the morning. I have a bushel and a half of your letters."

Billy Lies and Buster Banks were retuning home at two a.m. one night—Said Buster, "That's funny."
Billy: "What's funny?"
Buster: "This match won't light."
Billy: "What's the matter with it?"
Buster: "I don't know, it lit alright a minute ago!"

Learn to Save and Save to Learn

Many people who have made a success in life tell us that the secret of their success was learning to save in their early years. Frequently we hear it said, " I started a Savings Account on which I hoped to complete my Education. Before I had finished school I found that I had learned how to save regularly and systematically and that saving money had become a habit. "

Start your Savings Account now, and have the satisfaction of knowing that you have learned one of the major lessons of life.

Friend: "So, you're setting up Jimmie in the bakery business?"

Mr. Martin: "Yes, he's so keen for dough, and such a swell loafer, that I'm sure he'll rise in the business."

Mr. Campbell: "I'm buying a washing machine for my wife, for a birthday present."

Mr. Friley: "That will be a surprise, eh?"

Mr. Campbell: "You bet! She's expecting a new car."

Billy Ditch: "A wing came off, and then another."

Peg McConnell: "T-then w-w-what did you do?"

Billy: "I polished off a drumstick and helped myself to some white meat."

Marilyn Houx: "A burgular broke into my old maid aunt's home last night."

Shirley Gaughan: "What did he get?"

Marilyn: "Out!"

Gene Noble: "I dreamed I was married."

Mrs. Noble: "Get up and get dressed."

Gene: "No, siree! I'm going back to sleep and get a divorce."

Glen Michal: "Tell me sir, what has become of your ethics."

Darrel Kessinger: "Oh sir, I traded it in on a Buick."

Foreman: "Excuse me, was that you singing?"

Evelyn Treger: "Yes, why?"

Foreman: "Well, next time you sing, don't stay on that top note so long; my men have already knocked off three times, thinking it was the noon whistle."

"Enough"

"Is a one pound box of candy an appropriate gift for my girl friend?"

"Yes, if she has no brothers."

Beryl Adams: "Dad, we learned at school today that the animals get a new fur every year."

Mr. Adams: "Be quiet. Your mother is in the next room."

Friend: "Why is Bertha Mae taking violin lessons? She is not a bit musical."

Mr. Patterson: "No, but she has such beautiful elbows."

Virginia Renner: "I'm bored to death. Take me someplace."

Chuck Crane: "But darling, its raining cats and dogs outside—"

Virginia: "Well, you won't be any better off if we stay inside—"

Chuck: "What do you mean?"

Virginia: "I'll get catty and treat you like a dog."

"City Girl"

Mary Shaw: "What is this stuff I've just eaten?"

Farmer: "Wow! It's poison ivy."

Mary Shaw: "Well, don't get excited, I'm not going to eat it."

Luther Banks: "What's that gurgling noise?"

Jean Brann: "I'm trying to swallow that line you're throwing."

Martha Brown: "Your boy friend is runing around with a blond."

Josie Steinberger: "That's alright—as long as he doesn't stop and park with her."

A girl met an old flame and decided to "high-hat" him.

"Sorry" she murmured, when the hostess introduced him to her, "I didn't get your name."

"I know you didn't," replied the old flame, "but you tried hard enough."

Women's faults are many,
Men have but two.
Everything they say—
And everything they do!

In the parlor there were three,
He, the parlor lamp, and she.
Three's a crowd, so no doubt,
That is why the lamp went out.

Mrs. Anderson (in Senior English class): "Duane, what do you know about Chaucer?"

Duane McKay: "Chaucer, that's my baby."

Hopefully

Kenneth Greene (calling): "Is this your parlor?"

Evelyn Hall (cozily): "Er-r yes; Father calls it the mush room."

Eloise Humphrey: "I think you should call your Ford 'the crap-shooter'."

Phillip Persky: "Why--the crap-shooter?"

Eloise: "Shake, rattle, and roll."

Jingle fenders, jingle frame, jingle all the way,
Oh, what fun it is to ride in a second hand Chevrolet.

Richard Dent: "Who's that homely looking girl over there "

Harold Houx (Angrily): "That's my sister."

Richard: "Boy! She sure can dance."

"Curtis Crum is so conceited."

"Yes, on his last birthday he sent a telegram of congratulations to his mother."

Said one rheumatism to the other, "Let's get out of this joint."

What Is Love?

Love is when a girl wearing a long white dress will ride to a formal in a fellow's rattle-trap, moth-eaten, dust-laden, topless automobile.

"I attended a small private wedding this morning."

"Really! Who was the best man?"

"I was— I didn't get married."

Wilma Whitlow: "My singing makes people say 'oh!' "

Betty Brewster: "Yes, they have to go to the doctor."

He: "My wife talks for hours on a given subject."

She: "Yes, you shouldn't have given me that fur coat."

Bob Drackert has such marvelous wind that they put him on the football team."

"As full back?"

"No, he blows up footballs."

