THE 1964 TRAILBLAZER is a two-fold dedication. First and foremost, it is dedicated to Miss Joyce Wentz, who has faithfully served the Atchison school system the past 40 years as supervisor of music in the elementary schools. In this capacity, she has started practically every child in our city on the path to the appreciation of good music. As her departing message to the townspeople, before her well-deserved retirement, she said that she hoped every child will continue to enjoy and participate in music to his greatest capacity and to learn the skills of musical performance.

Our second dedication is to the rebuilding of our city. We may now point with pride to the many improvements which have made our hometown second to none in beauty. Future generations to graduate will see even greater advancements to the city we will always remember as our original school home.

The Board of Education Building.

Board of Education

One of the most cordial of relationships exists between the schools, townspeople and the board.

The men chosen for the tremendous job of providing the best in an outstanding educational program are tops in their respective fields, along with an intelligent, dedicated woman member of the board.

Atchison may well point with pride to a board second to none in the country.

Superintendent of Schools

DR. WAYNE W. FRAZER

Dr. Frazer began his duties as superintendent of schools the same year the present graduation class began it's tenure of study at Atchison High School, so he has had a special interest in following the progress of the students. Then, too, it is the year his son, Gary, completed his years of study and received his diploma.

MR. GEORGE McLENON
treasurer

Dr. Frazer is not only an outstanding superintendent, but an enthusiastic civic leader as well. He served as president of the Chamber of Commerce while many great strides were being made in Urban Renewal.

Right: Mrs. Pankey is the very efficient Secretary to the superintendent.

MRS. BETTIE PANKEY
secretary

JUNIOR HIGH PRINCIPAL
VAN N. HURST

SENIOR HIGH PRINCIPAL
LEO M. DENNY

The monumental job of the making such a large institution of learning run smoothly is largely placed on the shoulders of these two capable men. They not only meet the challenges of modern-day education but they also know personally all those students who will be going out to confront those challenges. Both Mr. Denny and Mr. Hurst are highly respected in the community of Atchison as well as at Atchison High School.

MRS. DORA McCOOLE AND MRS. JUSTINE THOMAS

What good would a school be without an efficient office staff? Someone has to keep the wheels moving and it is to these two splendid women that the plaudits are given. Mrs. Dora McCoolle, left, handles the financial end of the work while Mrs. Justine Thomas takes care of the secretarial duties for the two principals.

The school is losing Mrs. McCoolle, the former Dora Myers, to a housewifery career. With her goes the best wishes of everyone connected with AHS and they know she will make the same success in her new field as she did here.

In Memoriam

Born Nov. 27, 1946

Marie Dyer

Died June 9, 1964

Now we have reached the final point to which we may go at AHS. We are thinking of the things that lie ahead in the future but it's an opportune time to take a look at some of the events that happened during our four wonderful years.

During our freshman year we groped along until the routine of high school was no longer a battle. Phil Lenz, Gary Frazer, Terry Edwinson, Pam Thomas, Nancy Footit, Libby Lentz and Kay Wagner were home-room presidents. We participated in many activities which proved ourselves to the upperclassmen. Linda Bell was a majorette in the band and Dorothy Draper, Janet Meyer, Sara Townsend, Judie Craig and Barbara Teschner participated in the White Chapel Bell Choir.

Our frosh football team earned proud compliments from the coach, Mr. Smith, by winning every game of the season. Neal Smith and Terry Edwinson served as co-captains for the team. The girls shouting "Go, Big Green!" were Libby Lentz, Kay Wagner, Barby Feldman and Mary Kim Buckley. Libby and Terry Edwinson reigned over the annual sports dance that year.

We were 178 strong, not only active in sports but also in the A-Club, Kayettes, Modern Dance and other musical groups.

Finally we passed from underclassmen to upperclassmen and we started off with a boom. We built the winning Homecoming float and David Hiner was elected Trailblazer chief. We were represented on the B-team cheerleading squad by Linda Bell, Barby Feldman and Kay Wagner.

When class elections were held for the next year we really had our chance at politics. Elected were David Heck, president; Dick Paste, vice-president; Sue Hibler, secretary and Barbara Spears, treasurer. Many of our classmates took part in the all-school play. Carol Scholz did a fine job in the "Miracle Worker" and Barbý Feldman was excellent as Anne in "The Diary of Anne Frank." Those inducted into the honor society were Linda Bell, Mary Kim Buckley, Carolyn Carr, Barby Feldman, Gary Frazer, Mignon Griffith, David Heck, John Wisniewski and Karen Yost.

