The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial data. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses and income. The document provides a detailed explanation of how to categorize these transactions and how to use a double-entry system to maintain the accounting equation.

The second part of the document focuses on the preparation of financial statements. It outlines the steps involved in calculating the net income for a period and how to present this information in a clear and concise manner. The document also discusses the importance of comparing the current period's performance with that of the previous period to identify trends and areas for improvement.

The final part of the document addresses the issue of closing the books at the end of the accounting period. It explains how to transfer the balances of the temporary accounts to the permanent accounts and how to prepare the closing entries. The document concludes by emphasizing the importance of regular audits and reviews to ensure the accuracy and reliability of the financial statements.

Foreword

“Hands” is the theme of this book. Hands are very necessary, for little is accomplished without them. With our hands we strive for many things. . . mental, physical, material, spiritual. . . all for perfection.

What your hands have achieved are recorded in the pages of this book; achievements in sports, honors, organizations. . . all phases of school life. What your hands will achieve in the future is unwritten. In the years to come, let us all strive to succeed in whatever we undertake to do, working not only with our hands but with our heart and mind.

Today we are outcasts of society because we are too (meaning too much)

Sophisticated for the average run of friends

But just the same no matter how awful and mean we both are and How much we act like some body instead of like NO body I am still proud to know you (I don't care if your noise is high) and I like to be with you because you are a good friend and a good Ratchet so until next year high hat Take what you want
