Will You Remember

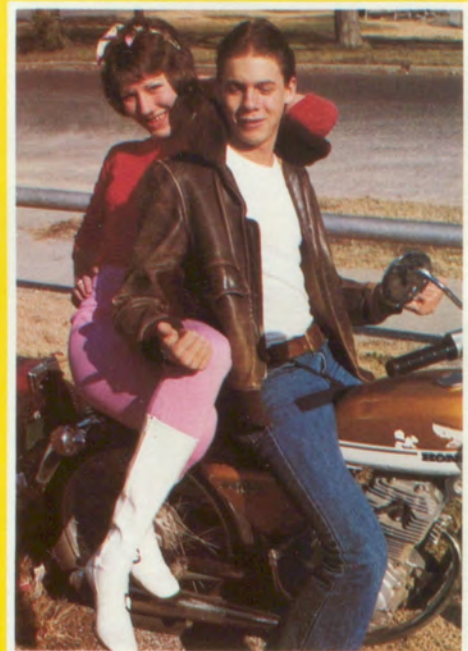

The Times Of Your Life

-ANKA-

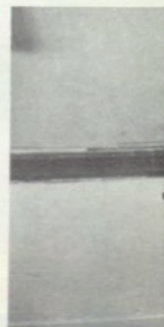

Can It Be That It Was

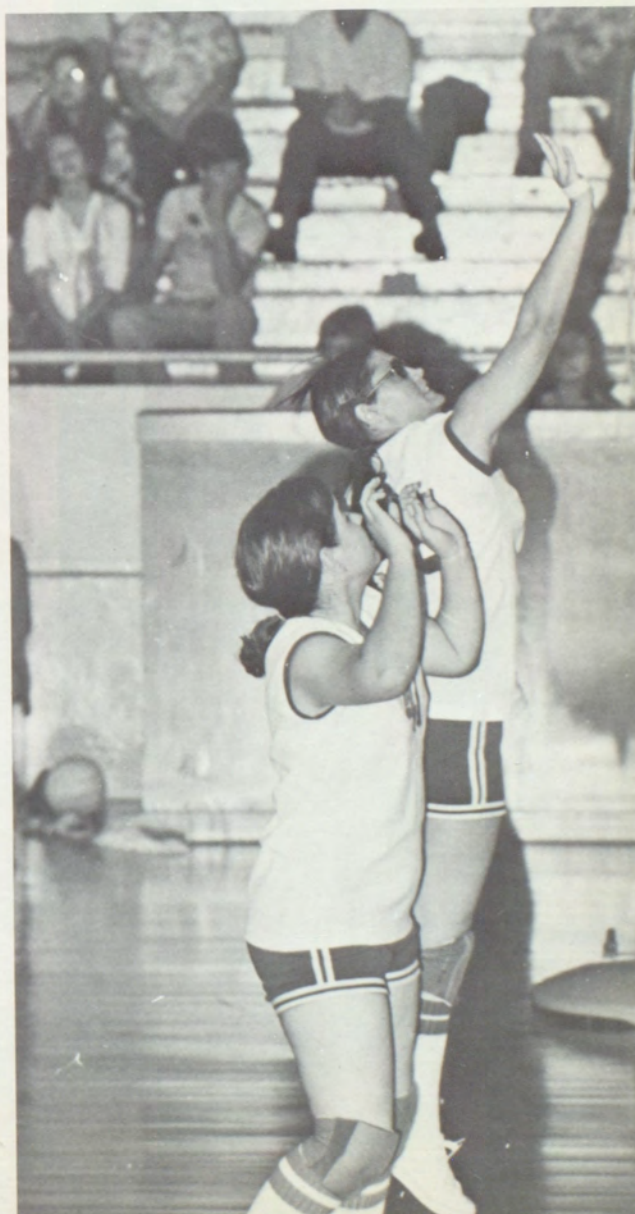

All So Simple Then . . .