In the fall of 1962, our junior football players worked hard, giving much promise of things to come. Pete Enich, Stan Spinner, Paul Griffin and Neal Smith helped the basketball team to a record year. Carol Scholz and Kay Wagner were enthusiastic varsity cheerleaders and again we won the Homecoming float competition.

Barby Feldman and Elaine Walczak took leads in the all-school play our junior year. Jeff Wainscott, Barby and Carolyn Carr added strength to our debate team and won many awards.

The prom, our going-away present to the seniors was one AHS will never forget. Decorated in the theme of a Roman Holiday, it was said to be one of the most beautiful ever to be presented in the history of the school.

Jeannie Irvin, a junior, served as our Trailblazer editor. Janice Hoecker, Marie Dyer, Carol Janden, Susan Beckman, Terry Wells, Susan Moore and Sara Townsend were inducted into the National Honor Society.

We finally made it! With our heads held high, we became the proud seniors of AHS.

We started off with a bang by winning for the third straight year, the Homecoming float contest.

Class officers were Libby Lentz, president; David Heck, vice-president; Elaine Walczak, secretary and Gary Wohlgenuth, treasurer. Jeff Wainscott took command as student council president.

In athletics we started off by bringing the first football co-championship (league) to our school. Terry Wells, team captain, was elected to first team all-state. In basketball we finished a very respectable third in the league. Pete Enich won the league scoring championship and also a berth on the all-state team. Later it was announced that Pete had been selected to the All-American high school squad. Mark Paris, Hugh Mitchell, and Dave Hiner did a fine job on the gymnastics team, which won the league championship for the second year in a row. Cliff Bratton made a fine showing for AHS at the state track meet.

Pretty, petite Susan Marlatt reigned as Homecoming queen. She was attended by Kay Wagner, Mignon Griffith, Marie Dyer and Linda Bell. Cindy Tilson represented AHS at the annual Halloween Festival in Hiawatha. Linda Bell served as head cheerleader, along with Kay Wagner, Susan Marlatt, and Carol Scholz. Marie Dyer was elected president of Kayettes while Don Jensen led the Kays. A-club president was Linda Bell and Lynn Laurie headed the Pep Club. Mary Kim Buckley and Gary Frazer reigned over the Winter Festival and attending them were: Bette Henry, Bob Eillott, Gary Candreia and Nancy Lillard.

Barbara Feldman, Jeff Wainscott, Marlin Frakes, Bob Elliott, Mike Shook, Jayne Guthery, Terry Edwinson and Janet Meyer were excellent performers in the annual Senior play, "Wuthering Heights." They continued their excellence into the debate and speech world by capturing a trophy at the state speech tournament and many other awards in other competition bringing to a close one of the greatest debate years in the history of the school.

Awards were also won by members of the BECK (Business Education Club) at the convention in Emporia. Winning first place awards were Susan Beckman, Marlin Frakes and Elaine Walczak. Bob Behrend, Carol Maycroft and Carol Jansen brought back second and third place awards. Honorable mention went to Lola Barthel and Bertha Christian.

National Honor Society inductees were Lola Barthel, Jayne Guthery, Sue Hibler, Libby Lentz, Janet Meyer, Pam Thomas and Cindy Tilson.

Superior ratings were won at the district musical contest by the senior girls woodwind, Mary Kim Buckley with a flute solo and Linda Bell in a violin quartet. Mary Kim, Mignon Griffith, Dorothy Draper, Libby Lentz and Helen Cave made up the flute choir which received a superior rating. All the other musicians received a fabulous trip to Enid, Oklahoma, to perform in a large band festival. In vocal music, Barbara Spears and Dorothy Draper received II's for their performance at the district contest.

Editors of the school paper, the Optimist, were Janice Hoecker, Phil Lenz and Terry Wells. Chuck Sacks was co-editor of the Trailblazer.

We can never forget the kid day activities or the wonderful time we had at the junior-senior picnic.

It is with great pleasure that we recall these pleasant memories of the years at the wonderful school on the hill, AHS. We will be part of the history forever and needless to say, it will be a part of our hearts for the rest of our lives.

There are things in our lives which are easily forgotten and which time dims. However, there is something about old school ties which remain with us. Perhaps at times they lie dormant, but now and then they are bound to spring up and give us a lift—perhaps when we are at our lowest ebb. No matter what we think or care to think, there are no memories so refreshing as our school years.

