THE 1967 TRAILBLAZER

FIRST SCHOOL PICTURE TAKEN FROM FIRST YEARBOOK (CALLED ANNUAL) 1907 BOOK DONATED TO THE SCHOOL BY MR. ALAN LINLEY.

PICTURE IN 1947 TRAILBLAZER-THE YEAR IT WAS REVIVED BY MR. EDWIN MARSHALL.

Today the first building is only a memory to very few Atchison residents and no 1967 students. The second picture has seen many additions and improvements. However there is one thing that has never changed and still remains in the hearts of all past, present and future students attending INGALLS JUNIOR-SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL-.

Dr. Wayne O. Wallace

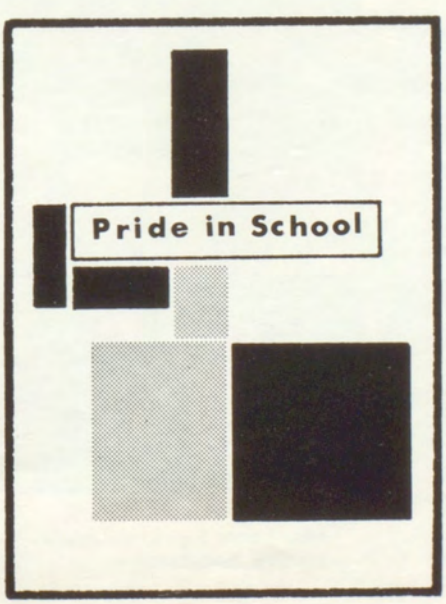

Mr. Lowell Dagenais

Mr. Fritz Smith

Judge Frank Hunn served as president of the 1966-67 board and Mrs. Bridges was vice-president. Meetings are held the first Monday of each month and attendance nearly always 100 per cent.

Much hard work and many talents are contributed by members of the Atchison school board. These well-chosen men and women combine their varied abilities toward one main goal-the continuation of an exceptionally fine school system.

Superintendent Frazer And Staff

The challenge for those of us dealing with the educational process is one of attempting to provide for the needs of the world ten, fifteen, or twenty years hence.

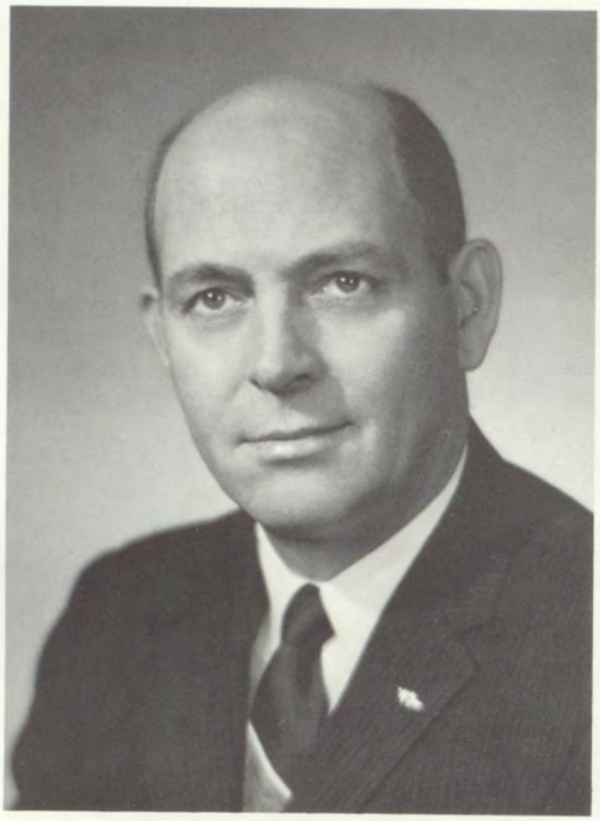

The technological world in which we now find ourselves demands that education not only continue to be responsible for the development of the fundamental learning process, but also create within the minds and hearts of men new styles, new appetites, and new dimensions.

The world of the future and the very near future will call for such traits as originality, boldness and flexibility. Rigidity, timidity, and conformity must give away to the new concepts if education is to rightly fill the role demanded of it.

Can education help give our new generation genuine self-confidence, genuine courage, and at the same time teach them that they must themselves discover the new truths?

Can education help suppress the development of defense mechanisms which prevent most of us from seeing the world as it really exists?

Can education broaden its mission to include the development of the total human being, to help him achieve his total human potential, the full humanhood 1985 will require?

DR. D.W. FRAZER, SUPERINTENDENT OF ATCHISON SCHOOLS

In short, we cannot presume to describe precisely the specifications of "the job" which needs to be done by tomorrow's leaders, but precisely in our inability to describe the job, I think we accurately describe the kind of men and women we need.

Mrs. Louise Tosterud, Mrs. Doris Sutton and Miss Lydia Gilkison work in the budget.

Mr. Larry Sipes, Administrative Assistant.

Dr. Frazer attends a Kayette Tea.

Administration

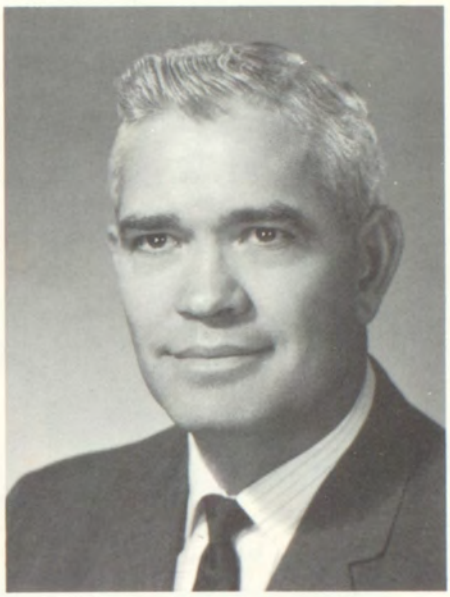

MR. VAN N. HURST

Mr. Hurst is a familiar face around the halls of the school and he probably knows every student. As the enrollment grows larger each year the duties of the administrators take another spiral but AHS may well be proud of men of such capabilities to direct and guide. As principal of junior high students, Mr. Hurst is to be commended on his fine job.

Mr. Carrier has done a fine job in directing the many activities at AHS during 1966-67.