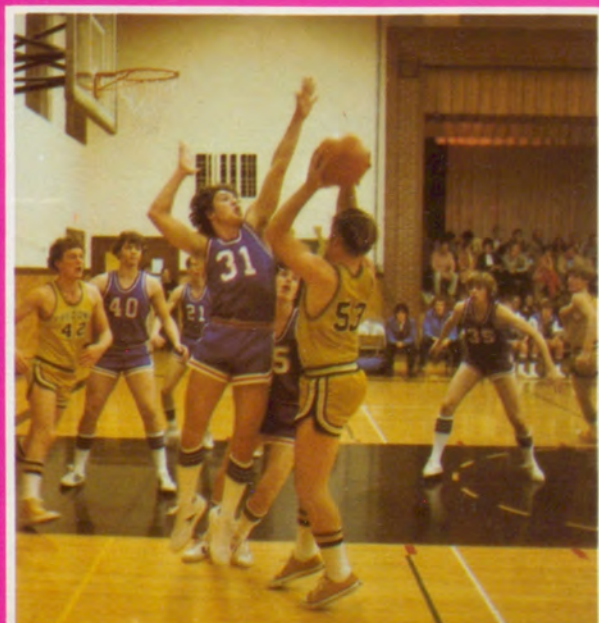

Or Has Time

Rewritten Every Line

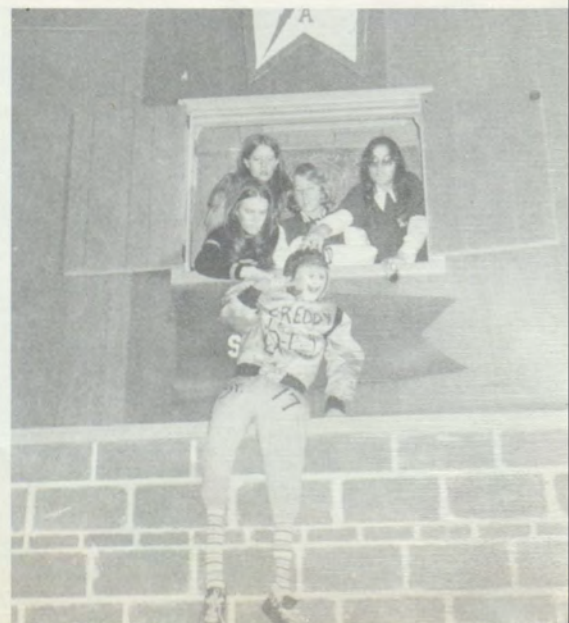

If We Had The Chance To Do It

All Again... Would We... Could We...

Memories May Be Beautiful And Yet . .

Its The Laughter We Will Remember

Stay Right Here, 'Cause These

There is a time to be born and a time to die; a time to plant and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill and a time to heal; a time to break down and a time to build up, A time to weep and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn and a time to dance
. . . . A time to love and a time to hate.

Seniors

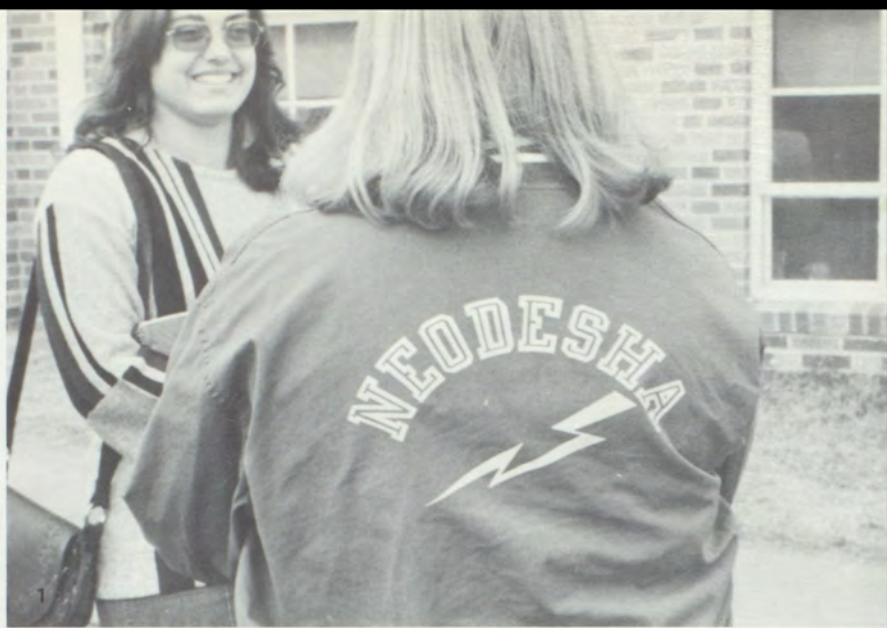

S-S-S-E-N, I-I-I-O-R,
S-E-N ... I-O-R, SENIOR,
SENIOR, SENIOR!