Presented By THE SENIOR CLASS

Is OUTSTANDING DRAMATIC TREAT

Hindley and Isabella

Ellen, Isabella and Joseph

Heathcliff (Jeff Wainscott)

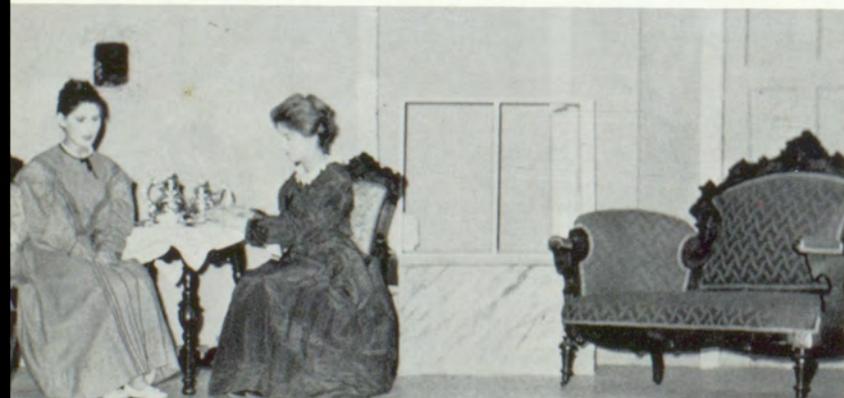

Isabella and Catherine

Hindley and Ellen

Members of the cast.

Catherine and Isabella

Isabella and Joseph argue a point.

Catherine Linton (Barbara Feldman) and Hareton Earnshaw (Bob Elliott) defy Heathcliff.

Edgar Linton (Marlin Frakes) pays court on Catherine Earnshaw, while Ellen Dean (Jayne Guthery) gives her views of the match.

Joseph (Mike Shook) is displeased with the entire family.

Isabella shown in an angry tirade.

Heathcliff (Jeff Waincott) points an accusing finger at Hindley Earnshaw (Terry Edwinson).

Heathcliff dares Hindley to pull the trigger.

Kid Day

The Junior-Senior Prom and Picnic

The theme of "Around the World in 80 Days" was beautifully carried out in decorations and booths.

Girls looked beautiful in the long formals and the boys never looked so spruced-up as they did in their dress clothes.

Don and Linda choose a cool spot under a tree to eat their lunch.

Commencement

Senior High School Student Council

We introduce you to the fine group of young people who represented the student body in its wishes concerning school policies and service projects. Perhaps the greatest contribution made during the 1963-4 school year was the American Field Service drive. Through the hard work, the school is assured a foreign student next year.

The three angels plan their strategy.

Marie Louise (L. Chew) swoons when she hears her betrothed is engaged to another.

MEMBERS OF the cast: Schwein, Nye, Kuhn, Filley, Chew, Winegardner, McDaniel, Krusemark, Symns and Bridges, take a curtain bow.

The lieutenant (Dave Winegardner) takes time out behind stage for a spot of tea.

Marie Louise (Linda Chew) adds a bit of dash to Paul, (Don Bridges) her romantic interest in the play.

Some Pictures We Thought You Would Enjoy

LaJoie Visits

Kirk and Cass enjoy clean-up day.

What ho! The Beatles, no less.

—And then there were the Beatles—Good for a laugh.

—And I said that was that!

Dental Day dismays dozens!

Assembly Performer Fire-Eater West

in the Years to Come

Mr. Carrier "shows off" a hundred year old talking machine to his science students.

One of the most popular events of the year—dressup day.

Mr. Thomas shows what happens to a student not turning in a notebook!

The first cold day of the year brings out coats but no hats!

Barby finds a good spot where she can study a speech.

Chuck loves to clown.

Libby talks over old times with Anne Mize, a former student.

Neater, perhaps, but not as much fun as student-filled.

Juniors Serve as County Officers for a Day

Among the Atchison High School juniors serving in the capacity of county officers were Vicki Wheeler (probate judge); Mary Lou Marple (treasurer); Don Bridges (sheriff); Pam Kiehl (judge of the city court) and Linda Vance, Mike Randall, Ron Estes and Cass Thompson (county commissioners). Other students were present from Maur Hill, Mount St. Scholastica academy and Atchison County Community High School (E-fingham).

