Communico

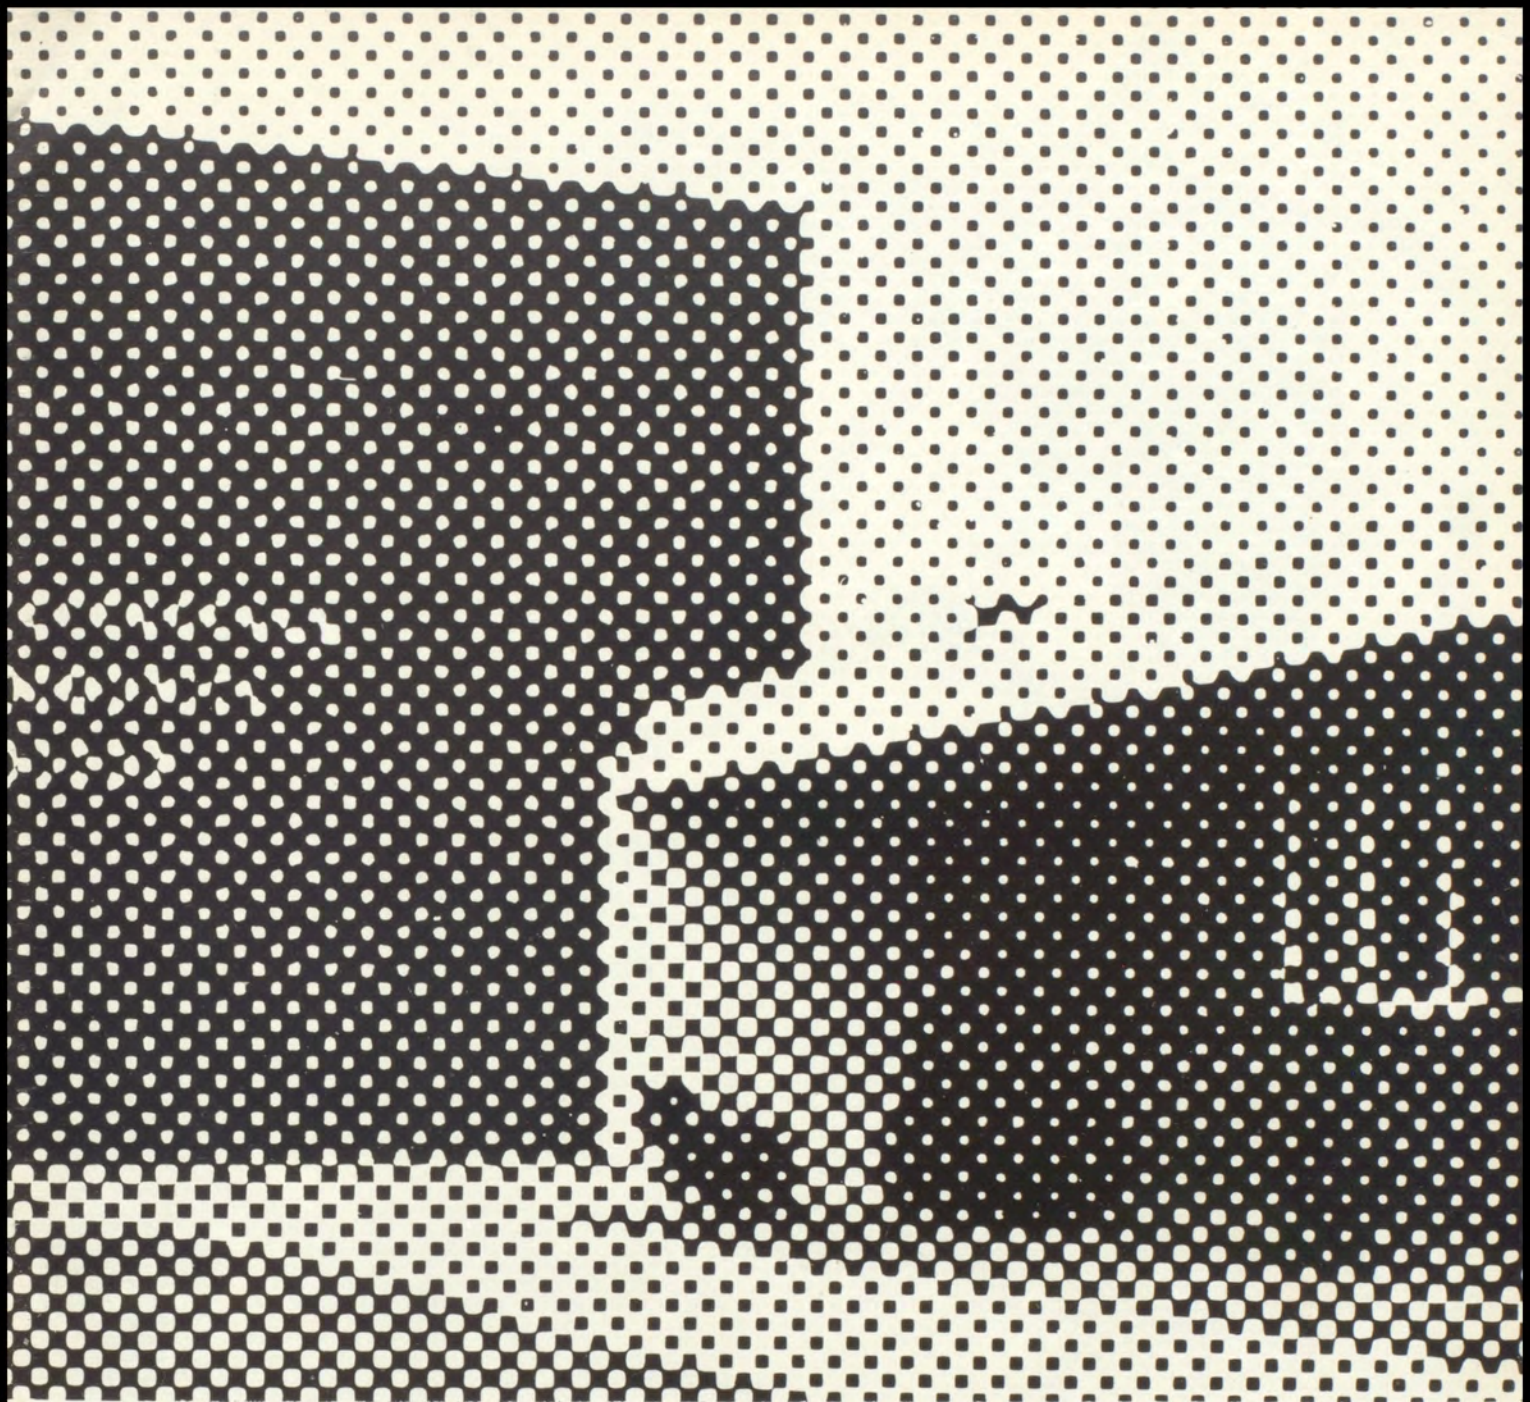

Any nation, organization, or other gathering of people, in order to be successful, must be united. The same holds true for a student body. In order to achieve success and be victorious over every challenge, unity is a necessity.

With the creation of Charlie Communico this staff has attempted to unite the spirit of Independence Community College into one common body.

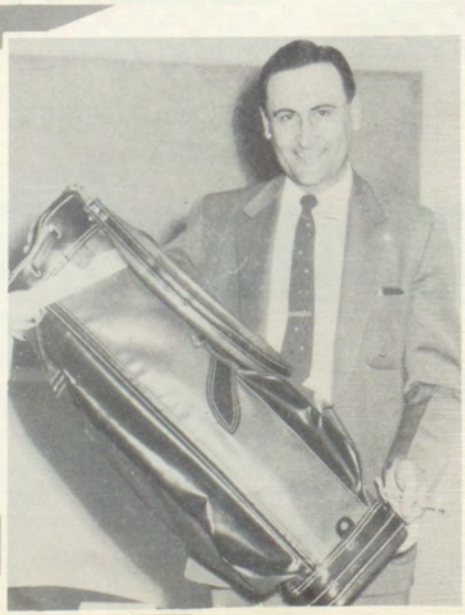

INDEPENDENCE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

INDEPENDENCE, KANSAS

To a man who has given endless support and enthusiasm to the student body,
To a man with sincere and genuine interest in all school activities,
To a man who has attained educational prestige for Independence Community College,
We respectfully dedicate this "1958 Communico" to Fred Cinotto, Dean.

COUNCIL

PHI THETA KAPPA

OFFICERS: Ralph Pearson, Sponsor; Anita Cooper, Secretary-Treasurer; Richard Rankin, Vice-President; Barbara Cook, President.

Phi Theta Kappa is a scholastic society for junior colleges. Beta Omega chapter, the Independence chapter, was organized April 22, 1933. The organization has enjoyed steady growth and received much enthusiasm during its twenty-five years on the campus. The national fraternity sets high eligibility standards which determine the membership. The object of the group is to promote scholarship, to develop character, and to cultivate fellowship.