Graduation ... 1977

The senior class had made it through twelve years of learning, growing, laughing, crying ... together. The teachers have put up with them, through all their daring pranks and tricks. From smoke bombs in the restrooms, lemon joy meringue, to flowers at Prom ... The class of '77 has many various talents, including two successful plays, GEORGE WASHINGTON SLEPT HERE and THE BEVERLY HILLBILLIES while having a large number of members on the honor roll, and some outstanding athletes to add to the success of the Bluestreaks. The personality of these people has surrounded us all and it's sad to say good-bye.

Graduation ... 1977.

1. Needy's got PRIDE!
2. Oh, Oh! I got caught!
3. Brotherly Brains?
4. Jeff warns Mike not to hit him with that rubber band!
5. Senior Class officers Rick Mayhood-President, Dan Small-Treasurer, Charlene Allen-Vice President, Gina Gentry Secretary.
6. The senior girls mourned over Freddy Fredonia as he met his doom.
7. Tim, Jamie doesn't think you're funny at all!
8. Class enthusiasm?

Looking back with thoughts of what might have been. Remembering dreams we've dreamt. Laughing at something that wasn't funny then, realizing many things that were funny then, aren't really now. Wishing you'd done something different, or tried a little harder. Seeing hazy things of the past clearer. . . Memories of doing things you wouldn't do, or wishing you'd done something you didn't. Wondering what would happen next, or doubting that it ever would. Straining to express your thoughts. . . Suffering the pains of defeat, realizing the sensation of victory. Loving every minute of it, hating every hour. Feeling like it would never end, and wishing it wasn't ending so soon.

"Holdin on to Yesterday"

I keep holdin' on,
to yesterday.
I keep holdin' on,
enough to say,
that I'm wrong.
I keep thinkin'
that I'm lonely
but it's only
missing you inside.
The days that we
were once together,
seems we'll never
come alive.
So I keep holdin' on,
to yesterday.
I keep holdin' on,
enough to say,
that it's wrong.
Lord, I don't know
when I'll see you,
I can't reach you
anymore.
Well, if I'd only
known I'd need you,
then I'd keep you
like before.
I keep holdin' on,
enough to say,
that I'm wrong,
wrong, wrong to keep holdin' on,
my yesterday's have
all gone by.

J-J-U-N, I-I-I-O-R, J-U-N-I-O-R, Junior, Junior, Junior!

The Junior class of '78 has been very active throughout the year with their moneymaking project of selling magazines. The sales helped to fund the decorations and band for the 1976 - 1977 Junior-Senior Banquet, Prom, and after-dance. To end their successful year, the Juniors put on the annual Junior Class Play to help Build up their class treasury for their Senior trip next year. The class has worked hard to achieve their goals in all these activities and deserve a great deal of praise.

The class of '79 has reached it's

I sit at this hard wooden desk, quietly
like at mass. The Voice drones onward
in front of the class trying to reveal secrets of knowledge to me
but it slowly just becomes the roar of the sea.
My mind flies out the window
to the grey blue sky
out there I find a seagull
sitting on a cloud-
"Hand in your papers" I hear the ocean cry
the sky turns brown
the cloud turns to air
and I fall down
into this hard wooden chair.

FRESH- MEN

We are fine; We are swell;
We're the Freshmen -- Here's wur yell -- Freshmen, Freshmen
Freshmen!!

The Freshmen, although being in a small class, were a lively group. They were students who seemed to pop up everywhere,
always on the go, never stopping,
always pushing forward.

The Freshmen were allowed to step up and participate in the Senior High activities. In football and basketball, they proved themselves very capable.

I meant to do my work today--
But a brown bird sang in the appletree,
And a butterfly flitted across the field,
And all the leaves were calling me.