Open House for Parents

It is always a pleasure to welcome our parents to the school (although we always go along with the act of not acting interested).

This year, parents attended ten-minute sessions in each of the classes attended by their boys and girls.

Queen Cynthia Tilson

Cynthia Tilson, senior, reigned at the annual Hiawatha Halloween Festival. It was the 49th year the event has been enjoyed by men, women and children in the area and Cynthia was chosen from candidates representing 19 schools.

Twirp Week

The Twirp dance is always one of the most popular events of the school year (besides it's the one time of the year when the girls pick up the tab and treat their young men to dancing, eating and a show.) The festivities close on Sunday when girls escort their dates to the church of his choice.

This year Terry Edwinson was King of the Twirps and his escort was Gayleen Haeffle. Mrs. John Smith crowned the popular senior.

Winter Formal

Using as its theme "Our Winter Love," the annual dance turned out to be one of the biggest hits of the year. King Gary Frazer and Queen Mary Kim Buckley reigned over a joyful court.

President of the local chapter of the American Field Service, the Rev. C. F. Stolz, watches one of the activities during the evening of the festival, held at the AHS auditorium and gym.

The evening of the festival was enjoyed by entire families, who came early and stayed until the doors were closed. Every organization, club and many individuals contributed time toward bringing a foreign student to our town.

Trailblazer Chief and Brave Crowned at Last Home Basketball Game

Fogler, Chamberlin, Dudley, Dickson and Foudray.

Every year a Trailblazer chief and brave are chosen from the senior and junior high school. This year Ken Chamberlin, junior, won the highest honor of chief and Ralph Dudley won the junior high school distinction. Hail to our mighty men, Redmen, that is!

Other candidates for the honor were Bob Fogler, senior, Jerry Hedrick, sophomore, Bob Foudray, eighth grader and Mark Dickson, seventh grade. All received a commendable number of votes and the boys in the junior high will be looking toward future years for the honor.

Members of the OPTIMIST staff took part in a great moment in the history of Atchison—the rebuilding. Following a flood several years back, and through Urban Renewal, the entire downtown area has been completely rebuilt.

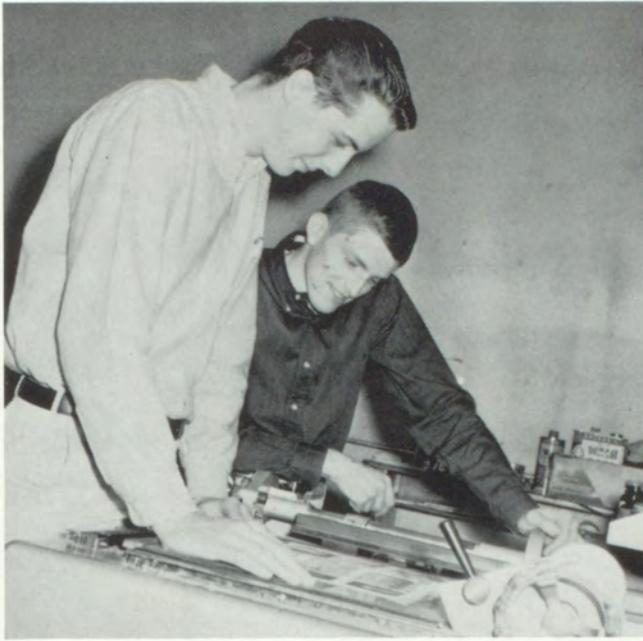

In the lower picture, Mayor Alfred Mangelsdorf is shown talking to members of the staff during one of their early morning "inspections." Pictured with Atchison's mayor are: Gerald Matthews, Bing Biffinger, Pete Enich, Pam Eisele, Janne Byers, Linda Steele, Lois Martin, Jeannine Kiehl, Karen Ford, Carol Scholz and Verna Fowler.

Three honors for excellence in journalism were awarded the Atchison High school paper in the 44th annual high school newspaper contest of the KU William Allen White School of Journalism.

The Optimist won first in make-up in the offset division, honorable mention for retail advertising and recognition in the miscellaneous division for its special supplement for the debate tournament held at the school.

The class set a goal the first week of school, hoping to make a good showing in the contest. The three wins were beyond their expectations but most welcome!

Tuning up for contests. This is always a big event at AHS and students spend hours, under the direction and encouragement of their instructor, Mr. Trent, in perfecting their chosen selections.