Jack Bates thinks he is a musician just because he has drums in his ears.

Bob Hille (playing piano): "I don't know why, but this tune seems to haunt me."

Mr. Evans: "Naturally. You've murdered it."

Bob Meanor: "What is college bred, dad?"
Mr. Meanor: "They make college bread, my boy, from the flower of youth, and the dough of old age."

Mr. Toalson: "Don't I get any voice in the buyings?"
Mrs. Toalson: "Surely dearie, the invoice."

"A Tasty Dish"

Shirley Rhodes: "My feet burn like the dickens. Do you think a mustard bath would help?"
Marjorie Scott: "Sure! There's nothing better than mustard for 'hot dogs' ."

Bobby Gibson: "Dearest, am I the first man who ever held you in his arms?"
"Willie" Carson: "Yes, why of course. Why do you men always ask the same questions?"

Bob Hille: "Darling, your waist is the smallest I've ever seen."
Joan Noel: "Of 'corset' is."

Wise Guy: "Changing a tire, eh?"
Driver (Collins Fort): "No. I have a kindly disposition. I get out every few miles and jack it up to give it a rest."

Mr. Babcock: "What is your favorite book?"
Mr. Milligan: "Well, it has always been my bank book, but even that lacks interest now."

A young doctor, trying to be sentimental before a mother's club, said: "In all this world there is nothing as sweet as a little smile on the face of an upturned child."

Mrs. Anderson: "Alex, how old is your father?"
Alex Hass: "Thirty-eight, mam."
Mrs. Anderson: "Well, I see I must give you some homework more suited to his age."

Visitor: "And how old are you, Harold?"
Harold Dodds: "I'm just at the awkward age."
Visitor: "Really? And what do you call the awkward age."
Harold: "I'm too old to cry and to young to swear."

Boss: "Has any one seen Mr. Jones, the cashier, this morning?"
Clerk: "Yes sir, he came in early, with his mustache shaved off, and went out with a pocket full of railroad time tables."

Here is another one about a Scotchman. A Scot, leaving home on a business trip, called back to his wife and child,who were waving farewell from a window, "Goodbye all; an'dnna forget to take little Donald's glasses off when he nae looking at anything."

Duane McKay: "What do you think of my essay? Give your honest opinion."
Editor: "It's not worth anything."
Duane: "I know; but tell me anyway."

There was an old man of Nantucket,
Who kept all his cash in a bucket;
But his daughter, named Nan,
Ran away with a man;
And as for the bucket--Nantucket!

Mrs. Heckman: "Elizabeth dear, before you go to the party, you should wash your face and neck."
Elizabeth: "Neck whom, mama?"

Dick Strawn (budding author): "How much postage will this manuscript require?"

Clerk: "Three cents, it's first class material."

Dick: "Oh, thank you sir!"

Mrs. McConnell: "Peggy darling, you should not rub your nose with your spoon."

Peggy: "Oh, Mother, ought I to have used a fork?"

Miss Self and Miss Russell arrived at the football game just as the kick-off whistle blew. After ten minutes play, one team made a touchdown, and the same team kicked off again, whereupon Miss Self touched Miss Russell on the shoulder and said, "Let's go. This is where we came in."

Mr. Milligan (returning home at two a.m.): "Say, if my wife bawls me out I'm going to tell her a thing or two."

Mr. Evans: "Better tell her one thing and stick to it."

Virginia Thompson: "Did anyone ever tell you how wonderful you are?"

Dick Davis: "I don't believe so."

Virginia: "Then where did you get the idea?"

(Whose unusual tactics are being decidedly cramped):

"Do you know the difference between trying to kiss you and trying to kiss Dorothy "

(Who is slow but sure): "I'll bite."

"Exactly and she won't!"

Father: "No, I will not have my daughter tied for life to a stupid fool."

Suitor: "Then, sir, don't you think I had better take her off your hands."

Curtis Crum: "I can tell you just how much water, to the quart, goes over Niagara Falls."

Jack Bates: "Bet'cha can't—how much?"

Curtis: "Two pints. "

Reporter: "Do your men get up bright and early?"

"Jog" Allen: "Just early."

Mr. Brown: "What type of man is this new boy friend of yours?"

Martha: "Well he's always wanted a good home."

Mr. Brown: "That sounds promising."

Martha: "Yes, he says he likes ours."

First Farmer: "Hang it all! I wish I could get more milk to sell."

Second Farmer: "Where there's a well, there's a way."

Buddy Sands (seeking sympathy): "I am just a poor boy trying to get ahead."

Mr. Smith: "Well that's fine, you certainly need one."

John Wyckoff: "Yes sir, I've come out here to make an honest living."

Native: "Well, you won't have much competition."

Berta Buckles: "I'd like for you to come over and have dinner with me."

Mrs. Anderson: "Thank you, Berta, but your classwork is already satisfactory."

First Mosquito: "Why are you making such a fuss?"

Second Mosquito: "Whoopee! I just passed the screen test."