1 Mighty tasty, even if we did cook it ourselves. Mike C, Tim,
and Mike F. will eat anything!

2 The Bionic Buzz!

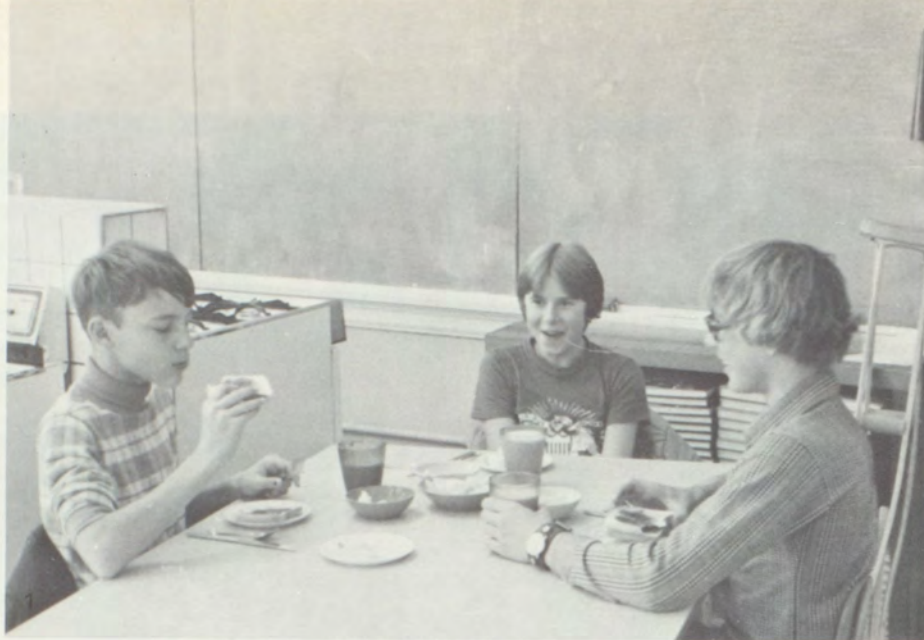

3 David has had it now 'cause
Charlie's on the prowl!

Shigeo

A familiar new face at NHS this year was that of Shigeo Kataoka, foreign exchange student from Japan. Shigeo, a Senior, was sponsored by the NHS Student Council, through International Fellowship, Inc. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilson, Brian, and Tom, were his "American family." Shigeo's real parents are Shigeichi and Nobuko Kataoka of Kobe City with Shigeo as their only child.

"Shiggy" as he is called by friends at NHS, studied the English language for six years and surprised NHS students by how well he could speak it and write it. Shigeo displayed his personality and singing talent with "You Ain't Nothin' but a Bluestreak" in a pep assembly skit. He was an officer of FCA and basketball manager this year. His classes were Typing I, English III, American History, American Government, Physics, and Math. After finishing school, Shigeo plans to attend college and become a math teacher. Good luck, Shiggy! We'll never forget you!

Annual Staff

"Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Bailey!! I need your help!" "Will this picture be alright?" "Class--only a week until deadline!" "Where's the copy for the football page?" "Are we doing the school scoops this week?"

The Annual Staff, made up entirely of Seniors, had a very busy, full year. Publications instructor Linda Bailey helped the thirteen students publish weekly "School Scoops" articles, write Senior profile articles, and make the all-important yearbook deadlines. They put in a lot of hard work and spent many hours preparing the pages of the yearbook--arranging pictures, writing copy, and assembling everything in a detailed

Being Editor of the 76-77 NHS yearbook has truly been my biggest honor throughout my High School years. Students think the yearbook just automatically comes out at the end of the year, but only the people working on the staff realize how much time and effort, and work is needed to create a yearbook. My staff has learned that people have to work together to get things done, although we have had our share of arguments, and disagreed on quite a few things.

Besides preparing a yearbook, we also wrote a weekly school news column for the Daily Sun, which kept us pretty busy most of the time. We liked to let the public know the happenings of Neodesha High School.

To finish this I would like to thank my staf; Don, Gina, Dee, Greg, Charlene, David B., Anne, Rick, Jeanne, David S., Diann, and Larry. Now, last but definate-ly not least, I would like to thank my advisor Mrs. Bailey. This yearbook would not be possible if it weren't for her. If all else failed

I could always call on Mrs. Bailey. Not only was she a fantastic advisor but also a wonderful friend personally. I hope this yearbook will be enjoyed now, and in years to come, by everyone.