OFFICERS TO serve school next year: Sappington, Adams, Michaels, Kelly, Underwood, Wheeler and Marshall.

Members of the flute choir who performed many times during the year, and were well received.

Right: Who will ever forget the thrill of watching the band come down the street? It is at this time that the pride in school, town and everything we love zooms up to a 100 per cent! Our bands have always been an outstanding part of our school life and we hope that it will always be so.

Mary Kim Buckley, Carolyn Taylor, Janice Hoecker, Kay Wagner and Nancy Lillard. This senior woodwind quintet won superior rating at the district contest and played at commencement.

Ever wonder why our band's so good? It's those early morning practices which keep all members on their toes.

Janet Marshall and Janice Hoecker discuss summer plans.

Right: Cheryl Carruthers marks time up to the very door of the music room when returning from an early morning practice.

Mr. Tent entertained a famous guest artist, Reginald Kell, at a music clinic early in the winter.

Were we ever proud of our drum majorettes! Linda Bell, center, head, flanked by Candy Adams and Linda Tharp.

Outstanding music awards: Linda Bell, Barbara Spears and Dorothy Draper.

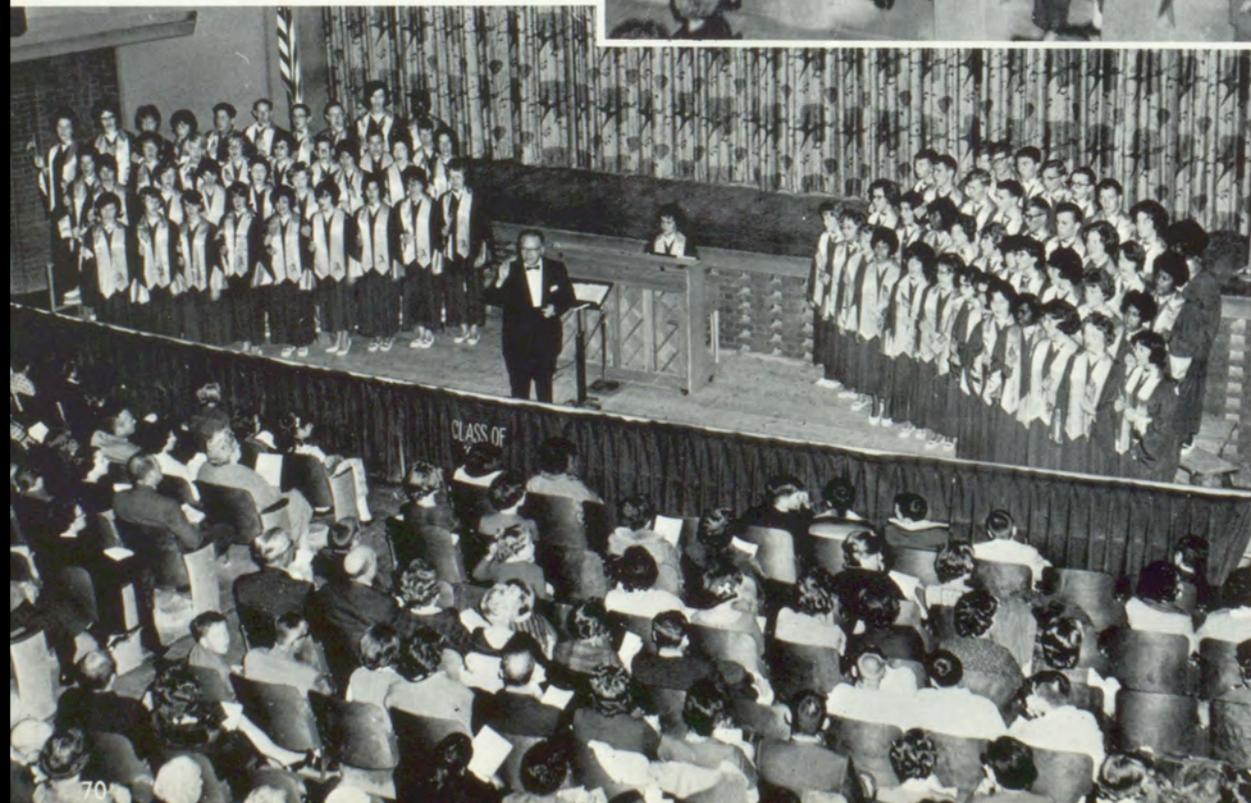

Vocal Choirs

Mr. Roark proudly presents Red and Gold Choir and Junior and Senior High Madrigals at a stirring program.