MR. ANDREW CARRIER
Activities Director

MR. WILLIAM F. WILSON

Mr. Wilson is completing his first year as senior high principal and it has been a good year. Mr. Wilson is a dedicated educator and has the interest of each student at heart. He makes regular class visitations and attends all social functions. He is sports minded so naturally sits in and out for athletic functions. AHS welcomes Mr. Wilson his first year and hopes he decides to make this his school home.

Mrs. Annie Johnson keeps the books in shape-and this is no easy job. She always manages to stay pleasant despite interruptions all day long.

Mrs. Justine Thomas, school secretary, considers each request in a kindly manner-and she is called upon many, many times a day.

Faculty

In the year 1967, we are stressing pride in school- and where should this be more evident than in our faculty? We proudly point to the men and women who make up the teaching staff of AHS and is it not so? These dedicated teachers spend not only class periods but do extra-curricular work to see that their school remains the outstanding school that it has the reputation for being-an outstanding school.

AHS Students Appreciate The Many Duties Performed By Maintenance— Both Custodial And Cafeteria Staffs

Pride in school! This is truly the goal of all the many fine men and women employed to see after the comforts and well-being of the studentry and faculty. It is no easy job to please over 1,075 boys, girls and adults but these people try their best-and do a mighty good job of pleasing the majority. They are always on call and no matter how late the hour or small the task they complete it.

Class History

As Freshmen we were novices at AHS. We were "big men" as eighth graders but became "low men on the totem pole" in the eyes of upperclassmen. Somehow we muddled through but the year 1967 seemed very remote.

We considered our first year a good one, despite the trial and error period. Debbie Wainscott was president of the Junior Pep club and Debbie Mier, vice-president. Tough "Big Green" members enjoyed a successful 5-1 record. Stars were Jack Laurie, Steve Linden, Mark Stillings, Roc Biffinger, Dave Bilderback, Johnny Jones and John Snoddy. Cheerleaders were Christy Lentz, Sandy Tharp, Linda Cochran and Pam Barnett. Steve Tharp and Kirk Gardner began their gymnastics careers.

When we entered school in the fall we were honest-to-goodness upper classmen. Alan Tilson and Linda Denton became debaters; Kirk Gardner helped win the Centennial League championship in gymnastics; our football hustlers graduated to the "B" team and Sandy Tharp, Susie Cray, Linda Cochran, Darrell Schmitt, Kathy Ball and Pam Barnett cheered them on to victory. Ann Marshall and Bill Krusemark added their musical talents to the outstanding musical presentation, THE MIKADO. Lenard Wahlert, Roc Biffinger and Wes Spinner played "B" team basketball while Jack Laurie, Jim Emery, Mike Stith and Steve Tharp devoted their time to golf. Susie Cray, Jerry Nash, Ann Marshall, Pam Barnett, Mark Stillings and Fred Bryan proved their academic worth and were chosen for the National Honor Society. In the spring, band members were rewarded for much work with a trip to Oklahoma. Our sophomore year ended with a rush of campaigns and elections and just general preparation for our transition to "juniorism".

Our Junior year was one of victory-as a class, as individuals and as members of winning teams. Christy Lentz, Betsy Elliott, Roc Biffinger and Sue Young had their first try at leadership as class officers. As thespians we made a stab at acting in "You Can't Take it With You," directed by Mr. Shafer. Our hard work produced a tremendous success. Our efforts at an antique auction for the American Field Service festival was the largest money raising project of the year. We had good reason to go all out because we were looking forward to the foreign exchange student who would be part of our class. Our "Barnyard Jamboree" dance added quite a chunk of money toward our prom fund. As individuals our class was blessed with ability. Kirk Gardner captured second place on the still rings in state competition; Tom Willis nabbed a first place trophy in state forensic competition; Alton Webb was honored for his artistic talent and many were beginning to be recognized for outstanding work in the scholastic field. As juniors we were eligible for high position in many clubs and we rose to the occasion. Joannie Lundstrom served as Girls' "A" Club vice-president along with Debbie Mier as treasurer; Suzi Heck was treasurer of Student Council; Darrell Schmitt was elected vice-president of the Pep Club, Sarah Johnson, secretary and Mary Jones, treasurer.

Ann Marshall and Bill Krusemark again captured leads in the musical, "Bye, Bye Birdie" and Dennis Dittemore and Linda Denton kept the audience in gales of laughter. We also contributed much talent to the AHS marching band that received a superior rating at Wichita State University marching contest. Some of us had our first try at politics when we attended County Government Day and the United Nations Model assembly.

We added much muscle to the fighting Redmen football team even though we lost out on the league title. We were proud of Ralph Dudley, Lenard Wahlert, Steve Wilson, Jack Laurie, Dave Bilderback and Larry Allen as they dribbled to victory on the basketball court. Mike Davis was a new addition to the gymnastics team. Leading a new wave of school spirit were Sandy Tharp, Susie Cray, and Linda Cochran as "A" team cheerleaders and Kathy Ball and Courtney Mize, "B" team. Marilyn Sinclair and Betsy Elliott joined the debate squad and Christy Lentz, Nancy Cochran, Avis Craig, Darrell Schmitt, Marilyn Sinclair and John Turner became new members of the National Honor Society.

As spring neared, we worked again as a class to present "Gone With the Wind" to our graduating seniors. We'll never forget the perspiration, labor, arguments and just plain fun that went into producing the prom. After attending it and the annual picnic for the first time, we decided that being juniors was just about the nicest thing that could happen to us. But the end of that year just marked the beginning of another. We soon learned that this was to be the top of the ladder in excitement and hard work. We were now SENIORS.

Being a senior means doing a lot of things we did as sophomores and juniors but it means more the last year of school. We had many "firsts" and one of the greatest was in greeting our exchange student, Samarn Chumrugsar of Udorn, Thailand. "Sam" was having her first "taste" of America and knowing her American family, Mr. and Mrs. James Barnett, Pam and Jim. We were happy and proud that after only a few weeks "Sam" was able to call most of us by our names. We will never forget her because she has made us aware of the world in which we live-also has brightened our days with her wide grin and sincere friendliness.

Next our class took first place with the Homecoming float used in the parade - the prize being twenty-five dollars. It was the first year our girls were nominees for Homecoming queen and Christy Lentz will never forget the moment her name came over the loud speaker as Queen Christy. Our first feelings of victory were when the Redmen football team won second place honors in the Centennial League. The gymnastics brought honors in the form of league championship-the fifth straight year. Our debaters added a host of new trophies to their showcase.