Arithmetic tells you how many you lose or win if you know how many you had before you lost or won.

If you take a number and double it a few more times, the number gets bigger and bigger and goes higher and higher and only arithmetic can tell you what the number is when you decide to quit doubling.

If you ask your mother for one fried egg for breakfast, and she gives you two fried eggs and you eat both of them, who is better in arithmetic, you or your mother?

Volleyball

"Carolyn, are you O.K.?!"
 "Hey, J.H. --- can we skip the weights today?" "I finally got a serve over!" "Watch out!" "I'll set the ball to you --- be ready to spike it! Whoops! -- I guess that wasn't too good of a set, was it?!" "Bump, set, spike --- bump, set, spike --- I'm even beginning to dream it at night!" "Hey, Mrs. Bailey --- quit listenin' to the radio!" "Carolyn, are you hurt AGAIN?!"

The '76 Girls' Volleyball team finished a second season with improved play and skill. To the fans who followed the players, the determination and hustle they displayed was evident of all the hard practice they put in all season. The varsity squad lost some very close games, but pulled out a victory over Burlington. The Jr. Varsity team played to a 5-2 mark for the season, which arouses hope for next year. The ten Seniors will be hard to replace, but there are many promising young faces waiting for their chance.

Blue 32, Hut 1

The mighty Bluestreak squad battled to a 3-3 league mark for a third-place tie, and for a 3-6 overall. Three last-minute decisions would have turned the season around: The first of these decisions was with Cherryvale. This thriller was lost after five overtimes, 24-18.

The second was lost in the last minute of play on a desperation pass by the Bullpups of Caney, 18-12.

The third was against the Burlington Wildcats. Needy's offense was discouraged twice when touchdowns were nullified on penalties. Statistic-wise, The Bluestreaks were victors, but they came up on the short end of the score, 7-6.

After three straight losses the Streaks finally came thru with a dazzling homecoming win over the Eureka Tornadoes. The Streaks played well overall in every quarter and came out on top, 22-0. The next hair-raiser was against Humboldt. The Blue squeaked by in the last second of the game and won, 14-7. The third victory for the Streaks was played on the Yates Center Wildcat's muddy field during freezing rain. This defensive struggle against the mud was won in overtime, 14-6.

The spirited J. V. finished with a 3-2 season mark. With big wins over Sedan, Fredonia, and Yates Center, the Streaks gained experience and see next year's season as promising.

A proud Jr. High football team finished their season with a 3-2 record. One big win was over the Tri-Valley league champs, the Fredonia Yellowjackets. An over-time battle with Caney, ending with an 18-12 score, was the second win. The third Neody victory was in a play-off game with Yates Center.

1 Coaches Hutchinson and Thayer were proud of the great team effort shown throughout the season.

Pressure Defense

The 1977 Neodesha Varsity basketball squad has come a long way. This year's girls team, a young one, fought hard to play several close games. Close team play and balanced scoring were the girls strongest points. Dianne Timmons and Anne Smith, this years seniors provided the leadership for the young team. They played hard and really gave it a Bluestreak effort.

The boy's team has emerged as one of the league's most powerful. Two early season losses to Fredonia and Cherryvale hurt the team standings. But the Streaks put it all together to come back and defeat Sedan twice and win in an overtime against Yates Center. The eight seniors were the backbone of the team and provided the much needed leadership. They will be missed and very hard to replace next year. A strong junior squad next year will help our team continue to win.

Bluestreak Basketball

The Sr. High boys squad, under the leadership of coaches Don Adams and Ned Thayer, proved to be a top contender in the league. The team worked hard, and practice strengthened the varsity as they applied their awesome pressure defence.

The girls varsity squad struggled during the season openers, but morale remained high and enthusiastic. Coaches Jean and Tom Hollingsworth led the young women, and Diane and Anne provided the Senior leadership. The girls worked hard learning basic principles of basketball, and should be top contenders in the seasons to come.