The motif used during the spring presentation was patriotic and among the large crowd attending were representatives of all the patriotic organizations in the city. Their spontaneous applause proved that the long hours of preparation was well worth the effort.

Members of the art department contributed toward the beauty of the scenery.

Red and Gold Choir

The Soloists are praised in any performance but behind every high school musical presentation there is always the chorus. So many times it is overlooked by everyone except proud parents of someone in the back row! Not so with the outstanding choruses of Mr. Roark. Each person taking part in his programs is a soloist in his own way. Students are trained in such a way that they perform like real professionals and this is why there are always large crowds at a chorus program.

When the Red and Gold Choir and Chorus III makes an appearance, Atchison townspeople, faculty members and students are in for a treat because these young people are note-perfect.

The pirate king (Rick Schwein) sings a stirring song while under the watchful eyes of the sergeant of police (Ron Bridges) and his trusties.

One of the most popular songs of the operetta, "I Am The Very Model of a Modern Major-General," sung by Bob Krusemark as the major-general.

Mabel (Cherie Shuck) tells of her love for Frederic, a pirate, while the police stand at attention.

Below: Mabel and Frederic pour out their hearts in a love duet.

"When A Felon's Not Engaged in His Employment" sung by the police.

THE PIRATE KING, (Rick Schwein), sings a stirring song while under the watchful eyes of the sergeant of police (Ron Bridges) and his trusty men.

Frederic (Ken Nye) learns he is still indentured to the pirates as he was born on leap year and has actually only observed five birthdays instead of 21.

Library Assistants

No group of young women in the school receive more efficient training than those chosen to help in the library. No individual is more capable of training these students than their sponsor, Miss Anna Huebert.

It is no small job doing the hundreds of jobs required of a library staff. Not only must the routine requirements be met each day, but there is always a new problem or two springing up.

Atchison High school may well point with pride to an attractive library as well as an efficient one. Miss Huebert and her assistants keep up-to-date bulletins, art displays and a most beautiful supply of house plants and floral arrangements. Even those unfortunate students having to serve a seventh hour now-and-then must admit that their servitude is spent in a pleasant atmosphere!

The years of 1963-64 were excellent ones in that the squad did a fine job of trophy-collecting. They won a first in the Topeka West tourney; first in Shawnee Mission and Highland Park; fourth in Washington (Bethel); third in Washburn Rural; second in the Centennial League. At Shawnee Heights they won a first and at Platte City, Mo., third. In Abilene, the National Forensic, they won third; at the National Forensic state, a fourth; at Wichita, a fourth; at Rosedale, a second and at the Class AA District, a third.

The squad also performed in seven demonstrations for the public and responded for five classroom programs.

It is with a great deal of pride that coach Ron Shafer doffs his hat to as fine a group of debaters to have ever spoken from the stage of, not only our school, but others as well.

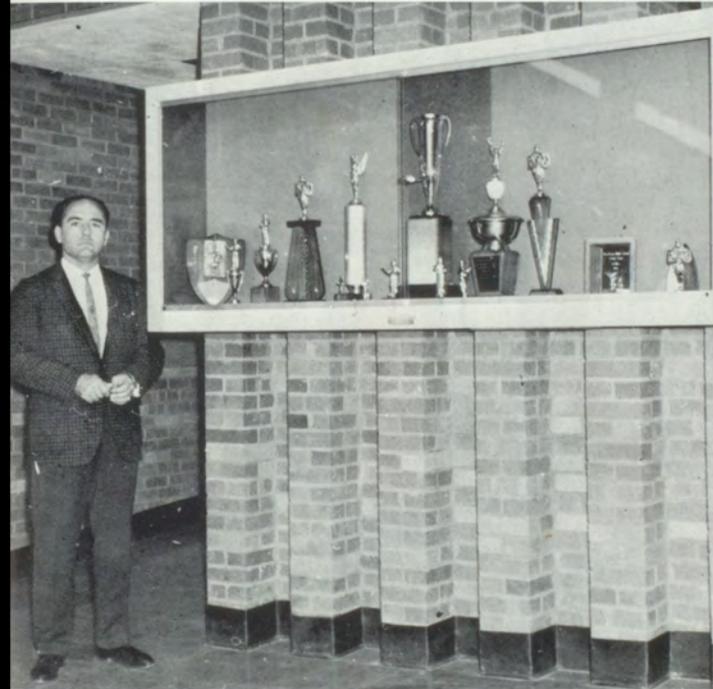

Seniors who debated or took part in speech tournaments were: Jeff Wainscott, Barbara Feldman, Russell Rude, Carolyn Carr, Mark Paris, Jayne Guthery, and Janet Meyer. Although their faces will be missed when pictures are taken next year, they have left pleasant memories of many happy times. The group left to continue the work, so well done, will carry on the tradition of excellence.