Ralph Dudley, Jesse Downing, Larry Allen, Marlin Ferguson, Jesse Greenly and Steve Wilson proved themselves fine basketball players when they helped lead our team to the league championship, on to the regionals and finally to state, where they met defeat.

Again our class had many leaders. Alan Tilson, Mary Chew, Marilyn Sinclair and Sarah Johnson led student council activities, Alan presiding; Sue Young, Debbie Mier, Christy Lentz and Nancy Miller were class officers; Joannie Lundstrom, Sandy Tharp and Kathy Ball served as officers in Senior Girls' "A" club; Pep Club hit a new high in enthusiasm and promoting school spirit, led by Darrell Schmitt, Patty Simpson, Suzi Heck and Courtney Mize; Kayette officers were Linda Denton and Avis Craig; Ann Marshall captained the band with the help of Sandy Tharp as drum majorette; Sandy, Susie Cray, Pam Barnett and Linda Cochran were cheerleaders on the varsity squad; Jerry Nash and Roc Biffinger edited the OPTIMIST and co-editors for the TRAILBLAZER were Susie Hausman and Debbie Mier.

We shared the pride of Darrell Schmitt when he won $100 in state competition for water colors... we shared the pride when Ann Marshall was chosen as a member of the Band of America to tour Europe this summer (and she'll be concert mistress)... we shared Kirk Gardner's pride when he took first place on still rings at state... we shared Debbie Mier's pride when she was named DAR Good Citizen... and all of us share in the pride of being members of the class of 1967. We recognize the fact that we stumbled and fell many times but we also feel that we have made a mark on AHS that will long be remembered. When we receive our diplomas and leave the building the last time as students we will carry with us many happy memories. Some, it is true, will not be good-a grade that was lower than we were capable of bringing up-a lecture from a teacher-a visit with the principal-but what will remain with us much longer than these will be the knowledge that we acquired here. Also the realization that we will now face the world as men and women because of our social, athletic and academic education at Atchison High School.

ACTIVITIES

AHS Thanks Thailand For Sending Lovely Samarn For A Year

Samarn and a friend from Thailand, also an AFS student, attend Festival.

No queen in the world could have been more poised than "Our Sam" at the Royal Courts dance. Escorted by Lenard Wahlert, substitution for Sam Worley, king, who was attending a gymnastics meet.

Third AFS Student

There has not been a student at AHS who hasn't pointed with pride to our AFS student, Samarn Chumrugsar. Her smile (what a smile!), her beautiful manners, her grace and poise have done much to cement a lasting friendship. The AFS has introduced three fine students to the school and community and everyone is richer for the experience of meeting the world.

One of the greatest thrills Samarn recalls is a visit by her American teacher from Thailand.

Annual AFS Festival A Big Fun Event—
Plus Raising Enough Money For Another Foreign Student Next Year.

Student Council President, Alan Tilson, greets an AFS patron.

It is always good to see the many Atchison residents who attend the events.

Mr. Barnett (Samarn's American father) takes a breather from the hectic activity to watch a "basketball throw."

One thing can be said-no one ever tires of food and drink. This busy concession kept active from opening to closing time.

Always one of the popular spots-the sponge throw. It was junior-class sponsored and many junior boys went home with tired faces (made money, though!)

Another busy spot-the car smash. One "smasher" will never forget the red paint someone accidentally left in the car and left on his clothes.

JOINING the Top Thirty in a vocal program, presented in

ALWAYS A beautiful feature of the Baccalaureate ceremony is the singing of the Top Thirty. Singing their last time with the group were seniors Chew, Dittemore, Schmitt, Krusemark, Gerber, Farr, Marshall and Meyer.

October, were members of two outstanding organizations in the Atchison community, the Rivermen and the Mothersingers. The blending of the three well-trained voice groups was appreciated by music lovers who attended the concert, under the direction of Basil Roark.

NO GROUP as perfected as the Top Thirty reaches such acclaim without much practice and effort.

BEAUTIFUL melodies are heard from the music area of the school as these senior high students meet each day.

EARNS PLAUDITS

The street venders with their wares sing the beautiful song, "Who Will Buy?"

The full cast on stage singing the stirring finale, "I'd Do Anything For You."

Mr. Bumble, Dennis Dittemore, the workhouse "Beadle" does a rollicking dance to the song "Oliver."

The rogues plot to get Oliver back after his capture, fearing he will reveal their hiding place. Bet (Janet Garrison), Nancy (Mary Chew), the Artful Dodger (Darrell Schmitt), Bill Sikes (Bill Stanley) and Fagin (Bill Krusemark).

The Artful Dodger (Schmitt) chats with members of the cast before curtain time.

Oliver

The presentation of this popular musical, under the direction of Basil Roark and Helen Volk, brought the world of Charles Dickens to the stage of AHS. London audiences could not have received it any more enthusiastically.

The essence of the story is revealed in the song "Where is Love?" sung by Oliver (Ann Marshall).

Fagin (Bill Krusemark) the miserly old leader of the pickpockets ponders "going straight in the song," "Reviewing the Situation" (which brought down the house in applause.)

The "pickpockets" clamor around "Butch" Frantz and attempt to make him growl but he was a real trouper as Bill Sike's dog.

Mary Chew as Nancy sings the beautiful "As Long as He Needs Me."

Oliver (Ann Marshall) is captured by the police after he is believed to have picked the pockets of a distinguished London gentleman, Mr. Brownlow (Don Gerber).

DIRECTOR Trent begins another season of melodious musical memories for everyone.

STAFF officers for the year: FRONT ROW: J. Sappington, A. Marshall, M. Cher. BACK ROW: A. Wagner, D. Butler, D. Dittemore and F. Bryan. Ann Marshall, captain, won the distinction of being named the JOHN PHILIP SOUSA BAND AWARD winner of the year. She was also judged superior at State in piano, violin and voice. Senior members of the band were: F. Bryan, D. Butler, M. Chew, D. Dittemore, D. McDaniel, N. Barker, B. Berry, M. Carter, B. Coleman, P. Farr, D. Gerber, S. Jones, B. Krusemark, C. Lentz, B. Meyer, S. Tharp, L. Vaughan and T. York.

THE STAGE band was a hit throughout the year. They not only performed at school but at city and community functions. Here they are shown doing their popular Charleston routine.