Jr. High Basketball

Neodesha's Jr. HIGH BASKETBALL SQUADS showed exceptional teamwork this year. The boys 8th Grade, coached by Charlie Justice, played well throughout the season. The 7th Grade team gained experience to use in their future years at NHS. The girls teams came back this season to defend their title of divisional champs. With enthusiasm and spirit, the girls dominated league play.

The NHS tennis teams had tough seasons again this year as they faced opponents from larger schools. Both squads showed improved skills and determination.

The crosscountry team had success this year in their willpower to be able to run long distances. They worked hard all season and had great leadership from the two seniors, Mike Cook and Jon Caulfield. Mike and Jon both went to the state crosscountry meet, doing very well. In this kind of sport the runners have to run about two miles. At the state meet this year it was cold and raining and the wind blew hard through the whole contest. We should all be proud of both Mike and Jon because they ran hard. Out of over a hundred runners, Mike placed 4th and Jon got 45th. Next year we'll be led by this year's juniors, Danny Richards and Chris Caulfield. Sophomores consisted of Robert Riley, Allan Branham and Terry Erbe.

The newest addition to NHS was the seventh graders. All year these students were seen racing, running, sliding, and falling up and down the stairs and halls. The boys this year were able to play football and basketball, showing Bluestreak pride. The class of '82 has a long way to go, but alot to look forward to. Our advice to you would be to keep your class spirit up and work hard; for some day you will all be Seniors. Until that time If you work hard, study, and keep a keen edge, you will still be the great class you are today!

As the class of '77 now looks forward to graduation, we also begin to look back and remember--

The first day of 7th grade, when everyone wondered how North Lawn and Central could possibly get along and how surprised we were that it actually turned out to be fun;

Trying to carve your initials
in a desk without getting caught;

And the thrill of an undefeated
Freshman football team.

We remember the mad rush of getting our first prom planned-- the headaches it caused and the pride we felt when it finally all came together;

How funny it felt when we at last gave the Senior yell;

The cheering crowd and climbing flames of our last Fredonia pep rally;

And the special strength we felt
of our loyalty to old Big Blue.

We remember these things and know that when we leave these halls for the last time, we will also be leaving much youth, countless memories, and many of the special friends we have had in each other.

But though we leave so much behind, these are not things lost; for we will carry in our hearts forever that touch of Bluestreak Pride.

---Twillia Cohee

Looking back with thoughts of what has been ...

Remembering dreams we've dreamt ...

Laughing at something that wasn't funny then, realizing many things that were funny then, that aren't really now ...

Wishing you'd done something different, or tried a little harder ...

Seeing hazy things of the past clearer ...

Memories of doing things you wouldn't do, or wishing you'd done something you didn't

Wondering what would happen next, or doubting that it ever would ...

Straining to express your thoughts ...