Fall semester initiates are Bill Schmidt, Steve Sanders, and Richard Rankin. Assisting with the ceremony are Lorraine Painter, Anita Cooper, and Barbara Cook.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

The Student Christian Fellowship provides spiritual, cultural, and social growth for all students enrolled at Independence Community College. Holding weekly devotional services, the Fellowship enjoys various speakers from local churches.

In addition to sponsoring several parties during the year, the Fellowship presents student assemblies for Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter.

OFFICERS: Confer, President; Scott, Secretary and Treasurer; Perry, Vice-President; Wingard, Vice-President; McCormick, S.C. Representative.

"Ave Maria"

'Twas the Night Before Christmas!

Admiring the Quill and Scroll pennant are Jeanne Cooper, Marilyn Orr, Don Beal, and Linda O'Donnell. Quill and Scroll is a National Honor Society for students of journalism.

Mailing the "Student" to former classmates is one of the most important jobs following the publication of each issue. Tackling this job are Nancy Koonce, Gene Cook, and Terry Gudde.

STUDENT STAFF

Reading copy and page proofs are Doris Violet, Lida Alford, and Billye Green. They are performing the duties that make the "Independence Student" the fine school paper that it is.

Shown here are Barbara Price, Rita Huston, and Virginia Riley. They are pictured writing and checking their stories before sending them to the shop.

ICC PLAYERS

OFFICERS: Bill Schmidt, President; Barbara Cook, Secretary; Martha Dean, Student Council Representative; Horton Kurtis, Treasurer; Lewis Pattin, Vice-President.

Being initiated into Players are Fred Gay, Max King, Charles Burton, and Charles McClenning.

HER MUSICAL MAJESTY

April 10 was the night of Suzanne Shaver's Reign as the elegant 1958 Band Queen. Joyce Messenger and Elaine Wilkins were the attendants with Paul Reust and Larry Knackstedt as their escorts. Bill Schmidt, president of the band, bestowed the traditional kiss, crown, and roses.

Following the concert, a dance was held honoring the royalty. The evening was a delightful climax to the band's year of activities.

Judy Reigns Over Pirates

Connie Sue Bell

Rainy weather didn't take the royal glow from the reign of Judy Dean as 1957 Pirate Football Queen.

On November 6, at halftime of the Independence-Arkansas City football game, Queen Judy and her lovely attendants, Connie Sue Bell, and Jacque Diamond, rode onto the field in convertibles and were met by their escorts, Mike Bonchak, Norman Cobb, and Jerry McCormick.

Mike presided at the ceremony by presenting Judy her crown, a bouquet of chrysanthemums, and a kingly kiss.

A dance honoring the court was held at the I. C. C. Gym after the game which the Pirates won 12-6!!

CALLAHAN'S BLOCK SHAKES TURNER FOR T. D.

The 1957 edition of the Juco Pirates opened practice sessions August 27, with a squad of 40 hopefuls, 9 of which were returning lettermen.

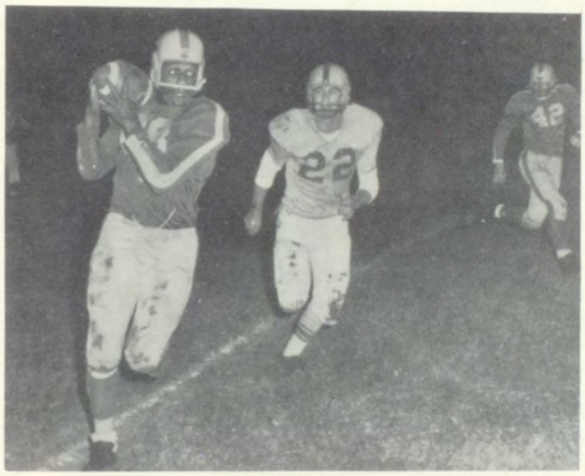

A sparkling victory over the highly rated Joplin Lions was a fitting climax to the Annual Parents' Night. Parents of college squadmen were guests at a banquet given by the college prior to the game and were introduced during half-time ceremonies.

The big rivalry game of the year ended in a deadlock and a moral victory for the Pirates. After spotting the Coffeyville Red Ravens 20 points the 1st quarter, the Pirates battled back to know the score and completely dominate play.

AN UNDEFEATED, UNTIED SEASON

Bill Burnett, Most-Valuable Back
Blaine Babb, Most-Valuable Lineman

Despite having lost the services for the season of veteran quarterback, Horton Kurtis, through an injury, the Bulldogs led by thirteen seasoned lettermen, sailed through their eight game football slate undefeated and untied--the first such season since 1932.