DRUM MAJORS Joy Shuck, Candy Goodman and Sandy Tharp did an outstanding job-and in all kinds of weather!

THE BRASS section won superior at State and were always superior at home.

ATHLETICS

Our Team

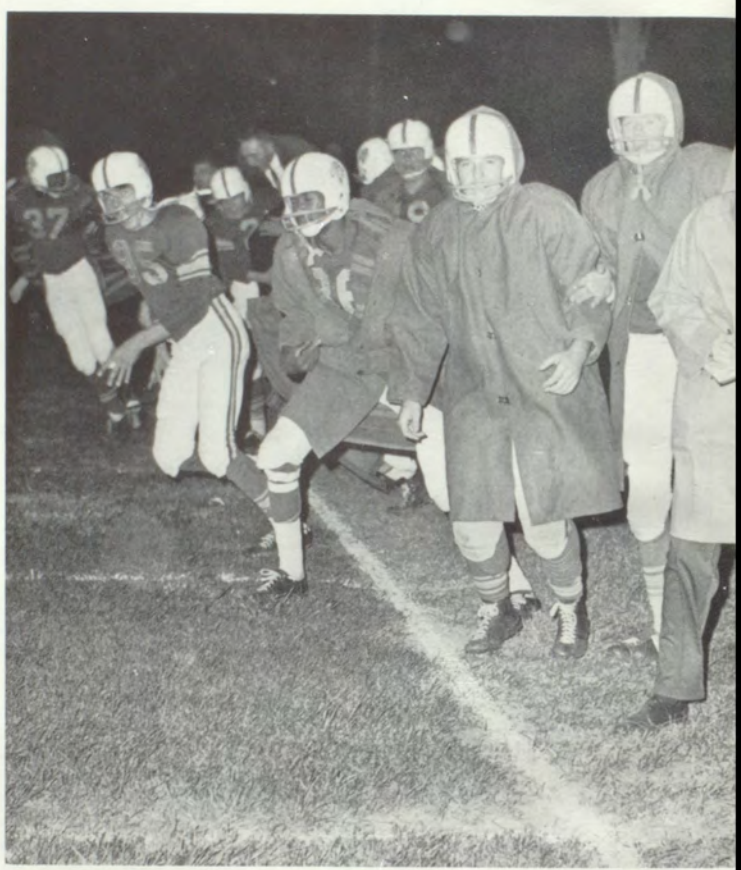

The 1966 football season gave a great lift to students, townspeople and coaches all. Every man on the team worked as a unit with the one in front, back and on the side. PRIDE IN SCHOOL and team was the watchword throughout the season. They very narrowly missed the league championship.

COACHES and Jerry Nash watch the action.

Matt Downing shoots one while Allen and Jesse Downing look on.

Here's looking up at those scores-happily!

We might not have won, but we went to State and hope for a return engagement.

Pride in School was truly reflected during the basketball season. The halls were lined with posters cheering on the winners and pep rallies were attended by enthusiastic students and faculty members. Even townspeople got into the act and followed the team at both home and out-of-town games. Cheerleaders were hoarse from one game to the next-but never faltered or failed to be on hand for the exciting events.

COACH Kohler's "B" Team gave much spark to the good season.

HIP! HIP! HURRAH! REGIONAL VICTORY CELEBRATION.

