EX LIBRIS

The seniors here at Wayside
Present this book to you;
In hopes the memories cherished most
Will be always kept anew.

And, as you turn these pages,
During the succeeding years,
May your thoughts be happy always
And so keep away the tears.

For hidden within each bosom
Are emotions, sometimes grief,
And in vain you seek a way,
To give your heart relief.

May these pages be an answer;
For as old as the ages be,
Men seek to unlock these feelings;
And may this be, for you, a key.

CLASS HISTORY

O. I. Whoopanholler
13 South 13th Street
Lost Souls, Colorado

Dear Mr. Whoopanholler:

Four years ago I was a little Froshie, remember! I am now a senior along with the rest. If Mr. Ripley was still alive that would be a "Believe-It-Or-Not," wouldn't it?

I am sure you will be surprised and a little chagrined, perhaps, at hearing from me. Our class voted me the most likely one to be remembered by you, (all of it bad of course), and so the logical one to write to you. They want you to give the commenchment address.

You may be able to recall the twelve freshman that startled "Father Time" by entering Wayside together: Nora Mae Winebrenner, Betty Jo Boomershine, Martha Taylor, Billy Loggan, Grace Jones, DOnnald Harrison, Faye Godsey, Paul Freidline, Alene Denny, Thelma Blakemore, Jim Bell, Billie Adams (second semester). To me the year was highlighted by no initiation. Some played basketball, and softball; and some were in "Have a Heart," " Green Grass ", "Pa Gets Took", and "Double Exposure". A few were in little but mischief. Of course that's where you remember me.

Besides nursing lollipops we played basketball softball, got into mischief and some got in the play "Girls Are Like That". Oh! Yes some of we girls skipped school just before Christmas. We wore ourselves out along with blisters on our feet. The next day we discovered the buses had taken the whole school to Coffeyville to the Christmas parade.

During our Junior year there were distinct signs we were growing up. Our Junior-Senior Banquet, "In Old Hawa ii" was very nice. It was at the Booth hotel followed by a show.

There are only six of us here at Wayside to finish the Senior Year. Six fell out and left us cold. The pie Supper, Laddie Hawkins' Supper, play, and "Skip Day" were all a great success. With tears in our eyes we graduate, we hope.

Hope you can be here for commencement.

With kindest personal regards and Best Wishes,

Alene Denny

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1950, do being of strong mind; physically timid; tactfully stubborn, strong willed, droll humored and with malicious intent toward others; do hereby take this opportunity to present our last will and testament:

Don Harrison's wolfish ways to Leonard McCarty.

Paul Freidline's cute ways with the girls to Gary Bowersock.

Thelma Blademore's ability to get her lesson's to the science classes.

Alene Denny's basketball "goals" to Sylvia Boomershine.

Nora Mae Winebrenner wills her "jeans" to Janet Gillen.

Betty Jo Boomershine wills her upside down smile to all Freshman. They'll get it eventually anyway.

CLASS PROPHECY

I cannot understand it. I keep saying to myself. Where are they? All at once I find my-self alone and they just had to be here. Were they not here with me and now! We get to the stairs, up three steps then, hocus-pocus they are gone. No clues. I'll pinch myself. Maybe I am only asleep and this is a bad dream. Yes, that's it because here they are, all of them! Don, Nora Mae, Alene, Betty Jo, Paul, and myself. Alene has Paul's arm. 1,2,3, March! Abreast up the stairs we go. Clap, clap, clap. The top is still out of sight. We look down, to be sure we have moved. Sure enough we have. Just as Paul turns to step up, down he goes. Alene turns loose just in time to catch herself. But poor Paul, he is going head first, hitting each step as he goes. Don turned to holler, "Take it easy", and down he goes. Boy, is he going. All rolled up like a mattress he goes by Paul in nothing flat. Down, down, Plunk! He hits bottom, coasts then stops like a wheel that's lost its momentum. Now Paul hits bottom. Only he don't coast. He gets up, rubs his head, starts back. All this time we poor girls just stand there with our mouths open. Alene is first to act. Let's go, why wait? But the steps are straight up now. Before we had reached a gentler slope Paul had caught up with us. We looked around and Don is just standing there alternately dusting himself off and rubbing his head. Paul yells down, "Don't let one trip up and one down get you". "Come on". At this Paul pays no more attention to Don. We eye Don a while, but he seems to be unable to make up his mind. He keeps turning his head from side to side to make sure his rear is clear for a fast get away. Apparently all of us have the same notion; at once we turn to resume the climb. Paul is just finishing a bottle. Voss Cola, that is. Alene says, "Hey Crumb, where's your manners? We are thirsty too." Paul hands her the bottle, empty. Alene without a word bops him on the head with it. Glass flies like an April Shower. That seems to make Don's mind up for him. He's running like a rocket: his overcoat flowing straight back like a window curtain in a strong wind. That's the last we heard of him. Perhaps he sits by a deep stream with steep banks and dreams away his time.