Girls Presentation

An assembly, always sure to please, was the 1964 presentation of the Senior Modern Dance club. The theme, "Broadway" was featured in its many facets—glamour, excitement, tragedy and naturally the Great White Way. Group numbers included a sightseeing tour, a night club and a stroll in Central Park.

Featured soloists were Candy Adams, Linda Bell, Mary Kim Buckley and Mignon Griffith. Mignon, manager of the events, was ably assisted by junior dance managers, Barbara Mize, Lynn Widick and Vicki Wheeler.

Development of grace and poise in movement plus enjoyment are the main objectives of Modern Dance.

Senior High Pep Club

These are the girls who see to it that the cheering section is always kept at a fever pitch—especially during those exciting football and basketball games. It just wouldn't be the same without the enthusiasm of this club. The past year was especially noteworthy in that it hit a new high in that great school spirit feeling. Any student or towns person attending games will agree that this was the year of years in good school spirit. No matter whether the teams won or lost, the spirit of winning was there until the final whistle. Just as the teams give their all during the time of play, so do the cheerleaders and their fellow members "play the game."

"B" Team Cheerleaders

Kayettes, Atchison High

An organization which stresses service to the school and which lives up to its goal. From the very beginning of school, when members assist with registration until the closing day, Kayette girls and their sponsors, Mrs. Buckley, Mrs. Schletzbaum, Mrs. Stanton, Miss Fargo and Miss Eskeldson, take on many duties and see them through to the finish.

It is in this group that girls learn the meaning of responsibility and its obligation.

Officers for the year were: Marie Dyer, president; Linda Tate, v.-p.; Gayleen Haeffele, sec. and Janice Hoecker, treasurer.

Artists

Libby Lentz did some fine textile designing.

No one can be around the school long without discovering the great amount of talent in the art department. It is here that Walter Yost and Fred Anderson guide the artistic into a wonderful world of beauty. No men are more capable of instilling an appreciation of everything artistic.

Here Mr. Yost is presenting awards to Don Huff, left, and Dave Hiner, center, for work they submitted to a contest during the year.

Wells was selected on the All-State team, as was Enich. Wells, captain of the team, was also selected as the player contributing most to the team during the 1963 season.

Seniors Farewell Performances

Many of the boys who played their last game against Leavenworth, the night of the great win, had started out their high school football career together in junior high. They were also champions at that time and set a goal to give the best they had to the sport. They did just that. Every boy on the team played to win and the victory proved that it was a dedicated team that played that night.

Their will be many other great teams to hold up the Atchison banner, but none more thrilled than the 1964 squad.

Terry Wells, captain and first team, all state. He was elected the outstanding football player by members of the "A" club; Pete Enich was elected the all-sports award and Clifford Bratton, the track award.

The Victory Banquet

Terry Wells, captain of the team, says words of praise for the coaches, players and everyone responsible for the good year of football.

Coach Ivan Schottel, formerly of Atchison, was guest speaker at the victory dinner, held at Thompson's.

Right, Mr. Carrier addresses guests and players. While he did a great job, himself, he gave an unselfish salute to the team and backers. He also stressed the importance to the team of the boys who didn't play but were always at practice and enthusiastic for their team.

Left: The team is proud of its coach, Mr. Manning, who has guided them through two successful Centennial wins.

Track

The Atchison High School track team enjoyed a fine year as they finished fifth in the tough Ottawa relays, fourth in the equally tough Atchison relays, fifth in the class AA regionals, second in the Centennial league and capped a fine season by finishing ninth in the class AA state meet.

Spearheading this brilliant effort was one of the state's better track men—Clifford Bratton. This speedy young man won three events (100-yd. dash, 200-yd. dash and 440-yd. dash) in almost every meet. He also garnished all the Atchison points at the state meet.

Bratton broke the school 440 record with an outstanding: 49.7 clocking at Manhattan.

