The Orange and Black

What's Behind the Curtain

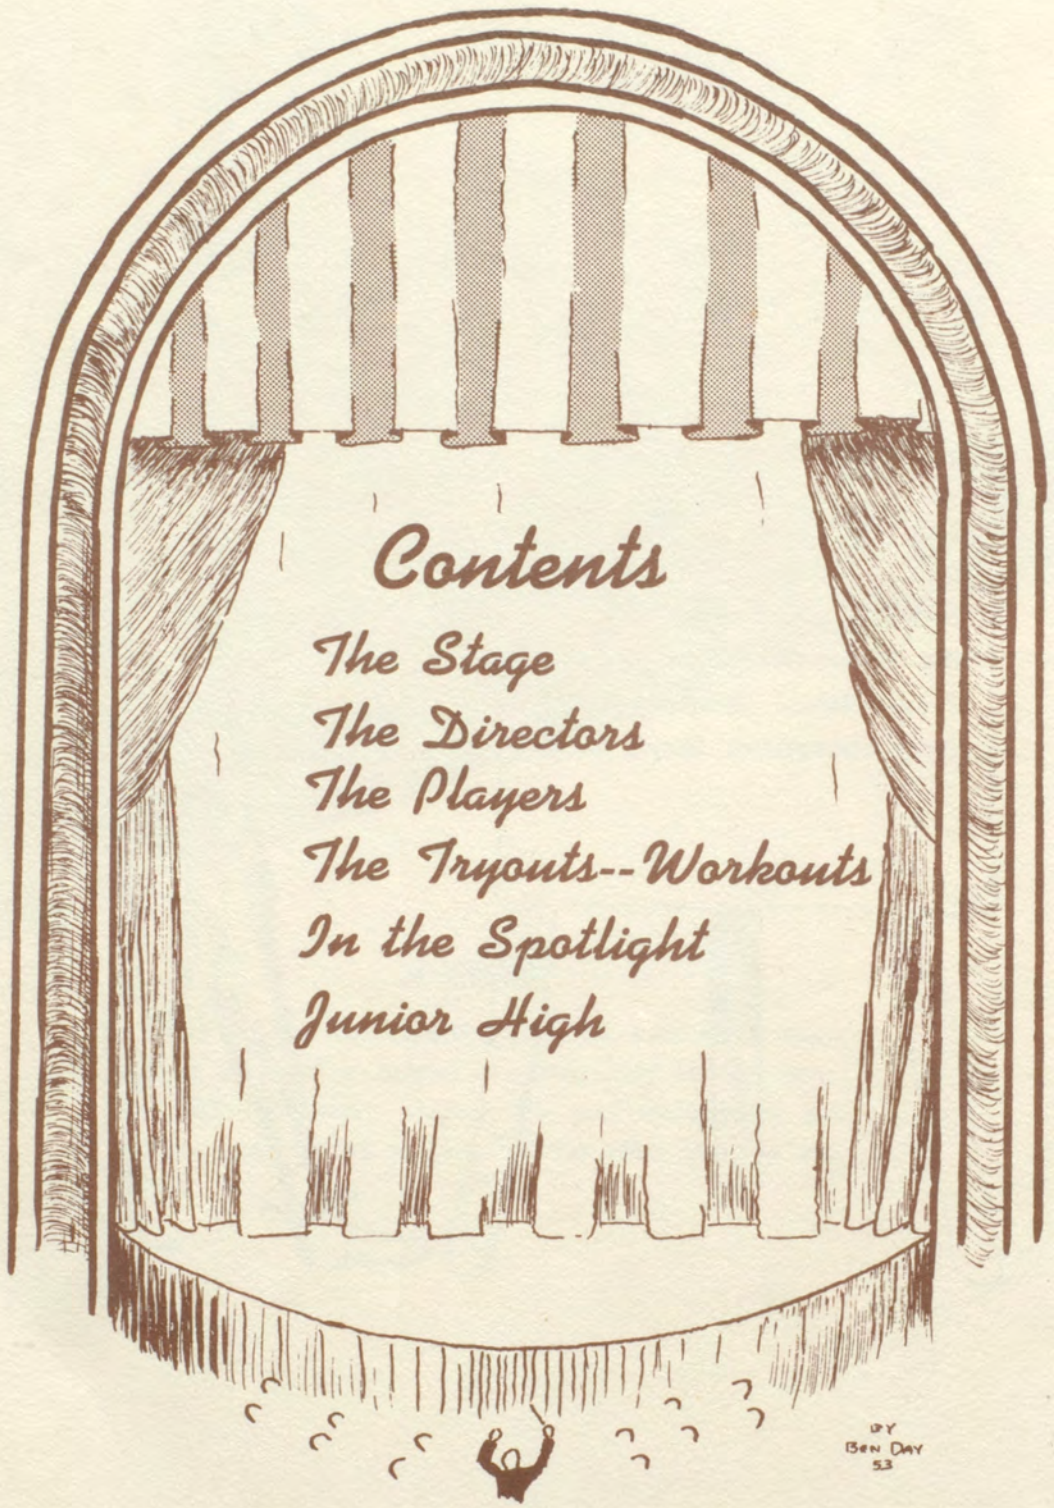

FOREWORD

As "all the world's a stage and the men and women merely players" so school is a stage and the students and faculty merely players. To portray student activities such is the purpose of the 1953 Orange and Black.

Miss Orr

The school library has been a very busy place lately. Junior college students have been gathering material for their term papers. The high school students have been checking out books in preparation for their book reports.

Mr. Clark

Drawing in Mr. Clark's drawing classes has been confined to the very delicate field of sign drawing. Although their time is largely spent in drawing, they keep in very close contact with their text books and workbooks. The tests and instructions are taken from these books.

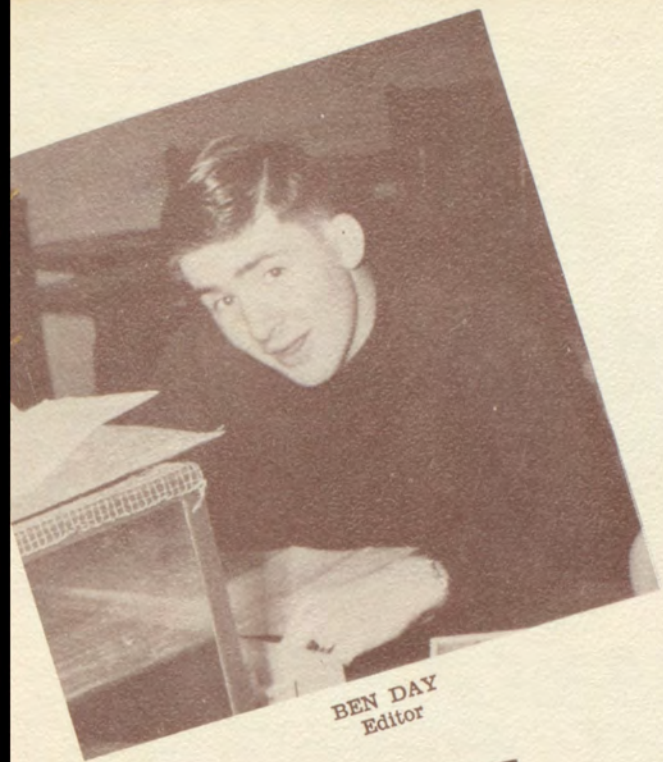

Mr. Bedwell

A very interesting course, offered in our junior college, is one called slide rule and it comes under the instruction of Mr. Lonnie Bedwell, who meets his class one hour a week.

During the 1952-1953 school year, the Junior College-Senior High Drum and Bugle Corps has firmly held its position among the outstanding school organizations. The girls made their first appearance of the year at the Shrine Parade held in Independence.

Other performances this year included the annual Fall Opening, half-time drill of the Independence-Arkansas City junior college football game, half-time drill at Neodesha, participation in the coronation drill of the Coffeyville football queen, and Santa Clause parades both in Independence and Neodesha.

The social events included an annual chili supper at Hillcrest, a Christmas party and gift exchange at the home of the director, Mr. Mordy, and the annual spring formal on April 10. The spring formal was held at the Elks Club with Dick Dotts and his Four Dashes. A Hawaiian theme was carried out for the dance.

In February, the Corps sponsored a basket exchange among the girls which netted a neat sum for the treasury. The treasury has been further replenished by sales at the concession stand at basketball games, and the assistance of sales of March of Dimes bangles.

At present there are 33 members in the corps. The officers this year are Norma Cooley, commander; Elizabeth Gaines, vice-commander; Beverlie Benson, secretary-treasurer; Sandra Sue Wren, drum major.

Much credit for the success of the Drum Corps should be given to their sponsor, Miss Mary Self, and their director, Mr. Lloyd Mordy. These two have given of their time, effort, and ability unstintingly that the Drum Corps might be an organization of which I.J.C. and I.H.S., and in fact, the entire community may be justly proud.