The four of us climb for days, maybe years but the top is still not in sight. Perhaps there is no top. Just as I am thinking, "This may last for ever." The steps disappear and we are standing on imagination which is very unstable. I try to yell but can't. Just then something cold and wet hits me in the face. I open my eyes with a start. There's Alene, Betty Jo, and Nora Mae. "Nora Mae!", I said pointing at her and sitting up in bed. "Yes," "Silly," she replies, "Where'd you think I'd be." "Where's Don?" I asked. "Asleep" all four chimmed. Then I noticed my face was soaked along with my pillow. No wonder the bucket Alene has is empty. All are laughing now but me. But I don't mind. What a relief. "I guess I must have been dreaming about our future," I said. "Tell us about it," they ask. "Well I guess we were doing alright until a depression came along." "What happened then?" "How would I know?" "If you hadn't thrown that water on me I might be able to tell you."

To make this page,
We gathered to cheer,
A group of stars
From the 2nd year.

All are good;
Some are stout;
Some are natured
By their shout.

Now there's George;
We know he's there;
Because he's always
In your hair.

J.D. Hodges
Please speak up.
Stayed at home
Till the rest catch up.

Don't drop a tear
A very good team
For many a year.

Hurrah! that's all--
For now we are playing

To bring this thing
To a stop,
We placed the coach

HIGH SCHOOL BOY'S BASKETBALL

Before the Battles Basketball were half over, Coach Ransbottom saw his Big-4 League Champs shaping into a first class team, namely the "Panthers".

The Panthers [illegible] by Larry Donnelly, an outstanding, all [illegible] whose hands were at all times in the right places, [illegible] the right time.

The outstanding athlete's who made up the Panthers were: Larry Donnelly, Charles Monday, Marvin Dunham and Garry Bowersock forming the Nucleur of the 1949-50 squad, with ample reserve strength furnished by Wayne Cruppor, Paul Freidline, George Biggs, Norman Burkett, and James Denton.

The Ilk City, Red Devils were the first opponents of the Panthers, with a score of 55-24 in favor of the local team.

Longton's Lions were the next cooled by the Panthers by virtue of 30-26 win over them on the Panther's home court.

Next on the schedule was a road trip that carried the Panthers to Peru, and again the Panthers were victorious with a 37-26 win.

The Panthers hit a slump with the Havana Pirates, the score being 24-33 in favor of the visitors.

The next road trip taken by the Panthers was to be defeated by the Hornets of Wann, Oklahoma. The score 41-50 in favor of the Hornets.

Next on the schedule was a trip to Longton, where the Panthers brought home another victory of 35-31 win.

The Panthers cooled their opponents, the Wild Cats of Elk Falls, at Wayside with a score of 33-31 count.

The Pirates of Havana and the Panthers of Wayside clashed again with a victory for the local team 31-28 count.

The journey to Elk Falls with the Wild Cats proved a very close victory of 34-33, only 1 point for the Panthers, a victory well worth going after.

The Panthers growing in athletic grace easily defeated Copan with a count of 75-23. Going with the Panthers was not quite so good with Longton, here the Lion's at Elk City, growled, showed their teeth, took the game by a count of [illegible] in a double over time.

The last game of [illegible] with Copan at Wayside with an over whelming victory of 83-20 count.

The Big-4 League Champions, scoring at will sent sophomore Charles Monday in for 34 points, and Captain Larry Donnelly for 26 in chalking up an easy 83-20 victory. Perhaps this fine record would of been better, had Gene Kilgore been permitted to play, a fact due to his late enrollment in school.

Wayside is looking forward to the new crop of young athletes to join the reaks nest year from the grades. This season's record is one to be looked at with pride by the past and future athletic fans. This is the first year for the Big-4 League, and Wayside captured first place.

The close of this basketball season shows the following average scores: Sophomore Charles Monday 23 points, Captain Larry Donnelly 12 points and Freshman Marvin Dunham secured 9 points.