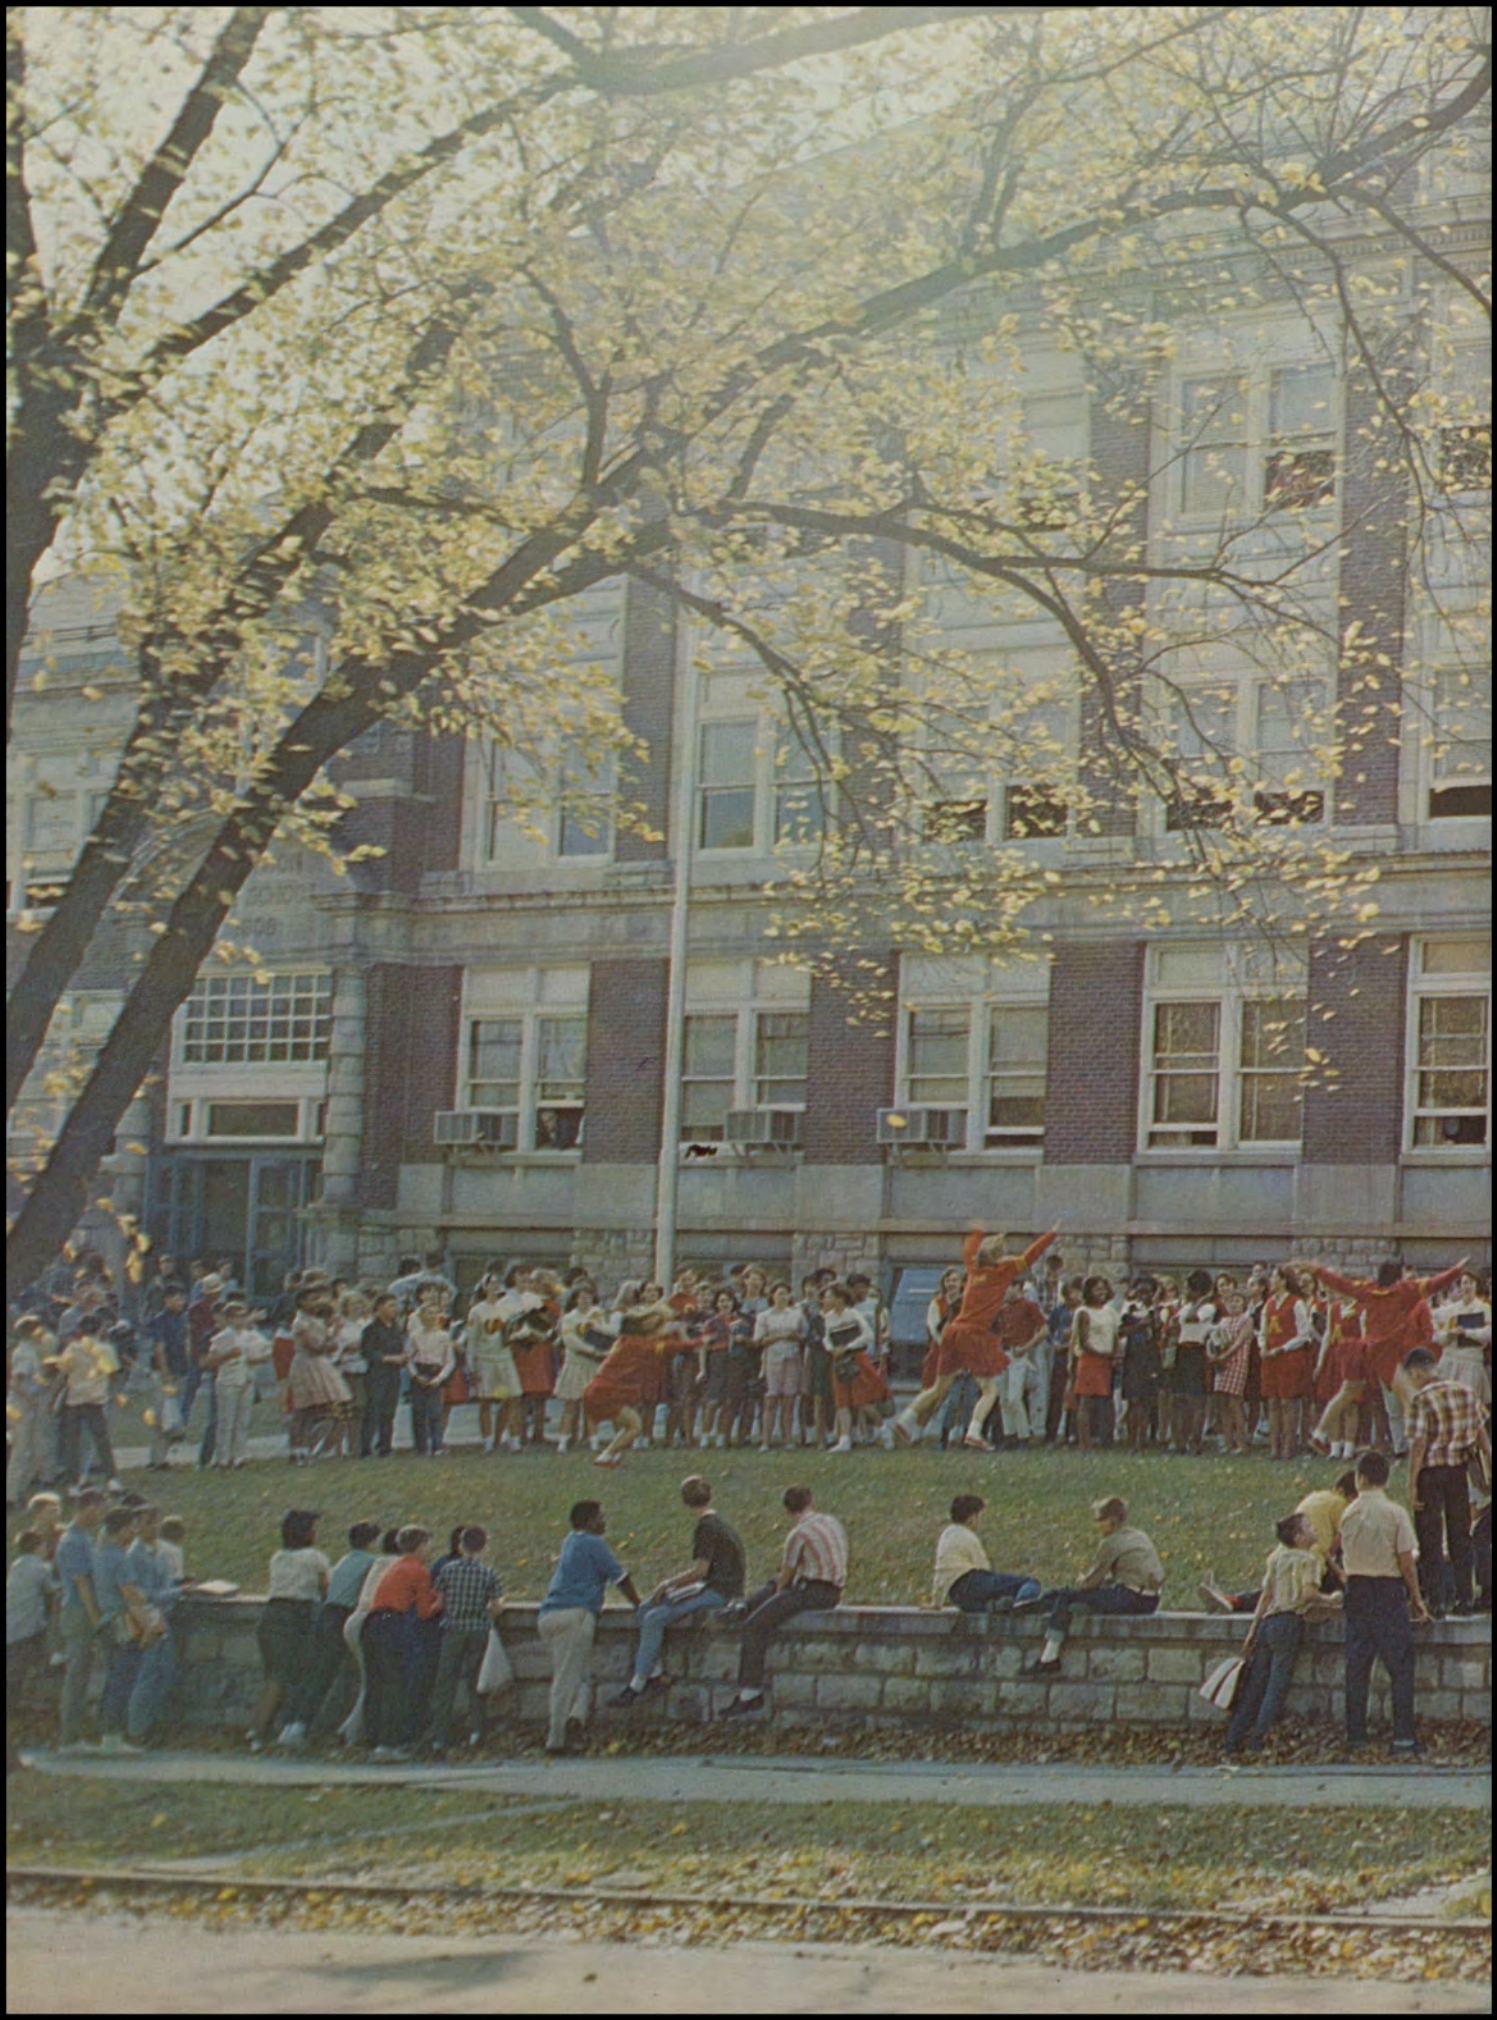

Question: What is a greater thrill than looking at the winning trophy? Answer: None!