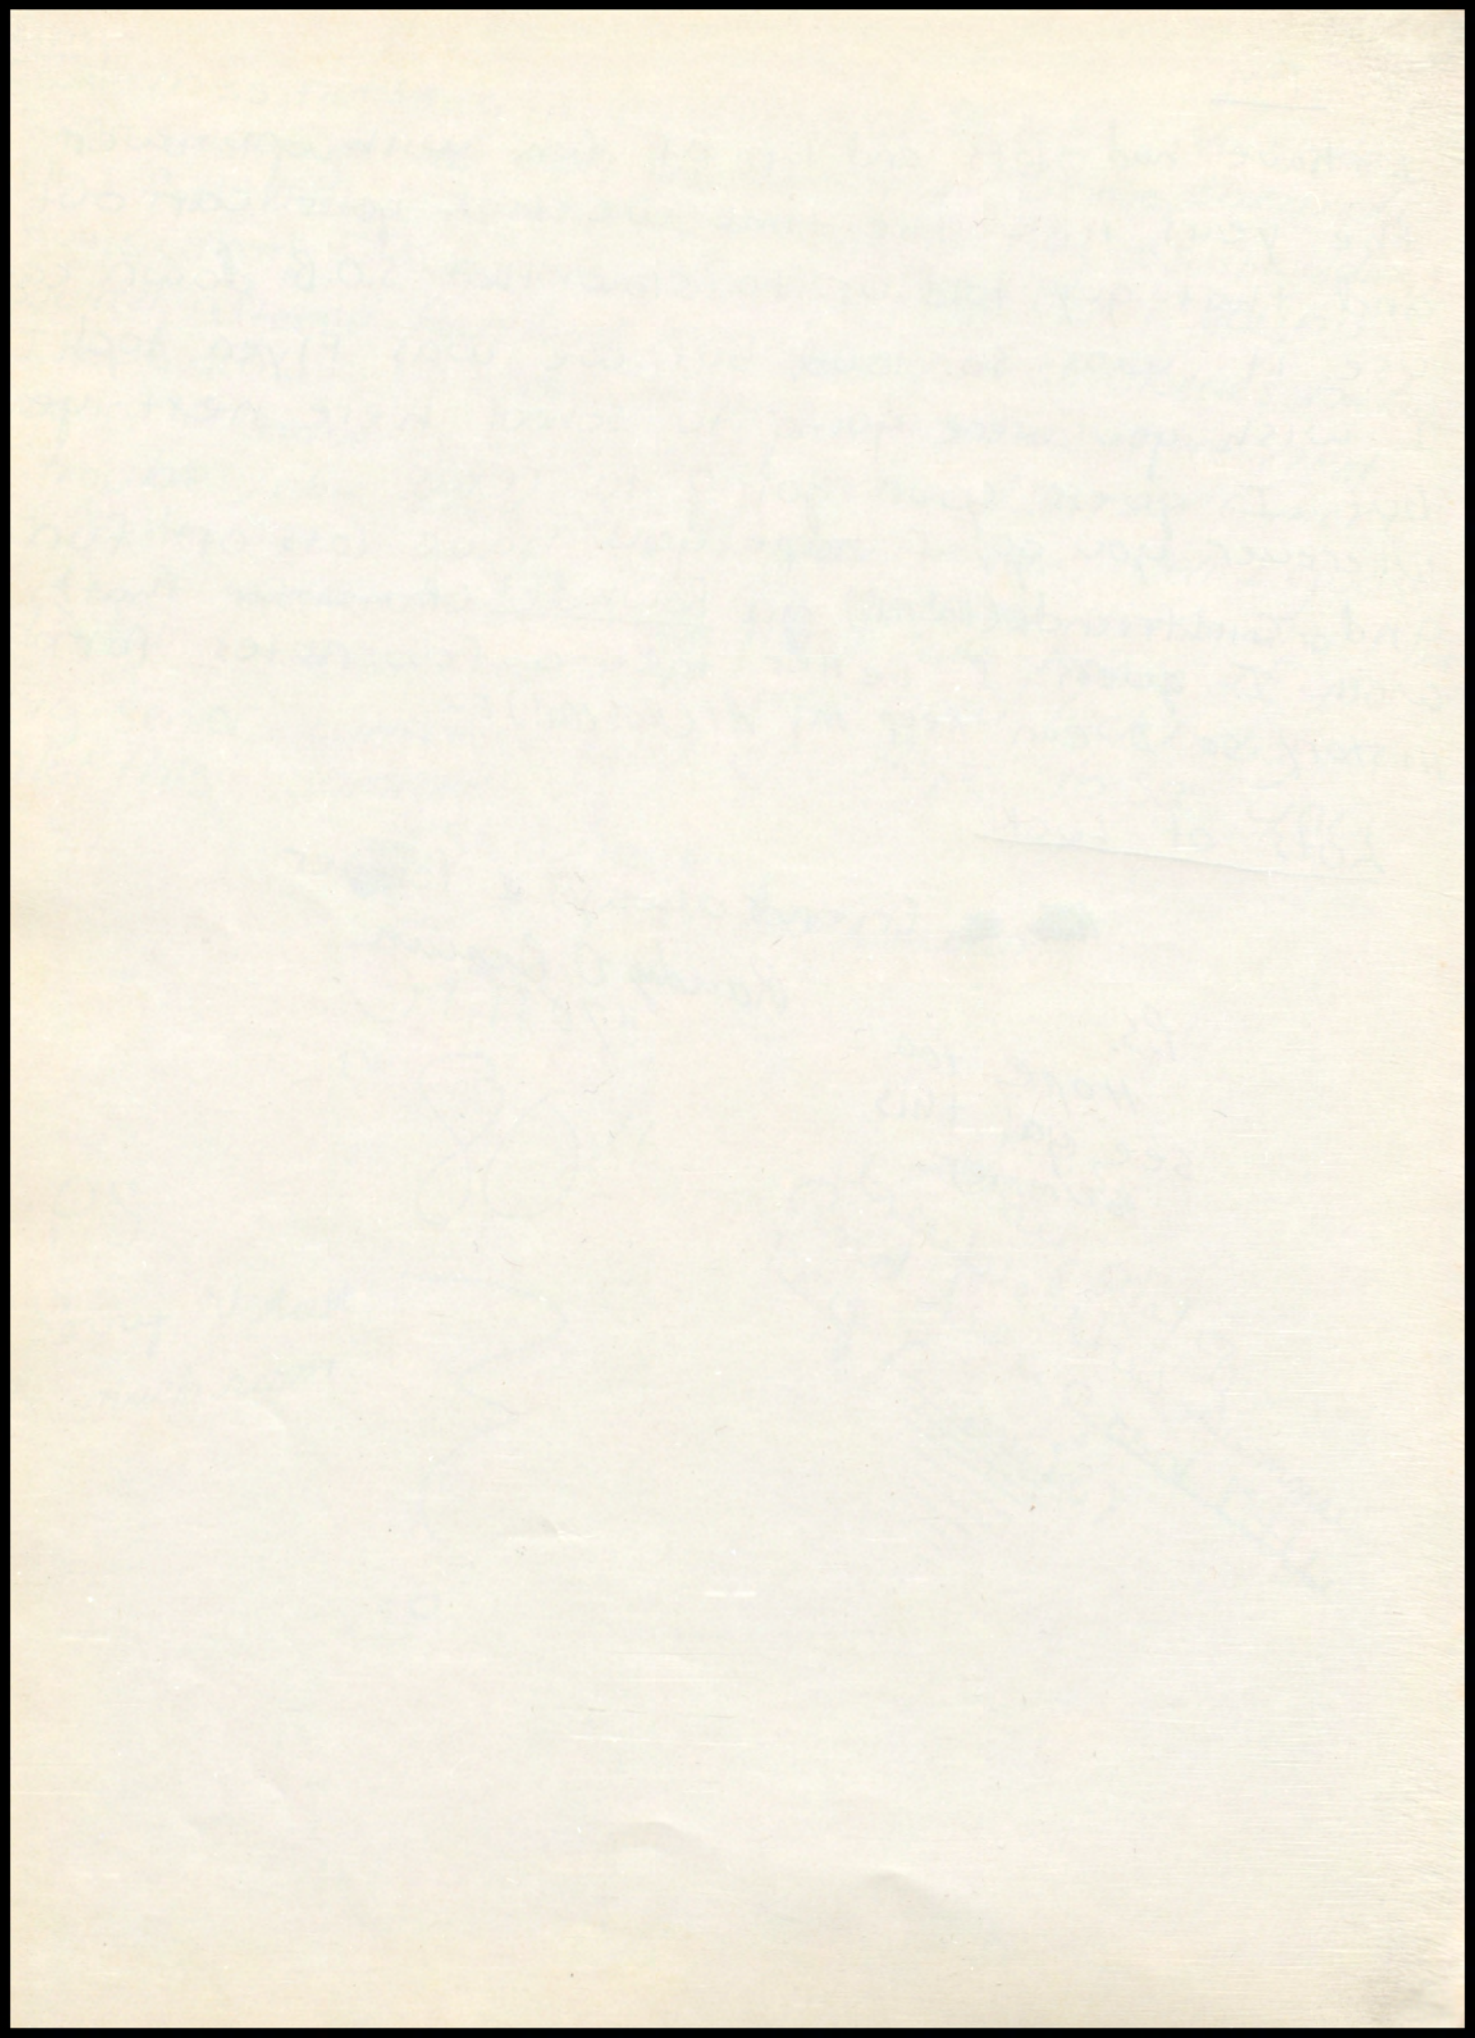

Suffering the pains of defeat, relishing the sensation of victory ...

Loving every minute of it, hating every hour ...

Feeling like it would never end, and wishing it wasn't ending so soon.