Those lettering this year were: Larry Donnelly, Charles Monday, Gene Kilgore, Marvin Dunham, Garry Bowersock, Norman Burket, George Biggs, Wayne Crupper, Paul Freidline, James Denton.

Needless to say Coach Ransbottom is very proud of this fine team's record, the loyal co-operation of each boy, to make this one of the best athletic years known by Wayside.

The records are as follows: Wayside made 650 points, averaging 46½ points per game. Opponents 432 points with an average of 42 points per game.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

One of the most pleasant surprises in Wayside High School this year was the girls' basketball team. Girls basketball has not been very successful for several years, and when Supt. Evans and coach Blackmore presented us with a winning team, our surprise was only exceeded by our unbounded delight. From the beginning of the season the girls showed great interest in basketball and worked hard to be a winning team. Lois Denny, captain, played guard. She did her part in helping to keep the opposing forwards from making baskets. Nora Winebrenner had the fight and floorwork that made her either guard or forward. Thelma Blakemore's ability to block high passes to opposing forwards was exceptional and her teamwork was noteworthy. Forward Patsy Strope, although small in stature, made up for this handicap in alertness and speed. Marcialee Ringle's floorwork and her fighting spirit made her do her part as a forward on the team. Alene Denny was our "Shooting Star." She seemed to have "the gift of grab," getting control of the ball from any position in an amazing way. When Alene got the ball we were assured of a few more points. She made a total of 348 points in the twelve games played. ReVae Brownlee and Betty Tolbert both played guard until the end of the first semester. Speed and headwork were their leading virtues. ReVae was compelled to quit because of an injury. Love took Betty's basketball career. The second team players must not be forgotten. Their faithfulness at practice made the first team all that it was. Those players were: Beulah James, Shirley Hull, Sandra Miller, Betty Jo Boomershine, Nell Warren, Ann Hodges, Mary Jane Wiley, and Joan James.

The girls record this year is indeed an enviable one. The season's results show that we won ten games and lost two. We are certainly proud of this enviable record and wish to congratulate the girls' basketball squad for their fine work.

An exceptionally fine attitude of sportsmanship was displayed by the team throughout the season. There is every reason to believe that this team was one of the best in south-eastern Kansas.

Letter girls last year were: Lois Denny, Nora Mae Winebrenner, Marcialee Ringle, Alene Denny, Patsy, Strope, and ReVae Brownlee. These girls also lettered this year.
Letter girls this year are: Thelma Blakemore, Betty Jo Boomershine, Shirley Mull, Beulah James, Sandra Miller, Nell Warren, AnnHodges, and Mary Jane Wiley.

ACTIVITIES

COUNTY SPELLING CONTEST

The first county spelling contest to be held in a number of years was conducted at the Independence High School on Saturday, April 1st.

Each grade from the fourth to the eight, inclusive, was allowed one contestant.

Entries from Wayside were:

Fourth grade	Carolyn James
Fifth grade	Martha Biggs
Sixth grade	Freddie Ringle
Seventh grade	Richard Arnold
Eighth grade	Leah Dunn

Carolyn and Martha each won first in their class, and Richard placed third. Although, Leah and Freddie did not place, they each did well.

The points given for these rankings gave Wayside a tie with Cedar Bluff School for first place. A trophy will be awarded each.

COUNTY TRACK MEET

The county school track meet was held at Riverside Stadium in Independence on March 24,1950. There were eight separate classes, four for girls and four for boys. Wayside had entries in each. By winning one first, six seconds, and four thirds, Wayside tied with Havana for third place in the graded section. Those who placed were: Nancy Donnelly, third in high jump and third in 75-yard dash for class A girls. Garry Corkins took third in broad jump and tied for second in high jump for class A boys. In this same class, Dale Gillen won second in the ball throw. In the class C section, Glenda Lou Defendbaugh won second in 50-yard dash; Colene Denny took second in ball throw, and Kay Ringle won first in the sack race. In class D competition, Lawrence Strope won second in ball throw for boys, while Twyla Finney placed third in the same event for girls. Another second place rating was in this section. Ann May Hine and Jeanette Sewell in the three legged race.

Crazy conversation;
"Hey, look at that bunch of cows."
"Not bunch, Herd."
"Heard of what?"
"Herd of cows."
"Sure, I've heard of cows."
"I mean a cow herd."
"What do I care if a cow heard I haven't said anything I'm ashamed of."