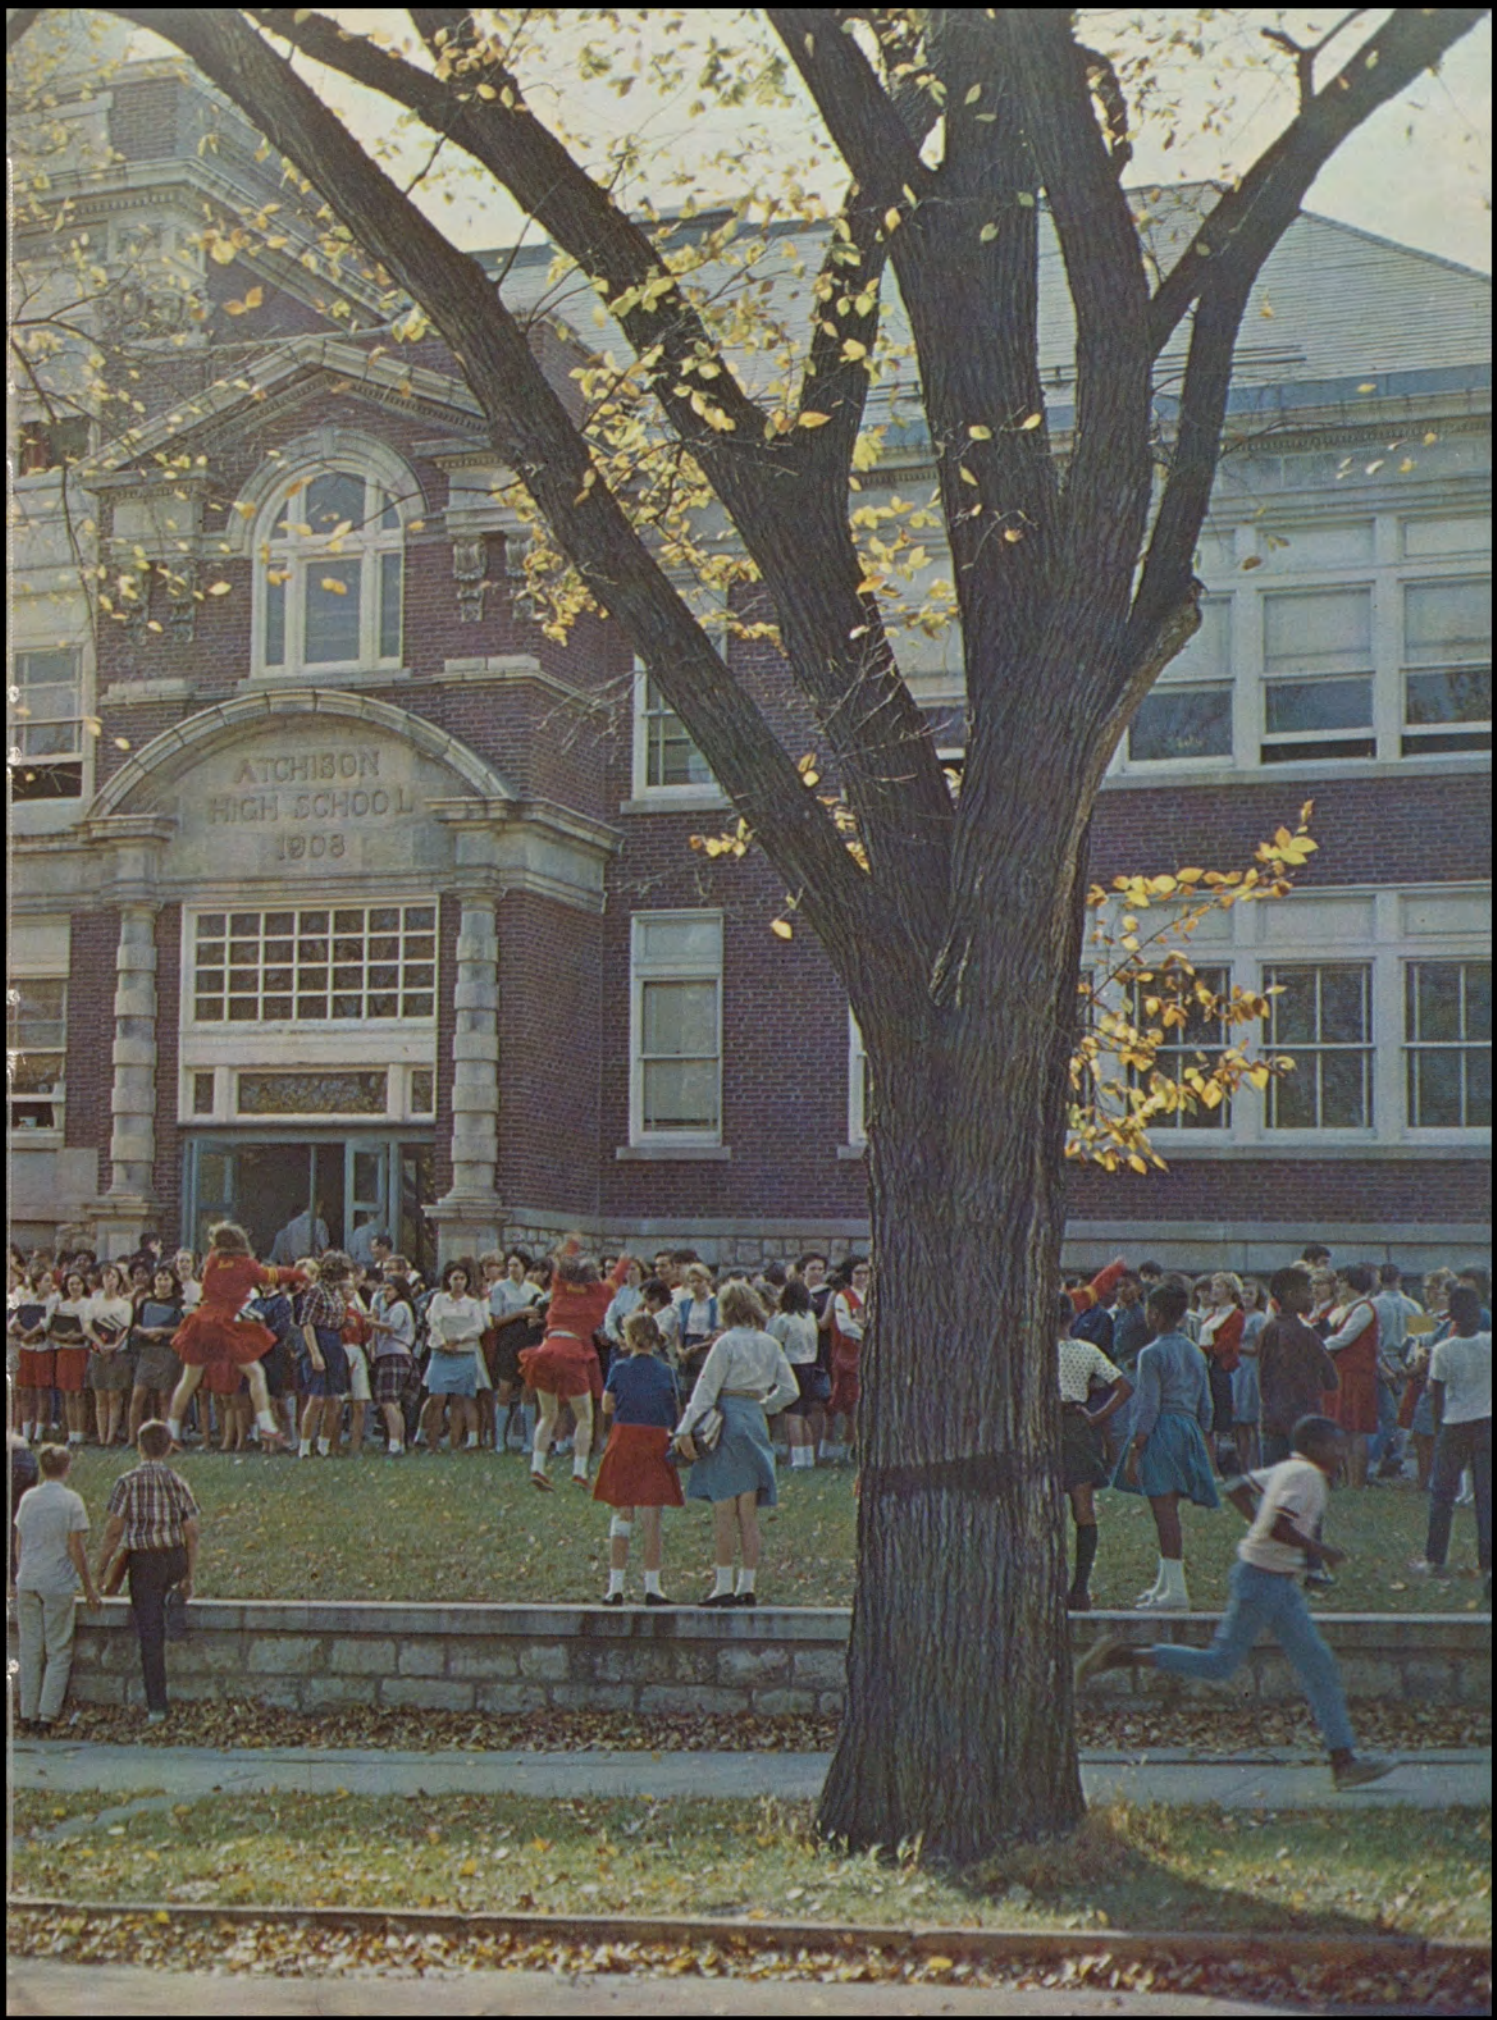

Jesse Downing and Larry Allen battle Leavenworth Pioneers.

Coach Baumgardner had a great year-in basketball and with Cupid. He acquired a lovely bride, so Football Coach Carrier and friends wish him all happiness.

QUEEN SAMARN Chumrugsar smilingly begins the first dance of the evening with Dennis Dittemore. King Sam Worley was unable to attend the festivities as he was competing in a gymnastics meet. Samarn was a real hit in her native Thailand silk dress.

CANDIDATES FOR Royal Courts honor: Suzi Heck, Patty Simpson, Debbie Mier, Samarn, Fred Bryan, Sam Worley, Darrell Schmitt, and Dennis Dittemore.

THE OPENING march of candidates just before the long-awaited announcement.

1967 Royal Courts Honor

WE COULDN'T let such an honor go by so urged King Sam Worley to pose in his royal robes with Queen Samarn. (It was several days late, but Sam liked it!)

For many years the basketball season concluded without a royal recognition-but no more! Now AHS has entered the era of a roundball reign (through the untiring work of the Senior High Pep club-and what a club!) Candidates are chosen from hard-working members of the organization and voted in as king and queen by the student body.

The queen will take back many happy memories of the event to her country when she returns and the king-although competing in a gymnastic meet-expressed pleasure on being informed of the honor.

The crowning event takes place during the final home game of the year and this year, due to the outstanding record of the team, many former students returned for the gala occasion.

Special coronation robes, designed by Darrel Schmitt, will be used for future Royal Courts.

THE REAL SUCCESS of a dance is whether students dance and not sit along the sidelines. There was never a moment during the evening when the floor wasn't filled with present and past students.