Operating from a flanker and Split "T" and diversifying its offense with an occasional "ride" series the Bulldogs completely outclassed their opponents. Large, gapping holes in the defensive formations of the eight opponents were opened by hard charging, clever moving linemen. The team amassed an offensive total of 274 points, an average of five touchdowns a game.

The climax came as the Bulldogs closed out their unbeaten season with a sensational, pulsating, and well-deserved victory over Coffeyville. Tremendous defensive play kept the vaunted passing and running game of the Tornado under control and spelled out the margin of victory for one of the finest teams to ever represent the Bulldogs.

Jeanie is Queen

It was a cold evening November 25 when Jeanie Porter reigned as 1957 Bulldog Football Queen.

Queen Jeanie and her attendants, Suzanne Shaver, Helen Scott, Charlotte Roberts, and Sue Carter, rode on to the field in shiny convertibles at the half time of the Independence-Columbus game. Horton Kurtis presented Jeanie a bouquet of roses, her crown, and the traditional kiss (which incidentally knocked the crown off).

Following the game (score: Bulldogs 57- Columbus 13!!) the court reigned splendidly over a dance at the I.C.C. Gym.

The entire school may well be proud of the performances of the 1957-58 college Pirates Basketball team.

The Pirate cagers, exhibiting a burning competitive fire and keen teamwork that spelled trouble for enemy hoopsters, raced to fourteen victories against only seven defeats in regular season play.

Despite injuries to key players, the hustling and high-spirited Buccaneers of Coach Bob Sneller were one of the highest scoring crews in Independence basketball history. The Pirates averaged 74 points per game with their high-geared offensive style and broke the 90-point barrier on four occasions.

The fine 7-3 conference record of the Pirates earned them a tie for second place in league competition.

Coach Sneller called his team "a group of fine young men who made the 1957-58 season a successful and memorable experience."

QUEEN GERRY

Pirate Bob Cunningham crowned Gerry Ann Millican 1958 College Basketball Queen on January 30. Gerry very graciously accepted her crown, kiss (two, in fact!) and bouquet of roses. Attending the queen were Jean Spilker and Jacque Diamond, escorted by Chuck Hamilton and Warren Miller.

After the Joplin-Independence game the pep club sponsored a coronation ball in honor of the court.

The I.H.S. Bulldogs opened the 1957-58 Basketball season in late November. From the first practice session they showed promise of being a championship contender. They set their sights on winning the S.E.K. basketball crown, and on February 14, 1958, they accomplished this goal by downing the Pittsburg Purple Dragons 85 to 63.

This was a new school record for the most points scored in one game. It was in this game that Bob Rumfelt set a new school individual scoring record of 35 points.

The climax of the season came when the Bulldogs downed Parsons 74-72 in an overtime, to win the Regional Championship.

—A note from the coach—

It is my sincere hope that each one of you boys have gained something through this great median of basketball that will help you in finding your place in life. You shall never be forgotten. Remember that there are no substitutes for industry, integrity, and loyalty.

A SWEETHEART QUEEN

A lovely court reigned over the high school basketball team on Valentine's Day this year. Charlotte Roberts looked truly elegant as Bob Rumfelt gave her the traditional bouquet of roses, crown, and kiss. Queen Charlotte's attendants were Suzanne Shaver, Helen Scott, Norma Gordon, and Rebecca Feldman.

Following the Pittsburg-Independence game the royalty was honored by a dance featuring Valentine decorations.

COMMUNICO

Meeting endless deadlines, checking photographic needs, and working on page continuity is Tim Emert, Editor of the 1958 "Communico."

Charles Burton, Art Editor and creator of Charlie Communico, spends many hours on cover designs and other original art work.

Sending out another "This is your last notice" is Judy Page, Business Manager.

Typing, writing copy, drawing layouts, or any other necessary task falls to Sylvia Smith, Production Manager.

Looking for new ideas and ways to improve our annual are Ann Marnix, Sponsor, and Charles Belt, Co-Sponsor.

STAFF

"Freshman or Sophomore? Pre-Med or Liberal Arts? Huston or Houston?," always checking for accuracy are Anne DeMott, Helen Hancock, Judy Dalton, and Anne Fehring.

Preparations of athletic layouts, one of the most important jobs on the annual, are being completed by Donna Watson and Don Blades.

Staff photographers, Herb Henderson and Martin Russell, point out features of their cameras before rushing away for another "Communico" picture.

Finishing touches are being applied to sales posters for the "Communico" by Marilyn Wilson, Mary Johnson, Martha Smith, and Ramona Browning.