MEMBERS OF THE JUNIOR HIGH TRACK TEAM

Seventh and Eighth Grade—Chorus

Some of the outstanding programs throughout the year are presented by the choral groups, under the direction of Mr. Roark. These young people spend hours in preparation and when they take their places on the stage, Atchison residents are in for a treat.

Especially well received is the annual Christmas program and surely ranking along with it the spring musical treat. The selections of numbers is always varied enough that everyone hears favorites.

From the groups of young singers come the students who later take part in the popular operetta, a highlight of the school year.

No sounds are sweeter than those heard coming from Mr. Roark's music room.

Freshman Girls' Ensemble

MEMBERS OF THE FRESHMAN GIRLS' Ensemble: Linda Bahr, Carolyn Bierbaum, Mary Chew, Linda Denton, Toni Disque, Julie Erwin, Patricia Farr, Karen Henninger, Susan Irons, Judy Jones, Reel Jones, Jeanne Kamp, Ann Marshall, Shirley Seever, Ann Shell, Marilyn Sinclair, Stephanie Tolle, Theresa Trullinger. Darrell Schmitt was accompanist.

KING GREG and QUEEN CHRISTY pause for that posed picture for the cameraman shortly before beginning their lead-off dance.

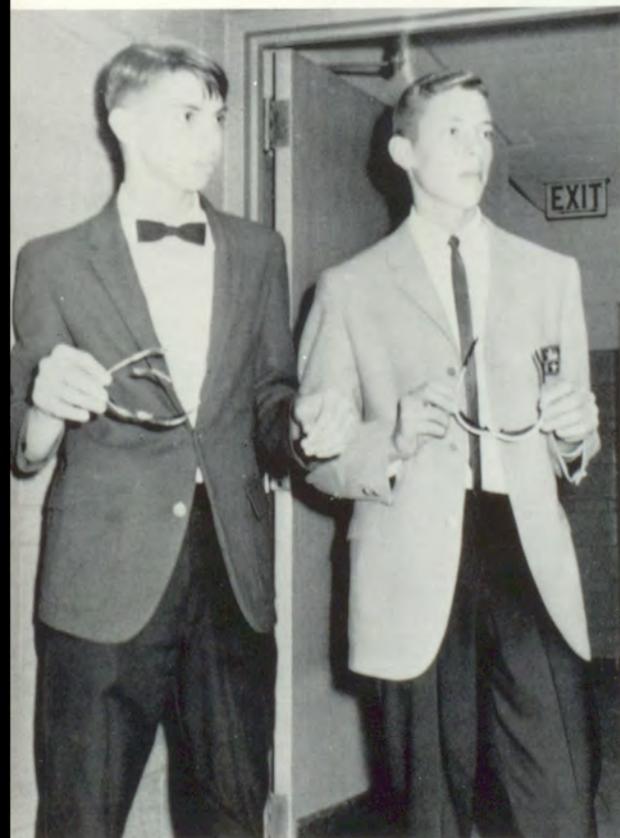

NO SPONSOR EVER worked harder to give her all to a successful evening than Mrs. June Goodman and her able assistants, Debbie Wainscott, president of the organization and Darrell Schmitt, who designed the interesting murals used throughout the gymnasium.

Christy Lentz and Greg Carson Reign Over Junior High Event

THE FIRST DANCE of the evening.

Right: The wishing well (shown at the far right side) proved a popular spot for the many guests attending the dance. Decorations were especially attractive this year.

Bill Krusemark and Mike Vanek, Dapper stags, look the situation over and decide the dance is good enough that they should have brought a date!

THE FERRARIS, a popular school band, outdid itself at the spring event. Members of the group are Bill Wallace, Jim Jeffries, Glenn Seever and Doug Stillings.

CARL CHANNON

Mr. Channon holds one of the most responsible positions in the school system as superintendent of buildings and grounds. It is through his expert planning that the plants are run with such efficiency. Our thanks!

So many times we take all the good things in life for granted. There are men and women who are constantly making life a little easier and comfortable for us. Pictured on this page are some of the familiar faces we see each day at school (the exception, Mr. Channon, whose office is in the Board of Education building).

It would be nice if we remember to thank them now and then for a job well done. Also, returning graduates can always please them by a cheery hello when they return to visit.

When you see a crowd around contemporary cards, you may be sure it's a group of AHS
students looking over the latest collection

Where is it any more pleasant to shoot the breeze
than at Mall's?
Herbert always enjoys the crowds of young people.