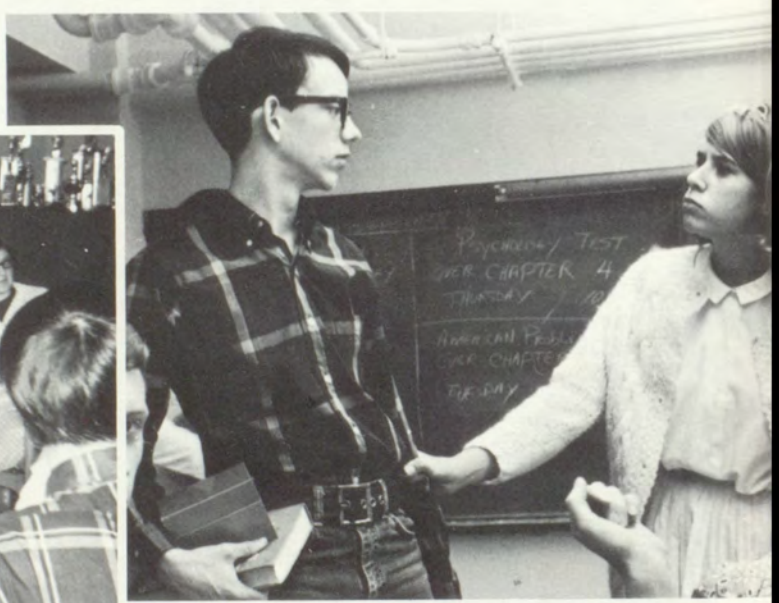

THE AFS student from Thailand, Samarn Chumrugsar, was popular with everyone.

OFFICERS for the year were: Alan Tilson, president; Mary Chew, vice-president; Marilyn Sinclair, secretary and Sarah Johnson, treasurer. Sponsors were Mr. Shafer, head, Mr. Legg and Mr. Schwein.

ATTENDING one of the Monday after-school meetings, members discuss project.

PRESIDENT Tilson is stopped by member Heck, who has a suggestion-and important, too!

Senior Student Council

DARREL Lorenz displayed many items, including several end tables. His mother approved.

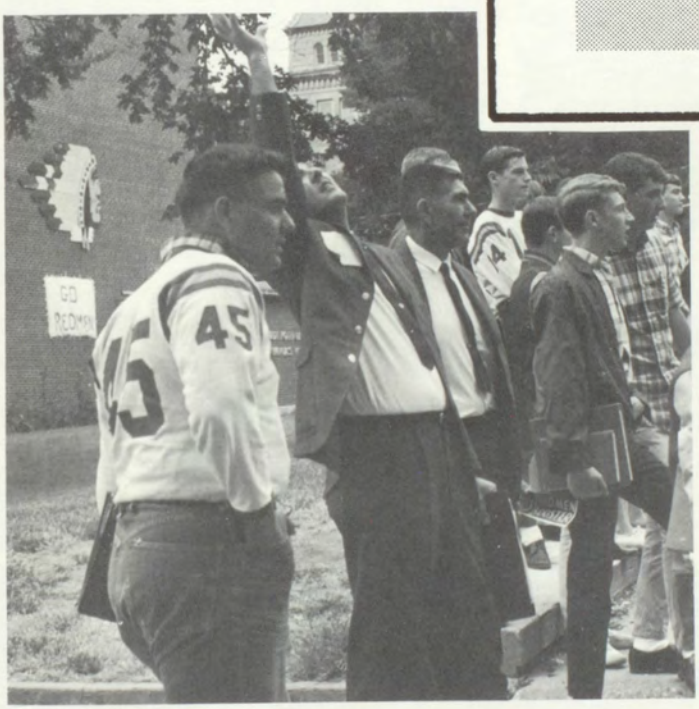

As long as there are such dedicated instructors as Mr. Stinson, Mr. Kohler, Mr. Campbell, Mr. Anderson, and Mr. Yost, there will always be creative work displayed by students at AHS. Hands are happy in these classes because they are kept busy.

NFL Members Tour To Tournament Competition

Hours of hard work goes into becoming a good debater-and this is just what those belonging to National Forensic League do-work hard! Under the capable tutoring of Coach Shafer, students prepare themselves to go out and win. Added to the work schedule, students take pride in their team and attempt to live up to the traditions set by former AHS debaters. Debaters John Manning and Bill Wilson won first place in the Augusta meet and Don Dagenais and David Estes were rated first in Leavenworth.

NFL State Winners: Gary Hood, Jacque Ehret and Candy Goodman. Jacque will go to the national meet in Nashville.

SENIOR MEMBERS of NFL: Coach Shafer, Cray, Willis, Denton, Marshall, Tilson, Chew and Craig.

AWAITING THEIR turn to talk. Mark Henry (LEFT) and Don Dagenais are looking forward to the next two years in NFL.

Debate And Speech

Holidays always see a large number of former debaters home for a day or two and where do they head? Right-the room at the top of the stairs.

AHS debaters greet guests at invitational held the early part of the school year.

One of the saddest things about leaving AHS, according to Sharon Morley, was leaving debate. Her friends and coach shared her feelings.

Trade And Industry, Distributive Education

ROBERT Jones and his employer, Jim Miller of Jim's Hardware, attend the annual banquet.

BOARD member, Mrs. Bridges, congratulates award winners Kaufman, Liggett and Cloves.

MR. PALMER introduces Mike McConnaughey, toast master.

STATE WINNERS, Tam Miller, Linda Liggett, Robert Jones, and Warren Kaufman. Tam, Robert and Warren were in Distributive Education and Linda, Office Education.

LINDA Cairo was accompanied by Miss Hospital.

One of the most enjoyable social events during the school year is the annual banquet held by members of distributive education, office education and trade and industry clubs. Students make all the preparations and have as their guests faculty members and their employers throughout the city.

This year the banquet was held at the American Legion Banquet Hall. Mike McConnaughey was Master-of-Ceremonies and Honor-Red Warren Kaufman, Tam Miller, Robert Jones, Linda Liggett and Dean Cloves.

PATTY Pierce and Tam Miller entertained their "bosses," Bernard Domann and Mrs. Hansen of Domann Drugs.

MEMBERS OF THE TRAILBLAZER staff assist in a picture-taking jaunt and stop to rest in a comfortable spot on the beautiful Atchison Mall.

1967 Trailblazer

No one ever knows the long hours spent upon putting together a yearbook-that is, no one but the staff members who spend hour after hour in just routine jobs. The alphabitizing alone is no small job because the staff attempts to keep errors at a minimum-if at all.

EDITORS Mier and Hausman study a page layout.

WHAT A BLESSING to have a good photographer who was always ready, willing and able to fulfill his duties. The TRAILBLAZER staff thanks David Johnson for all the hours he spent in picture-taking.

SUE YOUNG, a staff member, covers a bowling tourney.

BARBARA Coleman leans back to rest after numbering hundreds of pictures. When she heard someone say that yearbook people have nothing to do, she let out a goodly groan.
